TWENTIETH REPORT

FROM

THE ECCLESIASTICAL COMMISSIONERS FOR ENGLAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT, &c. &c. &c.

The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England submit, in accordance with the 26th Section of the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. 94, and the 10th Section of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116., a Report of their proceedings for the year preceding the 1st of November 1867.

An abstract of the accounts of the Commissioners for the same period is annexed, in compliance with the directions of the firstly-named Act. See Appendix, No. 1, p. 51. The Report of the Auditor will be found at page 68.

The grants which have been made by the Commissioners to Benefices, Districts, and new Parishes during the past year, including grants to certain Benefices within the Parish of Manchester, under the provisions of "The Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850," are enumerated in the Appendix Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5, pp. 69, 80, 93, and 95. The Instruments and Schemes for confirming such grants appear in the Appendix, Nos. 36 and 37, pp. 149 and 551.

The Commissioners have also made certain grants to meet benefactions in accordance with the 15th Section of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124, with a view to making temporary provision for the cure of souls in districts in which large masses of population are collected for the purpose of working mines. The particulars of these grants will be found in the Appendix, No. 6, p. 96.

During the past year the Commissioners have received, by direction of the Lord Chancellor, under the provisions of "The Lord Chancellor's Augmentation Act, 1863," (26 & 27 Vict. c. 126.) the sum of 10,950*l*. Of this amount 5,125*l*. have been appropriated, as required by his Lordship, towards the immediate augmentation of certain Benefices, the particulars of which are stated in the Appendix, No. 7, p. 98; and the remaining sum of 5,825*l*. has also been appropriated, under the direction of his Lordship, towards the prospective augmentation of certain Benefices, as set forth in the Appendix, No. 8, p. 98. The particulars of the cases which, during the past year, have come into the enjoyment of the prospective augmentation previously secured are specified in the Appendix, No. 9, p. 99.

The purchase monies for Sales of Advowsons with reference to which Certificates have been issued by the Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of the 24th Section of the last-mentioned Act, will be found in the Appendix, No. 10, p. 99.

A Schedule of the cases in which local claims on estates which have been enfranchised are created by the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116, in compliance with the directions of the secondly-mentioned Act, is annexed to this Report. The same Schedule shows the period at which it was estimated that the previously subsisting lease or grant, in each case under which the estate was held, would have expired. See Appendix, No. 11, p. 100.

Under the provisions of the Acts 1 & 2 Vict. c. 106, 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, 6 & 7 Vict. c. 37, 13 & 14 Vict. c. 98, and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 142, a scheme has been passed for uniting the Rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas Olave, with the rectory of Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw, in the city of London, and for other purposes therein mentioned. See Appendix, No. 37, p. 575.

In pursuance of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 142, a scheme has been passed for making certain alterations in the Order in Council of the 1st November 1864, relating to the union of the Rectory of All Hallows, Lombard Street, with the rectory of Saint Benet, Gracechurch Street, with Saint Leonard, Eastcheap. See Appendix, No. 37, p. 599.

In pursuance of the power conferred upon them by "The Rochdale Vicarage Act, 1866," the Commissioners have entered into an agreement (see Appendix, No. 33, p. 143) with the present vicar of Rochdale, by which certain glebe lands and premises, specified in the Act, have become vested in the Commissioners in accordance with and for the purposes of the same statute. Pursuant to the provisions of the same Act certain annual payments have been secured to the incumbents of certain district churches or chapels therein referred to. The particulars of such grants will be found in the Appendix No. 3. p. 80.

In pursuance of the power conferred upon them by "The Bishop Wearmouth Rectory Act, 1867," the Commissioners have entered into an agreement (see Appendix, No. 35, p. 145) with the present rector of Bishop Wearmouth, by which certain property belonging to the rectory, which is specified in the Act, has become vested in the Commissioners, in accordance with and for the purposes of the same Statute. By the same Act "The Bishopwearmouth Fund" has become merged in the Common Fund, and certain annual payments previously made to the incumbents of the district Churches or Chapels mentioned in such Act out of "The Bishopwearmouth Fund" have been charged upon the Common Fund. The particulars of such grants will be found in the Appendix No. 3. p. 80.

In accordance with the provisions of the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 84, Schemes have been passed for apportioning the incomes of certain Benefices between the incumbents of those Benefices and the incumbents of certain other Benefices; and for augmenting certain Benefices out of the incomes of other Benefices. See Appendix, No. 12, p. 100, and No. 37, p. 551.

Assignments of the patronage of certain Benefices have also been effected under the provisions of the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39, and 6 & 7 Vict. c. 37, in consideration of, or with a view to, the augmentation of the incomes of such Benefices. The Schemes and particulars relating to these transactions will be found in the Appendix, No. 13, p. 101, and No. 37, p. 551.

Under the provisions of the Acts 16 & 17 Vict. c. 50, and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124, exchanges of the patronage of certain Benefices have been made, and the Schemes and particulars relating thereto appear in the Appendix, No. 14, p. 102, and No. 37, p. 551.

Under "the Church Building Acts," "the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850," and "the New Parishes Acts," the following arrangements have been made by the Commissioners during the past year, viz.:—

Eighty-two Districts have been constituted or assigned under the designation of either—

1. District Chapelries. See Appendix, No. 15, p. 103.
2. Consolidated Chapelries. See Appendix, No. 16, p. 104.

3. Particular Districts. See Appendix, No. 17, p. 106.
4. Districts and New Parishes. See Appendix, No. 18, p. 107.

In one case a grant has been made by way of compensation for loss of fees which have become payable to the incumbent of a new Parish formed under "the New Parishes Acts." See Appendix, No. 19, p. 110.

Orders under the 11th section of the Act 19 & 20 Vict. c. 104, authorizing the performance, in six Churches or Chapels to which Districts belong, of the offices contemplated by that section, have been issued by the Commissioners. See Appendix, No. 20, p. 110.

Declarations of the patronage of eight Churches have been also issued. See Appendix, No. 21, p. 111.

In five cases new Churches have been substituted for old Parish Churches. See Appendix, No. 22, p. 112.

Scales of Pew Rents have been fixed for eight Churches. See Appendix, No. 23, p. 112.

Two hundred and fifty-two conveyances of sites for Churches, burial grounds, and parsonage houses respectively have been accepted. See Appendix, No. 24, p. 113.

A list of Benefices which during the past year have been declared by the Commissioners to be Rectories or Vicarages, in accordance with the provisions of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," will be found in the Appendix, No. 25, p. 120.

During the year to which this Report relates, certain real estates have been assigned to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and the Dean and Chapter of Winchester respectively as the permanent endowments of those Corporations. The Schemes by which these transactions have been effected appear in the Appendix, No. 37, pp. 906, 869, and 850.

In pursuance of the Act 29 & 30 Vict. c. 111, a Scheme has been passed for effecting an exchange of certain lands and hereditaments belonging to the Bishop of Durham for certain other lands and hereditaments belonging to the Commissioners. See Appendix, No. 37, p. 681.

Schemes have been passed by which the Dean and Chapter of Llandaff and the Dean and Canons of Her Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within Her Majesty's Castle of Windsor, have, in consideration of money payments, transferred to the Commissioners (with certain exceptions) the property belonging to them respectively. See Appendix, No. 37, pp. 766 and 793.

Under the provisions of the Act 5 Vict. Sess. 2. c. 26, a scheme has been passed relating to the improvement of the precincts of the cathedral church of York. See Appendix, No. 37, p. 815.

In pursuance of the Acts 6 & 7 W. IV. c. 77, and 5 Vict. Sess. 2. c. 26, a further Scheme has been passed for providing the Bishop of Chester with a more convenient house of residence. See Appendix, No. 37, p. 895.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act 27 & 28 Vict. c. 70, a Scheme has been passed for effecting the transfer to the Commissioners of the property forming the endowment of the Principals, Seniors, and Vicars Choral of the Cathedral Church of Wells, and for substituting in lieu thereof an annual money payment. See Appendix, No. 37, p. 553.

The Scheme and particulars relating to the augmentation of an Archdeaconry will be found in the Appendix, No. 26, p. 126, and No. 37, p. 715.

In accordance with the provisions contained in the Act 29 & 30 Vict. c. 111, the present Archdeacon of Colchester has by a memorandum (see Appendix, No. 34, p. 144) signified his willingness that the transfer of the estates of his archdeaconry to the Commissioners contemplated by the Act should take place. These estates have been accordingly transferred to the Commissioners conditionally on certain annual payments being, as directed by the Act, paid out of the Common Fund to the Archdeacons of Colchester and Essex and to the incumbents of certain Benefices mentioned in such Act.

The Preferments, the endowments of which have become vested in the Commissioners during the year to which this report has reference, either by vacation, or by commutation of the interests of the incumbents under the provisions of the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113 and 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39, are enumerated in the Appendix, Nos. 27 and 28, p. 126.

The Commissioners have continued to effect enfranchisements of estates vested in them, on the principles stated in their Twelfth Report, and the instances continue to be extremely few in which the price required by the Commissioners has been the subject of prolonged discussion and of ultimate refusal.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116, a Schedule is annexed of all sales of reversions and purchases of leasehold interests effected during the year preceding the 1st November last, and also of all cases of refusal, with the special reasons for the same See Appendix, Nos. 29 and 30, pp. 127 and 138.

A list of the sales effected and of the leases granted with the sanction of the Commissioners, under the authority of "The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts," during the past year, is inserted in the Appendix, Nos. 31 and 32, pp. 139 and 140.

Copies of all Instruments sealed by the Commissioners under the fifth section of the Act 29 & 30 Vict. c. 111, and copies of all Schemes and Representations prepared by the Commissioners, and sanctioned and approved by Her Majesty in Council during the same year, will be found in the Appendix, Nos. 36 and 37, pp. 149 and 551.

The Commissioners in the present year complete the Scheme which, in their 16th Report dated 1st March 1864, they proposed to accomplish within five years. Every living with less income than 300*l.* a year which then existed and contained, according to the census of 1861, a population of 4,000 persons, will on the 1st March 1869 have had its income raised to 300*l.* a year, except those cases in private patronage where the one half of the augmentation which the Patrons were required to provide or to cause to be provided from non-ecclesiastical sources has not been forthcoming. By the same date the local claims arising upon the estates of the Archbishoprick of York and of the Bishopricks of Durham, Peterborough, Lincoln, Norwich and Carlisle, and upon the estates of the Chapters of York, Peterborough, Carlisle, Chichester, Chester, Gloucester and Canterbury will have been considered by the Board.

In their Report of the 24th February 1853 the Commissioners referred to an arrangement under powers contained in the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39, and 5 & 6 Vict. c. 26, which had been entered into with the Dean and Chapter of York, whereby the Capitular Estates (subject to subsisting Leases) had become vested in the Commissioners, and in lieu thereof the Dean and Chapter were to receive an annuity until the Commissioners should restore to them real estates in possession calculated to produce an income equal to such annuity; and it was estimated that the arrangement would at a future date yield a considerable surplus for the augmentation of small livings.

At the close of 1852 the Chapter of Carlisle effected a commutation similar to that of the Chapter of York.

In 1853 the Cathedral Commission took evidence on the subject of commutations, and in that year an Act 16 & 17 Vict. c. 35. was passed which directed that the revenues of these two Chapters, and of any others making similar transfers, should be held in reserve and not be applicable to the augmentation and endowment of parochial cures until after that Commission should have made its final Report.

That Report, dated 10th May 1855, referred to the Capitular Commutations, and advised that all the improved revenue derived from the better management of Capitular Property should be appropriated to the augmentation of Capitular Incomes and to the improvement of Cathedral Institutions.

In 1856 a Committee of the House of Commons sat to consider the proceedings of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and took evidence as to the process of Capitular Commutations and the re-endowment of the Chapters with permanent estates. In their third Report the Committee set out the details of the York Chapter Commutation, and observe, "Such agreements tend to facilitate enfranchisement, and "to provide funds for the endowment of poor livings, as "well as to afford a ready means of providing estates in "possession for the Ecclesiastical Corporations."

In the year 1854 the Chapters of Peterborough and Chester, in 1855 the Chapter of Gloucester, in 1856 St. Asaph, in 1857 Worcester, in 1860 Chichester, in 1861 Winchester and Salisbury, in 1862 Bristol, Canterbury, and Exeter, in 1866 Wells, Rochester, and St. Davids, and in 1867 the Chapters of Llandaff and Windsor effected similar commutations of their Capitular Estates. All these arrangements have been successively sanctioned by Orders of Her Majesty in Council, and set out in the Commissioners' Annual Reports laid before Parliament. Commutations have thus been effected with no fewer than eighteen Chapters. Under these commutations the Chapters gave up their ancient estates in consideration of annual money payments to be received by them pending their re-endowment with real estates in possession; and in 1862 the permanent estate of the Chapter of York, in 1863 that of Peterborough, in 1865 those of Carlisle and Chichester, in 1866 those of Chester, Gloucester, and Canterbury, and in 1867 that of Winchester, were re-assigned.

As a consequence the Commissioners, in the period between 1864 and 1868, considered the local claims of the parochial cures upon the estates of the Chapters of York, Peterborough, Carlisle, and Chichester, and, so far as the value of the property would permit, the requisite grants were made to such parochial cures: the like claims upon the estates of Chester, Gloucester, and Canterbury Chapters should, as herein-after stated, be considered in the course of the present year.

The present position is that the re-arrangement of the estates of eight Chapters has been completed; and that in seven of these eight cases the local claims of the places in which their estates were situate have been, or forthwith should be, under consideration; that with respect to ten other Chapters, the re-endowments are in progress; and that with respect to two more Chapters, viz., Westminster and Norwich, terms of commutation have been agreed. Of the remaining Chapters, Bangor has no estate, Ripon has very little, and has ceased to renew beneficial leases, and Manchester is subject to special legislation; so that the six Chapters of Durham, Ely, Hereford, Lichfield, Lincoln, and St. Paul's are all that continue to manage the ancient capitular properties upon the system of renewing leases in consideration of the payment of fines.

The Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council has recently had under consideration the schemes for ratifying the commutations agreed to by the Chapters of Westminster and Norwich, and in the event of its being decided that these schemes are ultra vires, a doubt would be cast on the validity of the titles to the estates which have been enfranchised under the whole of these eighteen commutations, and also on that of the re-endowment of the eight Chapters; and the grants in satisfaction of local claims will have been made in respect of an improved value, arising from the change of system, which would thus not be legally applicable to that purpose.

The Commissioners beg to draw special attention to this grave contingency, with a view to the provision, if it be found requisite, of legislative sanction to the commutations which have been already effected, and to others of a like character that have been or may be agreed upon between the remaining Chapters and the Board.

The Commissioners contemplate making in the year commencing 1st March 1869 grants equivalent to a capital sum of not less than 300,000*l.* They have not at present determined to what precise objects these grants shall be directed, except that they have resolved to make grants equivalent to a capital sum of 100,000*l.* to meet benefactions of at least equal amount. The local claims are a charge imposed by Act of Parliament, and must annually occupy a large portion of the amount at the disposal of the Commissioners: the claims of Cathedral Officers arise also under the provisions of an Act of Parliament, and are still under the Commissioners' consideration: while to extend the limit of unconditional augmentations from populations of 4,000 to those of lower amount; to subdivide Cures by the endowment of new Churches; or to provide stipends for Assistant Curates in parishes with very large populations; are different methods of carrying into effect the object of relieving the more urgent cases of spiritual destitution; but it is obvious that the limited means now available will not enable the Commissioners to enter upon all these various important operations. Under these circumstances the Commissioners defer until a later period of the year any decision as to the precise modes in which the remaining portion of the grants for the year 1869 shall be distributed.

For the current year the Commissioners have determined :—

1. To meet benefactions by grants to the amount in capital value of 150,000*l.*
2. To consider the local claims arising in respect of the Estates of Chester, Gloucester, and Canterbury Chapters.
3. To augment unconditionally to 300*l.* a year the income of every Benefice in public patronage, the population of which was by the census of 1861 not less than 4,000 persons.
4. To augment the income of every benefice in private patronage having a like population to a like amount of 300*l.*, on condition that one half of the sum required to effect such augmentation be provided from non-ecclesiastical sources.
5. To appropriate the sum of 3,000*l.* a year in perpetuity to the endowment with 200*l.* a year of new churches in public patronage to which districts shall have been legally assigned, containing in each case a population of 4,000 persons, and to the endowment with 100*l.* a year of new churches in private patronage having districts legally assigned to them, containing in each case a like population, on condition that an endowment of equal value be provided from non-ecclesiastical sources.

The grants to be thus made during the current year will be of the capital value of 700,000*l.*

All which is reported by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

In witness whereof, the said Commissioners have hereunto set their Common Seal this Twenty-seventh day of February in the year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

REPORT FROM THE AUDITOR TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

Exchequer and Audit Department, Somerset House,
26th February 1868.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I beg to report that I have examined the Books and Accounts of the Commission for the year to 31st October 1867, and that the foregoing Abstracts of the same are correct.

The balances of Stock and Cash on 31st October last have been verified by the usual Certificates of the Bank of England.

I have the honour to be,
My Lords and Gentlemen,
Your very obedient servant,
(Signed) W. G. Anderson,
Auditor.

The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

No. 33.

The Vicarage of Rochdale.

Extract from the London Gazette,
2nd November 1866.

Agreement made and entered into this ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the one part, and the Reverend John Edward Nassau Molesworth of Rochdale in the county of Lancaster, Clerk, D.D., Vicar of the Vicarage of Rochdale, herein-after called the said Vicar.

Whereas the said Vicar has signified to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England his willingness to accept a fixed annual sum of four thousand pounds in lieu of his income from the glebe lands and premises specified or referred to in the first section of the Rochdale Vicarage Act, 1866 (except as therein mentioned): Now these presents witness, that in pursuance of the power conferred on them by the second section of the same Act, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners do hereby agree with the said Vicar, that they the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners will pay to him during his incumbency such fixed annual sum of four thousand pounds by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, together with a proportionate part of a half yearly payment up to the day of the avoidance of the said Vicarage by the death or resignation of the said Vicar, in case such avoidance shall not take place on either of the days herein-before specified, the said annual sum to be payable as from the first day of November next, or so soon thereafter as this agreement can be published in the London Gazette. And the said Vicar doth hereby on his part agree with the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to accept the said annual sum of four thousand pounds payable as aforesaid, to the intent that the said glebe lands and premises (except as aforesaid) may as from the said first day of November next, or so soon thereafter as this agreement can be published in the London Gazette, be absolutely vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by virtue and in accordance with the provision in this behalf contained in the second section of the said Act.

As witness the hand of the said Vicar and the Common Seal of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the day and year first above written.

J. E. N. Molesworth.

No. 34.

The Archdeaconry of Colchester.

Extract from the London Gazette,
27th November 1866.

I, William Brice Ady, Archdeacon of Colchester, having been in possession of my archdeaconry at the time of the passing of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Lord Bishop of Rochester, in whose diocese the said archdeaconry is situate, and with the cognizance and approval of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, testified by the said Lord Bishop and the said Commissioners having hereunto, respectively, affixed their corporate or common seals, do hereby signify my willingness that the transfer of the estates of the said archdeaconry to the said Commissioners, contemplated by the herein-before mentioned Act, shall take place forthwith.

Dated this twenty-seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

William Brice Ady. (L. S.)

No. 35.

The Rectory of Bishop Wearmouth.

Extract from the London Gazette,
9th August 1867.

Agreement made and entered into this eighteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the one part, and the Reverend William Cockin, of Bishop Wearmouth, in the county of Durham, Clerk, Rector of the rectory of Bishop Wearmouth aforesaid (and herein-after called "the said Rector"), of the other part.

Whereas by "The Bishop Wearmouth Rectory Act, 1867," after reciting (inter alia) a scheme of the Commissioners, and an Order of Her Majesty in Council confirming the same, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eleventh day of August, in the same year, by virtue of which scheme and order the rents, profits, and proceeds of certain wayleaves, staiths, and coal, belonging to the rectory of Bishop Wearmouth, and the benefit of any improvements which might be made during the incumbency of the Reverend John Patrick Eden, the then rector, in the annual income of a portion of the rectorial glebe known as the Rector's Park, were transferred to and vested in the Commissioners for the purposes and in manner therein mentioned; and reciting that the said William Cockin was the present rector of the said rectory; it was enacted (section 6), that upon the first avoidance of the rectory of Bishop Wearmouth the glebe lands, tithes, tithe rentcharges, mines, minerals, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the rectory (including the Rector's Park, and the manor known as the Bishop Wearmouth Rectory Manor, and including the said rents, profits, and proceeds of wayleaves, staiths, and coal, so far as such rents and hereditaments, and every part thereof and interest therein, were not already vested in the said Commissioners, but excepting the parsonage house and the grounds then occupied therewith, which said parsonage house and grounds were particularly described in the Schedule thereto, and excepting the parish church of Bishop Wearmouth, with its appurtenances), together with all monies and securities for money, and all stock in the Government funds, or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant General, or in any other name or names, for or to the credit or for the benefit of or in trust for the rector of Bishop Wearmouth and his successors, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise, should vest in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, their successors and assigns, for the purposes and subject to the provisions in the said Act mentioned: And it was enacted (Section 7), that in case the then present rector of Bishop Wearmouth, at any time before his avoidance of the said rectory, should signify his willingness to accept a fixed annual sum of two thousand pounds in lieu of his income from the glebe lands and premises aforesaid, it should be lawful for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to agree with the said rector for the payment to him of such fixed annual sum, and thereupon an instrument (in writing), containing the terms of the said agreement, and under the hand of the said rector and the Common Seal of the said Commissioners, should be registered in the Registry of the diocese, and published in the London Gazette, and from and after the date of such publication the said agreement should be binding, and the glebe lands and premises aforesaid should, without any further conveyance, be vested in the said Commissioners for the purposes and subject as therein mentioned; and it was further enacted (Section 18), that the annual sums payable under the provisions of that Act to the rector of Bishop Wearmouth and the incumbents or ministers of the district churches or chapels therein mentioned should respectively be payable in moieties on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year; and on every vacancy the then current half-yearly payment should be paid to the successor in full, who should be bound to account to the predecessor or his representatives for a proportionate part corresponding to the portion of the half year before the vacancy took place. And whereas the said rector has signified to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners his willingness to accept a fixed annual sum of two thousand pounds in lieu of his income from the glebe lands and premises mentioned or referred to in the said recited Act: Now these presents witness, that in pursuance of the power conferred on them by the seventh section of the same Act, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners do hereby agree with the said rector that they, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, will pay to him during his incumbency in the said rectory the fixed annual sum of two thousand pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the said annual sum to be payable as from the date of the publication of this agreement in the London Gazette, and a proportionate part thereof to be paid for the period which shall elapse between such date of publication and the day of payment next ensuing thereafter; and the said rector doth hereby, on his part, agree with the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to accept the said annual sum of two thousand pounds, payable as aforesaid, to the intent that the said glebe lands and premises (except as aforesaid) may, as from the date of the publication of this agreement in the London Gazette, be absolutely vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by virtue of and in accordance with the provision in this behalf contained in the eighth section of the said Act. It being expressly agreed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the said rector shall be entitled to a proportion of all the revenues arising from the said rectory to the day of the publication of this agreement in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners have hereunto affixed their Common Seal, and the said William Cockin has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

WILLIAM COCKIN.

Sealed by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in the presence of

CHAS. JOSEPH ELLIS,
10, Whitehall Place, Westminster.

Signed by the above-named William Cockin in the presence of

BRICE SMITH,
No. 3, Waterloo Place, Bishop Wearmouth.

I hereby certify that a copy of this agreement is duly registered in the Diocesan Registry at Durham. Dated this thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which we have received in favour of the perpetual curacy of Saint Cuthbert, Mowbray, otherwise Holme Cultram, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle, in respect whereof we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of eight pounds six shillings and eightpence, and in consideration of a further benefaction consisting of certain tithe commutation rentcharges amounting to fifty-six pounds four shillings and sevenpence, which has been permanently secured to the said perpetual curacy, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Saint Cuthbert, Mowbray, otherwise Holme Cultram, and to his successors, to meet such benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the Common Fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our Common Fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

The Vicarage of Withington, in the County and Diocese of Hereford.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as herein-after mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Withington, in the county of Hereford and in the diocese of Hereford, and to his successors incumbents of the same benefice, all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, which are particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, Parts I.

and II., and also all that tithe commutation rentcharge, amounting to nine pounds and five shillings, issuing out of and arising upon lands situate within the parish of Withington, and which formerly belonged to the deanery of the Cathedral Church of Hereford, with its appurtenances, all which are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, and tithe commutation rentcharge, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said tithe commutation rentcharge, so granted and conveyed as aforesaid, shall be and be held to be for ever hereafter charged and chargeable, in exoneration of any other property whatsoever which formerly belonged to the said deanery, with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the parish church of Withington: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same benefice shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments described in Part I. of the said Schedule, with its appurtenances, as from the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and shall be entitled to receive the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments described in Part II. of the said Schedule, with their appurtenances, as from the twenty-second day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the said tithe commutation rentcharge as from the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

PART I.

All that piece or parcel of ground, being the site whereon a small cottage formerly stood, with a small garden thereto belonging, and containing in length forty yards, and in breadth eight yards, or thereabouts, situate within the parish of Withington aforesaid, and having the highway leading from the village of Withington to Thingehill on the south-east side thereof, and the garden belonging to the vicarage house of the said parish on every other side thereof, which said piece or parcel of land contains, by admeasurement, fourteen perches, and has been long since thrown into and now forms part of the lawn and garden belonging to the said vicarage house.

PART II.

All those three pieces or parcels of land, situate within the parish of Withington aforesaid, which are more particularly specified and set out in a certain Order of Exchange, bearing date

Schemes and Representations sanctioned and approved by Her Majesty in Council during the Year preceding the 1st of November 1867.

(In continuation of Appendix No. 35 to the Nineteenth Report.)

No. 1966.

For altering the Boundaries of the District Chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter:

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the thirteenth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church called 'Christ Church,' situate in the same parish, and such district chapelry was named 'the District Chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth :'

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, should be altered as herein-after is mentioned :

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such Bishop, with the consents of the Honorable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the diocese of Norwich, of the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Number 33, Hyde Park Gardens, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, of the Reverend Charles Kemble, the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, commonly called the Abbey Parish, Bath, in the county of Somerset, of William Long, of Hurts Hall, in the county of Suffolk, Esquire, and of James Morgan Strachan, of Number 10, Oxford Square, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, the joint patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, and with the consents of the Reverend John Hatchard, the Vicar or Incumbent of the same vicarage, and also, as such Vicar or Incumbent, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, aforesaid, and of the Reverend Theophilus Bennett, the Incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such district chapelry all that part of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, the said part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, aforesaid, so to be included within the limits of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, should become and be and form part of such district chapelry.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be added to the district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter aforesaid, which is bounded on the west by the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, and upon the south and east by the parish of Charles, otherwise called Charles the Martyr, Plymouth, in the same county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, from the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, at a point in the centre of the bridge near Saint Michael's Place which carries the line of the South Devon Railway over the Saltash Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as the boundary on the western side of the Tavistock Road which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, from the parish of Charles, otherwise called Charles the Martyr, Plymouth, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

No. 1967.

For effecting the Transfer of certain Lands and Hereditaments now forming the Endowment of the Principals, Seniors, and Vicars-choral of the Cathedral Church of Wells, and for substituting in lieu thereof an annual Money Payment.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Your Majesty, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting the transfer to us and our successors of certain lands and hereditaments now forming the endowment of the principals, seniors, and vicars-choral of the cathedral church of Wells, and for substituting in lieu thereof an annual money payment.

"Whereas it is by the same Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, under the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, with the consent in writing under the common or corporate seal of any vicars-choral, priest vicars, senior vicars, custos and vicars warden, and vicars or minor canons, who may constitute a corporation aggregate in any cathedral church in England, and of their visitor for the said vicars-choral, priest vicars, senior vicars, custos and vicars warden, and vicars or minor canons, to transfer to, and vest in us, for the purposes of the Acts relating to us, and subject to the provisions thereof, and to the conditions which may be specified in any such scheme and Order, all the lands and hereditaments belonging to such corporation, for and in consideration of any annual or other money payment to be made by us to such corporation.

"And whereas the principals, seniors, and vicars-choral of Wells Cathedral constitute a corporation aggregate within the meaning of the said herein-before recited Act, and have agreed with us, that with the view of effecting such a transfer of their estates and hereditaments as is contemplated in the said Act, the following arrangement shall be recommended by us to Your Majesty in Council:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral of Wells Cathedral, and of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells, visitor of the said corporation, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose, that immediately upon the gazetting of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all lands, tithes, and hereditaments whatsoever now belonging to the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral, or to or in which they ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, including the several sums of stock particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed (but excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, and excepting also the chambers in the new close or close hall at Wells aforesaid, to which the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral are respectively collated by their visitor, including the chambers lately rendered vacant by the decease of the Reverend Arthur Du Cane, with the chapel, the common hall, and the premises comprised in a certain indenture of lease, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, granted by the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral to Edmund Davies, of Wells, gentleman, and which lease is now vested in John Henry Parker, of the city of Oxford, esquire), shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein, be and be held to be, for the consideration herein-after mentioned, transferred by and from the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the Acts relating to us, subject, nevertheless, to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof or of any part or parts thereof, and subject also to the payment of tenths, and to all charges or liabilities which specifically attach to the ownership of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, and that we shall, upon such gazetting as aforesaid, be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, as from the twenty-fourth day of June now last past, and that in consideration of and for such transfer there shall be paid by us to the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral, and their successors, the sum of eight hundred and eighty pounds per annum by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-fourth day of June and the twenty-fifth day of December in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that the sum of one hundred and forty-six pounds eleven shillings and sixpence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the names of James Rossiter, of Croscombe, Somerset, accountant, and Edmund Davies, of Wells, Somerset, gentleman.

"Also, all that the sum of one hundred and eighteen pounds fifteen shillings and sixpence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the names of Edmund Davies, of Wells, Somerset, gentleman, and James Rossiter, of Croscombe, Somerset, accountant.

"And also, all that the sum of twenty-two pounds ten shillings and fivepence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the names of Edmund Davies, of Wells, Somerset, gentleman, and George Thorn, of East Horrington, in the parish of Saint Cuthbert, Wells, Somerset, gentleman.

"And also, all that the sum of forty-two pounds eight shillings and one penny, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of George Thorn, of East Horrington, Wells, Somerset, gentleman.

"And also, all that the sum of one thousand and thirty pounds five shillings and sixpence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the said principals, seniors, and vicars-choral, ex parte the Copyhold Commissioners."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

For constituting the District of Wrangthorn, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parochial chapelry of Headingley, and of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, which are herein-after mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by certain persons, in aid of the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the Minister thereof for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said persons so contributing the said sum of three thousand pounds as aforesaid, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such Minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the Minister for the time being of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when such Minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the assignment and disposition of the right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the Minister thereof, hereinafter mentioned, should be made.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Headingley, and of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Wrangthorn.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorized and empowered to pay out of the Common Fund before referred to, to the Minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such Minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the Minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the Minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the Minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised alternately, by Your Majesty and Your successors in right of the Crown, and by the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Ripon, the first such nomination to be made by the said Bishop.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Wrangthorn, being:—

"All that portion of the parochial chapelry of Headingley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, and also all that portion of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point near Morley House in the middle of the Leeds and Otley trust road, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Cumberland Road; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with a certain footpath leading from Wrangthorn to Meanwood; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading from Meanwood to Buslingthorpe; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described footpath to the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, from the new parish of Buslingthorpe, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the said boundary, still following the course of the last-described footpath, to a boundary stone inscribed 'W.D., 1866, No. 1,' and placed at the junction of such footpath with a certain other footpath leading from Woodhouse Ridge to Delph Lane; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described footpath to its junction with the said lane; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of such lane to its junction with Woodhouse Street; and continuing thence still south-westward across such street to and along the middle of a certain road called 'Rampart Road,' which leads across a part of Woodhouse Moor to the junction of such road with the Leeds and Otley trust road aforesaid; and continuing thence in the same direction across the said trust road to a boundary stone inscribed 'W. D., 1866, No. 2,' and placed on the southern side of such road; and extending thence in a direct line almost due south-westward for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts across Woodhouse Moor, past Myrtle Grove, to the point at the south-western corner of the said Moor near Toad Well where the boundary dividing the said parochial chapelry of Headingley from the new parish of Saint George, Leeds, in the county and diocese aforesaid, impinges upon the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse; and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Headingley from the new parish of Burley, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-westward along the last-described boundary to the point where it strikes the eastern side of a certain road leading from Burley to Headingley Hill; and extending thence first westward to the middle of the last-described road, and then northward along the middle of the same road to its junction with Victoria Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Buckingham Road; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the said Buckingham Road to its junction with the Leeds and Otley trust road aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the same trust road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts (passing Morley House aforesaid) to the point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Cumberland Road where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the parochial chapelry of Headingley, and of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, respectively, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the Incumbent of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, aforesaid, has taken or made certain objections or observations to or upon the said scheme, which said objections or observations have, together with such scheme, been laid before Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding the said objections or observations, been approved by Her Majesty in Council, so far as such scheme relates to matters which may properly be made the subject of an Order of Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme so far as aforesaid, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall, so far as aforesaid, be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1969.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls within the District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, in the County of Monmouth and Diocese of Llandaff.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls within the district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, sometime part of the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Monmouth and in the diocese of Llandaff.

" Whereas the Provost of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton, near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks, commonly called the King's College of our Blessed Lady of Eton, nigh or by Windsor, in the said county of Bucks, and the same college, are the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church, and are also the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee.

" And whereas the church of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, is at present ill endowed, and it appears to us to be desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the same district chapelry.

" And whereas the provost and college aforesaid, as such patrons as aforesaid, have proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the income of the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church should be apportioned between the Vicar or Incumbent thereof and the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has affixed his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the provost and college aforesaid as such patrons as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church, the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and belonging to the said vicarage, which arise within the limits of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be disannexed and transferred from the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church, and shall thenceforth, and for ever thereafter, become and be absolutely vested in the Incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1970.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary, Guarlford, in the County and Diocese of Worcester.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Barnard's Green, in the parish of Great Malvern, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Great Malvern and of the parish of Madresfield, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Malvern and of the said parish of Madresfield should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Barnard's Green aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, of Lady Emily Foley, of Stoke Edith Park, near Ledbury, in the county of Hereford, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Malvern, and of the Right Honourable Frederick Earl Beauchamp, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Madresfield (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Malvern and of the said parish of Madresfield, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Barnard's Green aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Guarlford,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Frederick Earl Beauchamp, and his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Guarlford, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Great Malvern, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Madresfield, in the same county and diocese, at a point on the north-west side of a field numbered 640 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Great Malvern, and upon the map hereunto annexed, in the middle of the road known as the Madresfield-road, the said point being distant about ten and three quarter chains south-west of the bridge near Brook Cottages; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-westward, along the said road, and along Hall Green Road, passing to the west of the Grove House Cottages, the Hall Green Cottages, and the Old Elm Cottages, to the junction of the said Hall Green Road at Barnard's Green with the road leading from the Rhydd to Great Malvern; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the road called Mill Lane, leading to Barnard's Green Mill; and extending thence southward, to and along the middle of the last-described road, to its junction with a certain occupation road numbered 786 upon the aforesaid maps; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said occupation-road, to the north-eastern corner of the close numbered 826 upon the said maps; and extending thence, southward, and in a straight line for a distance of eighteen chains and three quarters or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. St. M. C. C., 1866,' and placed at the point where the fence dividing the close numbered 829 upon the said maps from the close numbered 830 upon the same maps joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Malvern from the parish of Hanley Castle, in the county and diocese of Worcester aforesaid.

"And also all that detached portion of the said parish of Madresfield which abuts upon the western bank of the River Severn, and is bounded on the east by the parish of Severnstoke, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the south, in part by the parish of Hanley Castle aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is, upon the remaining part of the south, upon the west, and upon the north, by the above-described portion of the parish of Great Malvern aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

No. 1971.

For uniting the Benefice of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, with the Benefice of Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, in the City of London.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-eight, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared, and certified to Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-eight, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared, and now humbly certify to Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for uniting the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, in the city of London, with the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, in the said city of London, and for the other purposes herein-after mentioned.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the said lastly mentioned Act, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, duly issued a Commission for the purpose of inquiring into the expediency of the proposed union of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, and the said rectory of Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, and by the return made to the said Commission the Commissioners therein named certified all such matters and things as appeared to them material, together with their opinion that the proposed union was expedient; and in such return they recommended the terms on which, in their opinion, the same union ought to be effected.

"And whereas the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, has caused proposals for a scheme based upon the terms recommended by the Commissioners named in the herein-before mentioned Commission to be laid before us, which proposals were assented to by himself, as patron in right of his see of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, and by the Right Honourable Richard, Baron Westbury, then Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the patron in right of such his office for every alternate turn of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, and by the dean of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and the chapter of the same church, the patrons for every other alternate turn of the said last-named rectory, and also by the vestries of the several parishes of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, Saint Nicholas, Olave, Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such union should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the patronage of the said rectories, should be made as are herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, is subject to a mortgage to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and the annual sum now payable to the said Governors in respect of such mortgage amounts to fifteen pounds sterling, or thereabouts.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consents of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and of the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (testified by their respectively signing and sealing this scheme), and of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London (testified by their sealing this scheme with their corporate seal), and of the vestry of each of the said four parishes (testified by the several chairmen of the said vestries respectively signing this scheme, pursuant to resolutions passed at vestries duly convened for the purpose of giving such consents), that the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, and the said rectory of Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, shall be united and consolidated into and shall become and be one benefice, under the style of 'The united rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, and Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and shall have taken effect as herein-after provided, both of the said rectories shall be vacant, the union of the said rectories shall take effect forthwith, and that if one of the said rectories only shall be then vacant, the said union shall also take effect forthwith, if the incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall consent to become the incumbent of the united rectory, but if he shall not so consent then that the union shall take effect upon the then next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory, and if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and shall have taken effect as herein-after provided, both of the said rectories shall be full, then that the said union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them, if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said rectories shall consent to become the incumbent of the united rectory, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory; and that in either case it shall be lawful for the bishop to admit to the united rectory the first incumbent thereof (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing rectories) without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united rectory, and that until the time of the union taking effect the existing incumbencies shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof shall remain unaffected by anything herein contained.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if, after the confirmation of this scheme by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and before the union shall have taken effect, the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing rectories shall retire from his incumbency, in order that the union may take immediate effect, the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be entitled, during the period herein-after specified, to receive out of the annual income of the united rectory, and by way of compensation, a yearly sum equal in amount to four-fifths of the net annual value of the tithe and tithe rentscharge and endowments annexed to his rectory (not reckoning the house of residence as an item of value), computed on the average receipts of the three years immediately preceding the year in which he shall retire, which annual sum shall commence as from the day on which the union shall take effect, and shall be payable by equal half-yearly payments in every year, the first half-yearly payment thereof to become due and be paid at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the union shall take effect; and that the said annual sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life, or until he shall accept any other church preferment of an annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said annual sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent as aforesaid, and upon his accepting such preferment the said annual sum shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable; but if the same annual sum shall cease by his death, or by his acceptance of such church preferment (as the case may be), on any other than one of the half-yearly days of payment, he, or his executors or administrators, shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said annual sum for the period which at the time of such cesser shall have elapsed of the then current half year, which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the then current half year; and that the said annual sum shall be charged upon the annual income of the united rectory, and shall be payable out of the same by the incumbent for the time being thereof, and as between such incumbent and the retiring incumbent and his assigns, the said annual sum shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the united rectory, and the incumbent of the said united rectory shall be deemed to have accepted the same subject to a trust to pay to the retiring incumbent, or his assigns, the said annual sum out of the income of such united rectory, and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united rectory; and if such annual sum, or any part thereof, shall be at any time in arrear and unpaid for a period of more than twenty-one days after any of the said half-yearly days of payment, and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, or in such other manner as shall be required by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, it shall be lawful for the said bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the united rectory, requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a time to be specified in such order; and if the same shall not be paid within such period as last aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said bishop to sequester the profits of the said united rectory until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied; but the power to be so conferred upon the said bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with the rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, to recover the said annual sum, and all arrears thereof, by proceedings at law or in equity, or with the legal and equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united rectory to recover from the preceding incumbent of the united rectory, his executors or administrators, any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if the incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, shall be such retiring incumbent as aforesaid, there shall in every year be deducted from the annual sum to be paid to him as aforesaid a sum equal to one half of the amount payable in that year to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, in respect of the said mortgage.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if the said union shall have taken immediate effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing incumbencies having retired from his incumbency, and such incumbent shall be living when the united rectory shall for the first time after such union become vacant, the incumbent who shall have so retired shall (if in the opinion of the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London he be not disqualified by age or otherwise) be entitled to fill such vacancy, and may be admitted by the said bishop to the said united rectory without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the said united rectory, and the annual sum herein-before made payable to him shall thereupon absolutely cease to be payable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon the said union taking effect the church of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the said united rectory, and that after the said union the expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united rectory, and providing for the maintenance of the services therein, shall be defrayed by the inhabitant householders of the four parishes of the united rectory, and shall as between the inhabitants of the same four parishes respectively be provided in the following proportions, (that is to say,) the amount to be provided by the inhabitants of each parish shall bear the same proportion to the whole amount to be provided as the total amount of the annual rateable value of the property in each such parish, as assessed for the time being for the purposes of the consolidated or police rate, shall bear to the aggregate amount of the like rateable annual value of the property in all the said four several parishes.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon the said union taking effect, the font, communion table, and plate used for the purposes of the Holy Communion in the church of Saint Mary, Somerset, shall be transferred to the parish church of the said united rectory; but if the same shall, in the opinion of the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, not be required for such church, then that the same, or such of them, or so much of the said plate as shall not be so required, shall be transferred to such other church or chapel, within the diocese of London, as the bishop for the time being of the said diocese shall select.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon the said union taking effect, if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united rectory shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the four parishes of such united rectory, but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then that the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made for the use of such four parishes, as if the same were one parish, under the authority of, and with the consents, and in the manner specified in the eleventh section of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon the said union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall respectively hold the offices of parish clerk and sexton of the parishes of Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, and who shall become joint parish clerk and joint sexton respectively of the said four parishes of the united rectory, shall each of them cease to hold, as of his former estate, the office of parish clerk and sexton respectively of the said parishes of Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, and the parish clerk so ceasing to hold such his office of clerk shall, by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint parish clerks aforesaid, receive from the vestry of the said united parishes of Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, during the pleasure of such vestry a salary equal in amount to his then present salary, and in like manner the sexton so ceasing to hold such his office of sexton shall, by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint sextons aforesaid, receive from the vestry of the said parishes of Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, during the pleasure of such vestry, a salary equal in amount to his then present salary, subject, nevertheless, to and upon the condition that each such joint parish clerk and joint sexton shall perform such, and such only, of the duties appertaining to the offices of parish clerk and sexton respectively of the said four parishes as the rector for the time being of the said united rectory and the churchwardens for the time being of such parishes may from time to time require, but no parish clerk or sexton of the said four parishes shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his original office before the said union.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so long as a salary under the provisions above proposed shall be payable by the parishes of Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, to one of the joint parish clerks aforesaid, those parishes shall not be required to contribute towards the salary of the other of the joint parish clerks aforesaid, and so long as a salary shall, under the provisions above proposed, be payable by the said parishes of Saint Mary, Somerset, and Saint Mary, Mounthaw, to one of the joint sextons aforesaid, those parishes shall not be required to contribute towards the salary of the other of the joint sextons aforesaid, but whilst such salaries, by way of compensation, shall continue payable to such joint parish clerk and joint sexton respectively, the salaries of the other joint parish clerk and joint sexton aforesaid shall be paid exclusively by the parishes of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, and Saint Nicholas, Olave, and as between those parishes in proportion to such rateable annual value of the property as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon the said union taking effect all the properties constituting the emoluments and endowments of the respective rectories of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, and Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, shall become and be transferred and annexed to the united benefice as the endowment thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, upon the said union taking effect, the church of Saint Mary, Somerset, shall be taken down, and its materials and site sold by public tender, the pulpit, bells, clock, organ, and other furniture and fittings being reserved to be appropriated (if in the opinion of the bishop for the time being of the diocese of London required) for the use of the church proposed to be provided for the district of Saint Mary, Hoxton, recently constituted under the provisions of the herein-before thirdly mentioned Act, and originally proposed to be constituted under the title of 'The District of Saint Mary, City Road,' but if not so required and appropriated that the same shall be sold by public tender as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, in the first place, there shall be set apart and appropriated out of the net proceeds, which shall be realized by the sales effected in pursuance of the recommendations and proposals herein-before contained, such a sum as we shall determine (being not less than three equal fourth parts of the entire net proceeds of such sales) for the erection of the church proposed to be provided as aforesaid for the district of Saint Mary, Hoxton, and for providing a house of residence for the incumbent of the same district; and that the residue of the said net proceeds of such sales, together with such portion (if any) of the sum to be so set apart and appropriated as aforesaid, as shall not be required for the last-mentioned purposes, shall be held and applied upon and according to the trusts and provisions contained in the twenty-second section of the said herein-before fifthly mentioned Act, subject, nevertheless, to, and we further recommend and propose that we, with the consent of the Bishop of the said diocese of London for the time being, shall have a discretionary power to set apart and appropriate out of such residue, any sum not exceeding one tenth part of the entire net proceeds of the said sales, as a fund for repewing, repairing, restoring, or altering the said church of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, such sum to be laid out and expended under the joint direction of the vestries and churchwardens of the four parishes of the united benefice hereby proposed to be created, and under the superintendence of a competent architect (whose charges shall be defrayed out of the fund to be so appropriated), to be nominated by them, and to be approved of by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, and that if any difference or dispute shall arise as to the proper mode of expending or applying the same sum or any part thereof, such difference or dispute shall, in every case, be settled and determined by the bishop, whose decision shall be final, and whose episcopal jurisdiction shall not be in any way abridged or interfered with by the special power or control hereby proposed to be given to the vestries and churchwardens aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, upon the said union taking effect, the rectory-house now belonging to the rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas, Olave, shall become and thereafter be and remain the house of residence of the rector of the united benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon and as from the day on which this scheme shall take effect as hereinafter mentioned, the sole patronage of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Somerset, with Saint Mary, Mounthaw, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred from the said Archibald Campbell Bishop of the said diocese of London (to whom, in right of his see, such patronage now belongs as aforesaid), and from his successors, and shall thereafter be vested in the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, and their successors, and that, upon and as from the same day the sole patronage of the vicarage of Saint Helen, Bishopsgate, in the said city of London, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred from the said last-mentioned dean and chapter (to whom such patronage now belongs), and from their successors, and shall thereafter be vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and his successors, and, further, that upon and as from the same day the alternate turn or right of patronage now belonging to the same dean and chapter of and in the rectory of Saint Vedast with Saint Michael-le-Quern, in the said city of London, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred from such dean and chapter, and from their successors, and shall thereafter be vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and his successors.

" And we further recommend and propose, that in consideration of the arrangements herein-before proposed, and particularly in consideration of the appropriation as aforesaid of certain monies to be derived from the sale of the church of Saint Mary Somerset towards providing a church for the said district of Saint Mary, Hoxton, and also a house of residence for the incumbent of the same district, the whole right of patronage of and nomination to the said district (and when such district shall have become a new parish then of and to the said new parish) of Saint Mary, Hoxton, which right is now vested by statute in Your Majesty and the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, alternately, shall, upon and as from the day on which this scheme shall take effect, as herein-after mentioned, and without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and such duly gazetted Order in Council as aforesaid, be transferred and assigned to and shall become and be solely and absolutely vested in the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of Great Britain, for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose, that the alternate turn or right of patronage now belonging as aforesaid to the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford, as such Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, of and in the said rectory of Saint Nicholas, Cole Abbey, and Saint Nicholas, Olave, shall, upon and as from the day on which this scheme shall take effect, as herein-after mentioned, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred from the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of Great Britain, and shall thereafter be vested in the said dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, and their successors, to the intent that by means of such transfer, and of the transfers herein-before previously recommended and proposed, the same dean and chapter may become and be sole patrons of the said united rectory herein-before recommended and proposed to be created.

" And we further recommend and propose, that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval which, under the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, are requisite to the sale and appropriation of the site of the church of Saint Mary, Somerset, herein-before recommended, shall have been duly obtained.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1972.

For constituting the District of Biscot, in the County of Bedford and Diocese of Ely.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

purposes out of the parish of Saint Mary, Luton, in the county of Bedford and in the diocese of Ely.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Luton, which is herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas by a deed bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and being under the hand and seal of John Sambrook Crawley, of Stockwood, in the said county of Bedford, Esquire, and under the common seal of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, (and which deed is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster,) the said John Sambrook Crawley did give, grant, and convey unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, to and for the use of the minister for the time being of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, certain tithes or tithe commutation rentcharges, amounting together to the annual sum of one hundred and forty-eight pounds fourteen shillings and threepence, and issuing out of lands and hereditaments situate in the hamlet of Limbury-cum-Biscot, in the parish of Saint Mary, Luton, aforesaid, which said tithes or tithe commutation rentcharges are more particularly specified in the schedule annexed to the herein-before mentioned deed.

" And whereas by the same deed the said John Sambrook Crawley did give, grant, and convey unto us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, a certain piece or parcel of land situate within the limits of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and containing three roods and twenty-three perches and one half, or thereabouts, as and for the site of a church for the said intended district, and by the same deed the said John Sambrook Crawley did give, grant, and convey unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, a certain other piece or parcel of land situate within the limits of the said intended district, and containing three roods and twenty-three perches and one-half, or thereabouts, as and for a site for a parsonage or house of residence, with garden and glebe, for the minister for the time being of the said intended district.

" And whereas the several tithe commutation rentcharges aforesaid, and the said two pieces or parcels of land, have been so granted and conveyed as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Luton, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ' The District of Biscot.'

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the Common Fund referred to in the herein firstly mentioned Act, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

" And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Sambrook Crawley, his heirs and assigns for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The Schedule to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

" The district of Biscot, being :—

" All that the north-western part of the parish of Saint Mary, Luton, in the county of Bedford and in the diocese of Ely, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which consists for the most part of the two hamlets of Leagrave and Limbury-cum-Biscot, and which is bounded on the west by the parishes of Toddington and Houghton Regis, in the same county and diocese; on the north by the parishes of Streatley and Sundon, in the same county and diocese; on the east by the district of Stopsley, in the same county and diocese; and on the remaining side, that is on the south, by the new parish of Christ Church, Luton, in the same county and diocese, and by the parish of Caddington, partly in the said county of Bedford, and partly in the county of Hertford, and wholly in the said diocese of Ely."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron, who is also the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and he the said patron and incumbent has signified his assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has, so far as relates to matters which may properly be made the subject of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, so far as aforesaid, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall, so far as aforesaid, be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

For constituting the District of Christ Church, Lowestoft, in the County of Suffolk and Diocese of Norwich.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, which is herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of four pounds per centum Debenture Stock of the London and North-western Railway Company has been contributed by certain persons, and transferred to our name in the books of the said Company, in aid of the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, when such minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act; and we have in respect thereof agreed, with the several persons so contributing the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds Debenture Stock, that the annual interest and dividends to accrue due from the said Company on account of the said stock shall be paid over to the said minister.

"And whereas the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds Debenture Stock has been so contributed and transferred as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should pay, out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Christ Church, Lowestoft.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay, out of the Common Fund before mentioned, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by, Eleanor Strong, of Lowestoft, widow; by the Reverend Charles Hebert, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft; by the Reverend John Richardson, incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the said county of Suffolk; by the Reverend John Charles Ryle, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Stradbroke, in the same county; and by Robert Baxter, of Queen's Square, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, solicitor, and their successors, to be appointed as herein-after is mentioned, upon trust, nevertheless, that they the said Eleanor Strong, Charles Hebert, John Richardson, John Charles Ryle, and Robert Baxter, and their successors, shall, upon every legal vacancy in or avoidance of the ministry of the said district so recommended to be constituted, exercise such right of patronage and nomination by nominating to such ministry some one fit and proper person, being in Holy Orders of the United Church of England and Ireland, to be approved of for the purpose by them the trustees for the time being of the said right of patronage and nomination, or by a majority of them; provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that when and so often as any of them, the said Eleanor Strong, Charles Hebert, John Richardson, John Charles Ryle, and Robert Baxter, or any future trustees or trustee, shall die, resign, or become incapable of acting in the execution of the trust hereby recommended and proposed to be created, or shall desire to retire from the said trust, then and in every such case a new trustee or new trustees of the said right of patronage and nomination shall be appointed in the manner and subject to the several provisions set forth in and provided by the tenth section of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, with respect to new trustees to be appointed under the provisions of such last-mentioned statute.

" Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared, that it shall not be lawful for the said Eleanor Strong, Charles Hebert, John Richardson, John Charles Ryle, and Robert Baxter, nor for any of them, nor for any future trustees or trustee, (whether appointed as herein-before is provided or howsoever otherwise,) acting in execution of the trust hereby recommended to be created, or having the right of patronage or nomination as aforesaid, at any time to sell or otherwise depart with or dispose of, for any valuable consideration, the said right of patronage or nomination, but that the same right shall at all times hereafter be held and exercised according to the tenor of this scheme, and not otherwise.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

" The district of Christ Church, Lowestoft, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Norwich, which is bounded on the north by the parish of Gunton, in the same county and diocese, on the east by the German Ocean, on the south by the new parish of Saint John, Lowestoft, in the same county and diocese, and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, from the new parish of Saint John, Lowestoft, aforesaid, at a point in the middle of New or Battery Road, near the southern end of Battery Green ; and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the middle of the said road, as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ' L. Ch. Ch. D., 1866, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of such road at a distance of twenty-four yards or thereabouts from the middle of the southern end of Old Nelson Street ; and extending thence northward, in a direct line (passing by the rear of the houses situate on the eastern side of the said street), to a point in the middle of the lane or passage called Frost's Alley, distant forty-four yards or thereabouts from the middle of Old Nelson Street aforesaid ; and continuing thence in a direct line, still northward, and still passing by the rear of the houses situate on the eastern side of the same street as aforesaid, to a point in the middle of Nelson Score distant forty-seven yards or thereabouts from the middle of the northern end of Old Nelson Street; and extending thence, first westward along the middle of Nelson Score aforesaid, for a distance of eighteen yards or thereabouts, and then northward and in a direct line, passing by the rear of the houses situate on the eastern side of the High Street to a point in the middle of Spurgeon's Score, distant thirty-one yards or thereabouts from the middle of High Street; and continuing thence in a direct line still northward, and passing by the rear of the houses situate on the eastern side of High Street aforesaid, to a point in the middle of Wylde's Score, distant forty-four yards or thereabouts from the middle of the said High Street; and continuing thence in a direct line, still northward, and still passing by the rear of the houses situate on the eastern side of High Street as aforesaid, to a point in the middle of Rant's Score distant exactly fifty yards from the middle of High Street aforesaid; and continuing thence northward, in a course distant fifty yards from and parallel to the middle of the said street (crossing Crown Score and Mariner's Score), to a point in the middle of Lighthouse Score opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'L. Ch. Ch. D., 1866, No. 2,' and placed at the middle of the south-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the grounds attached to the residence called Cliff Cottage, late the property of the Reverend William Whewell, Doctor of Divinity, deceased; and extending thence first northward to the said boundary stone, and along the middle of the said wall or fence, and then either northward or eastward along the middle of the same wall or fence, to a boundary stone inscribed 'L. Ch. Ch. D., 1866, No. 3,' and placed at the eastern end of the said wall or fence on the western side of the street or road known as Whapload Way; and extending thence first eastward to the middle of the said Whapload Way, and then northward along the middle of the same way, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, from the parish of Gunton aforesaid:—Save and except from the above described part of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, all that plot or parcel of ground situate on the northern side of Wylde's Score aforesaid, upon which the buildings and premises known as Annott's School, Wylde's School, and the Infant School are placed, all which said plot or parcel of ground contains by admeasurement three roods and twenty-two perches, more or less, and is commonly known as Wylde's Trust: And also save and except all that other plot or parcel of ground situate upon the southern side of Mariner's Score aforesaid, containing by admeasurement eleven perches or thereabouts, and upon which the buildings and premises known as the Lowestoft National School for girls are placed."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and the said patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has, so far as it relates to matters which may properly be made the subject of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, so far as aforesaid, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall, so far as aforesaid, be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

For constituting the District of Saint John, Little Ouse, in the Counties of Cambridge and Norfolk and Dioceses of Ely and Norwich.

Gazetted 13th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to consist of a certain detached portion of the parish of Hilgay, in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich, of a certain portion of the parish of Feltwell, in the same county and diocese, of certain extra-parochial territory in the same county and diocese, and of a certain portion of the parish of Littleport, in the county of Cambridge and in the diocese of Ely.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the detached portion of the parish of Hilgay aforesaid, the portion of the parish of Feltwell aforesaid, the extra-parochial territory aforesaid, and the portion of the parish of Littleport aforesaid, which are herein-after more particularly mentioned and described (such portions and extra-parochial territory not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas by an indenture bearing date the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Edward Bowyer Sparke, the then vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Littleport aforesaid, of the first part, the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of Littleport aforesaid, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster,) the said Edward Bowyer Sparke did grant to the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, so soon as such minister shall have been appointed, and to his successors ministers thereof for the time being, the piece or parcel of land and hereditaments mentioned and described in the First Schedule hereunder written, and forming part of the endowments of the vicarage of Littleport aforesaid, together with a certain apportioned tithe rentcharge charged upon and payable in respect of the said piece or parcel of land ; and by the same indenture the said Edward Bowyer Sparke, with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, did grant and confirm unto the minister of such district, so soon as one shall have been appointed as aforesaid, and to his successors ministers thereof for the time being, one clear yearly rentcharge or sum of one hundred pounds, to be payable half-yearly on the first day of April and the first day of October in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on such one of those days as shall first happen next after a minister shall have been first appointed to the said intended district, such yearly rentcharge of one hundred pounds to be paid free and clear of all deductions whatsoever, excepting income or property tax (if any), and to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon the vicarage of Littleport aforesaid, and the tithe or tithe commutation rentcharges to the said vicarage belonging (except the portion thereof which is apportioned and charged upon and made payable in respect of the piece or parcel of land firstly granted by the said indenture as herein-before mentioned), and which said tithe or tithe commutation rentcharges (except such lastly mentioned portion thereof) are in a summary form particularized in the said indenture.

" And whereas by another indenture, also bearing date the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made or expressed to be made between the said Edward Bowyer Sparke, the rector of the rectory of the said parish of Feltwell, of the first part, the Right Honourable Robert Monsey Baron Cranworth, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the alternate patron of the rectory of the same parish, of the second part, the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, as such bishop, and also as the other alternate patron in right of his see of the same rectory, of the third part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's said High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Edward Bowyer Sparke did grant to the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, so soon as such minister shall have been appointed, and to his successors, ministers thereof for the time being, the piece or parcel of land and hereditaments mentioned and described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, and forming part of the endowments of the rectory of the parish of Feltwell aforesaid, together with a certain apportioned tithe rentcharge charged upon and payable in respect of the said lastly mentioned piece or parcel of land.

" And whereas by an indenture, bearing date the fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend William Joseph Parkes, the patron and also the rector of the rectory of the said parish of Hilgay, of the first part, the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of England, of the third part, (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's said High Court of Chancery at Westminster,) the said William Joseph Parkes did grant and confirm unto the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, so soon as such minister shall have been appointed, and to his successors ministers thereof for the time being, one clear yearly rentcharge or sum of sixty pounds, to be payable half-yearly on the first day of April and the first day of October in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on such of those days as shall first happen next after a minister shall have been first appointed to the said intended district, such yearly rentcharge of sixty pounds to be paid free and clear of all deductions whatsoever, excepting income or property tax (if any), and to be for ever issuing out of and charged upon the rectory of Hilgay aforesaid, and the tithe or tithe commutation rentcharges and other the endowments belonging to the said rectory of Hilgay, which said tithe or tithe commutation rentcharges and other hereditaments are in a summary form particularized in the said lastly mentioned indenture.

"And whereas the said pieces or parcels of lands and hereditaments, together with the apportioned tithe rentcharges charged upon and payable in respect of the same as aforesaid, and the said yearly rentcharges of one hundred pounds and sixty pounds respectively, have been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should pay out of the Common Fund created by the herein secondly named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been appointed and licensed according to the provisions of the herein thirdly mentioned Act, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and with the consent of the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that detached portion of the parish of Hilgay aforesaid, and all that portion of the parish of Feltwell aforesaid, and all that extra-parochial territory aforesaid, and all that portion of the parish of Littleport aforesaid, which are respectively described in the Third Schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John, Little Ouse,' and that such district shall be included in and shall form part of the rural deanery of Ely, the archdeaconry of Ely, and the diocese of Ely.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the Common Fund before mentioned, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein thirdly mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The First Schedule to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"All that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement forty-two acres three roods and fourteen perches (little more or less), situate in a certain fen called 'Burnt Fen,' in Littleport, and numbered 643 on the map or plan called 'The Eau Brink Map,' and in the book of reference to the said map or plan pertaining.

"The Second Schedule to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"All that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement forty-one acres and twenty perches (little more or less), situate in a certain fen called 'New Fen,' or 'Feltwell First District,' and numbered 184 on the map or plan called 'The Eau Brink Map,' and in the book of reference to the said map or plan pertaining.

"The Third Schedule to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John, Little Ouse, being :—

"All that detached portion of the parish of Hilgay, in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich ; and all that portion of the parish of Feltwell, in the same county and diocese ; and all that extra-parochial territory known as the 'Deep Middle,' and situate on the northern side of the stream called 'Little Ouse,' or 'Brandon' river, in the same county and diocese; and also all that extra-parochial territory forming part of Redmoor Farms, and situate on the southern side of the said stream, in the same county and diocese ; together with all that portion of the parish of Littleport, in the county of Cambridge and in the diocese of Ely, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the River Ouse, near its confluence at Brandon Creek with the Little Ouse or Brandon river aforesaid, where the boundary dividing the said parish of Littleport from the said detached portion of the parish of Hilgay, which is also the boundary dividing the said county of Cambridge from the said county of Norfolk, is joined by the boundary dividing the same detached portion of the parish of Hilgay aforesaid from the parish of Southery, in the said county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich; and extending thence first north-eastward, and then eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction in the middle of Creek's End Mill Drain with the boundary which divides the said parish of Feltwell from the parish of Southery aforesaid; and extending thence first generally eastward, and then generally northward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Feltwell from the parish of Methwold, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of the drain called 'Sam's Cut;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said drain for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with the drain called 'Mott's Dyke,' which skirts the western side of Poor's Common; and extending thence first south-westward, and then southward, along the middle of the last-named drain to its junction with the watercourse called 'Stake Common Lode;' and extending thence first south-eastward, and then eastward, along the middle of such watercourse, to its junction with a certain drain which connects 'Stake Common Lode' with the drain forming the southern side of Cork Way Drove; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said cross drain (passing between the inclosures numbered 67 and 68 respectively, upon the map commonly called 'The Eau Brink Map,' and upon the map hereunto annexed, and crossing Cork Way Drove) to the junction of such drain with the dyke dividing the inclosures, numbered respectively 107, 108, 109, and 110 upon the said maps, from the inclosure numbered 106 upon the same maps; and continuing thence still southward along the middle of the last-described dyke to the boundary which divides the said parish of Feltwell from the parish of Hockwold cum Wilton, in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich aforesaid, at the junction of such dyke with the watercourse called 'Brown's Lode;' and extending thence first south-westward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the last-named watercourse, and then north-westward along the same boundary, following thereby the middle of the Little Ouse or Brandon river aforesaid, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hockwold cum Wilton from the extra-parochial territory forming part of Redmoor Farms, as aforesaid; and extending thence first southward, and then westward, along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the dyke which divides the inclosure numbered 37 on the maps aforesaid from the inclosure numbered 36 on the same maps, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Littleport from the parish of Hockwold cum Wilton aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the last-described parish boundary, which is also the boundary dividing the county of Cambridge from the county of Norfolk, aforesaid, to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Littleport from the parish of Lakenheath, in the county of Suffolk and in the said diocese of Ely; and extending thence south-westward along the last-described parish boundary, which is also the boundary dividing the county of Cambridge from the county of Suffolk, aforesaid, to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Littleport from the parish of Saint Mary, Ely, in the county of Cambridge and diocese of Ely aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction generally north-westward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the Mildenhall Drain; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the said drain to its junction with the south-western end of Whitehouse Drain; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named drain, for a distance of eighty-four chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the drain which divides the inclosures numbered respectively 634, 635, 636, and 638, upon the said maps, from the inclosures numbered respectively 633 and 637 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described drain to the eastern bank of the River Ouse aforesaid; and extending thence first north-westward to the middle of the said river, and then north-eastward for a distance of seventy-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same river, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the drain dividing the inclosure numbered 23 upon the said maps from the inclosure numbered 24 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described drain to its junction with the dyke which divides the inclosure numbered 23 as aforesaid from the inclosure numbered 6 upon the said maps; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described dyke to its extremity upon the southern side of Black Horse Drove; and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line across the said drove, and across the inclosure numbered 11 upon the maps aforesaid, to a point upon the boundary which divides the parish of Littleport from the parish of Southery aforesaid, which is also the boundary dividing the county of Cambridge from the county of Norfolk as aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary to the first-described point in the middle of the River Ouse, near its confluence with the Little Ouse or Brandon river, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before thirdly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the three parishes of Hilgay, Feltwell, and Littleport respectively, out of which, together with certain extra-parochial territory, it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and the patrons of the three several parishes, and the incumbents of the two parishes of Hilgay and Feltwell, have respectively signified their assent to the same scheme, but the incumbent of the parish of Littleport has not signified his assent thereto.

And whereas one calendar month has expired since the draft of the said scheme was transmitted to the several patrons and incumbents as aforesaid.

And whereas the said scheme has, so far as it relates to matters which may properly be made the subject of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme so far as aforesaid, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall, so far as aforesaid, be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely, respectively.

Relating to the Rectories of All Hallows, Lombard Street, and Saint Benet, Gracechurch, with Saint Leonard, Eastcheap, in the City of London.

Gazetted 16th November 1866.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a supplemental scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following supplemental scheme for making certain alterations in the Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of the same month, whereby Your Majesty was pleased to ratify a scheme prepared by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and certified to Your Majesty in Council, for uniting the benefice (being a rectory) of All Hallows, Lombard Street, in the city of London, with the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Benet, Gracechurch, with Saint Leonard, Eastcheap, in the said city of London, and for the other purposes in the said scheme mentioned.

"Whereas it was by the said Order of Your Majesty in Council provided (inter alia), that upon the union of the said benefices of All Hallows, Lombard Street, and Saint Benet, Gracechurch, with Saint Leonard in Eastcheap, taking effect as is in such Order mentioned, the church of Saint Benet, Gracechurch, should be taken down, and its materials and site sold by public auction, the pulpit, bells, clock, organ, and other furniture and fittings (other than the font, communion table and plate,) being reserved to be appropriated (if in the opinion of the Bishop for the time being of the diocese of London required) for the use of the church proposed to be provided for an intended new district at Stepney, to be called 'The District of Saint Benet, Stepney,' but if not so required and appropriated the same to be sold, and the produce dealt with in the same manner as the produce of the sale of the materials and site of the church.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to be expedient, that in lieu of the sale by public auction lastly mentioned arrangements for the sale and disposal of the materials and site of the said church, and also of the pulpit, bells, clock, organ, and other furniture and fittings (other than the font, communion table and plate), if the same should not be required and appropriated, as herein-before mentioned, should be made in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Bishop of London (testified by his signing and sealing this supplemental scheme), with the consents of the dean and chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Christ, Canterbury, the patrons of the said rectory of All Hallows, Lombard Street, and the patrons alternately with the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, of the said rectory of Saint Benet, Gracechurch, with Saint Leonard, Eastcheap, and of the dean and chapter of the said last-named cathedral church, the other alternate patrons of the said last-named rectory (testified by the said chapters respectively sealing this supplemental scheme with their several corporate seals), and with the consents of the vestry of the said parish of All Hallows, Lombard Street, and of the joint vestry of the said united parishes of Saint Benet, Gracechurch, and Saint Leonard, Eastcheap (testified by the respective chairmen of the said vestry and joint vestry respectively signing this supplemental scheme, pursuant to resolutions passed at a vestry and joint vestry respectively duly convened for the purpose of giving such consents), we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, upon the union of the said benefices of All Hallows, Lombard Street, and Saint Benet, Gracechurch, with Saint Leonard, Eastcheap, taking effect, as provided by the herein-before mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, to sell and dispose of, by means of tender or by private contract, or in such other way as shall appear to us to be most fitting, not being by public auction, and so nevertheless as to obtain a fair and reasonable price for the same, the materials and site of the said church of Saint Benet, Gracechurch (when the same shall have been taken down, as provided by the said Order of Your Majesty in Council), and also the pulpit, bells, clock, organ, and other furniture and fittings (other than the font, communion table and plate), if the same should not be required and appropriated to and for the intended new district at Stepney, to be called 'The District of Saint Benet, Stepney,' as herein-before mentioned.

And whereas the said supplemental scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said supplemental scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 1976.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls within the Parish of Saint Catherine, in the City of Gloucester and Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

" Whereas there is in our hands a certain fund known as ' The Gloucester and Bristol Special Churches Fund,' which fund is now held by us, under the provisions of a certain Order of Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, whereby it was, amongst other things, ordered that the Lord Bishop for the time being of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, might at our discretion, and that of the said Lord Bishop, apply any portion of such fund which should remain unappropriated after the expiration of three years from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the building and endowment or building or endowment of any church or churches within the limits of the said diocese.

" And whereas the said parish of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, does not possess any church, and endeavours are being used to procure the erection of a church for the same parish by public subscription.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the benefice of the said parish of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, is now vested in the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol.

"And whereas it has been represented to us that it would facilitate the erection of the said intended church, if the advowson or perpetual patronage of the said benefice of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, were transferred to the Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol are willing to consent to a transfer of the said advowson accordingly, and in consideration thereof, and conditionally thereupon, it has been proposed to us by the said Bishop that a grant of one thousand pounds should be made out of the said fund, towards improving the annual value (which is at present very small) of such benefice.

"And whereas, with our consent, a grant of a capital sum of one thousand pounds, conditional upon the due ratification of this scheme by Your Majesty in Council, has accordingly been made to the said benefice out of the said residue of the said fund.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified by his having set his hand and seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol (testified by their having affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any other assurance in the law, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, shall be transferred from the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Bristol, and from their successors, to the said Charles John, Bishop of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and shall then become and thenceforth be solely and absolutely vested in the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Gloucester and at Bristol.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Swindon, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Swindon, in the parish of Wombourn, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Swindon aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wombourn which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Swindon aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Swindon.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Swindon, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Wombourn, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the hamlet or liberty of Swindon."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary the Less, Allerton Bywater, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary the Less, situate at Allerton Bywater, in the parish of Kippax, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary the Less, situate at Allerton Bywater aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Kippax which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary the Less, situate at Allerton Bywater, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Allerton Bywater.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Allerton Bywater, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Kippax, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is situate generally to the south of an imaginary line commencing at the boundary stone placed on the western side of Street Road, otherwise called Roman Ridge Road, where the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of Ledsham, in the said county of York and in the diocese of York, meets the boundary which divides the township of Allerton Bywater, in the said parish of Kippax, from the township of Kippax, in the same parish ; and extending thence, first northward and then north-westward, along such township boundary, following thereby, for the most part, the course of Sheffield Beck, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary which divides the township of Allerton Bywater aforesaid from the township of Great and Little Preston, in the said parish of Kippax, at or near to the point where the railway to Kippax Colliery crosses the said Sheffield Beck ; and extending thence, first south-westward and then southward, along the last-described boundary, as far as the point where it is intersected by Astley Lane ; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of such lane, for a distance of fifty-seven chains, or thereabouts, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Kippax from the parish of Swillington, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate within the limits of the parish of Saint James, Louth, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate within the limits of the parish of Saint James, Louth, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint James, Louth, and all that contiguous extra-parochial territory, commonly known as 'Louth Park,' which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which said part and extra-parochial territory, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate within the limits of the same parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Louth.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, (testified as aforesaid,) we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Louth, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint James, Louth, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate generally to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Brackenborough in the same county and diocese at a point in the middle of the line of the East Lincolnshire Railway; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as the point where it is crossed by the road leading from Keddington to Louth ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Holmes Lane ; and extending thence first north-westward and then westward to and along the middle of the said lane for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the wall or fence dividing the property of Edward Gray, Esquire, on the west, from the property of Mr. Henry Boothby on the east ; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said wall or fence to a point in the middle of the northern end of a certain road or passage leading into Charles Street ; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road or passage to its junction with Charles Street aforesaid ; and extending thence eastward along the middle of such street to its junction with the road called 'New Bridge Hill' ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Wellington Street ; and extending thence first westward and then southward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with James Street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street as far as the centre of the bridge which carries such street over the river Lud; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said river as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries over such river the road or street called 'Ramsgate'; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road or street to its junction with the road or street called 'East Gate'; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road or street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the road or street called 'Maiden Row'; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-named road or street as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint James, Louth, from the new parish of Saint Michael, Louth, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And also all that contiguous extra-parochial territory in the county and diocese aforesaid which is commonly known as Louth Park."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

No. 1980.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mark, Dewsbury, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, and of the parish of Dewsbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the churches of such new parish and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, and of the said parish of Dewsbury, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, of the Right Honourable Edward Geoffrey, Earl of Derby, First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, as the patron in right of the Crown of the vicarage of the parish of Dewsbury aforesaid, and of the Reverend Arthur Drummond Wilkins, the Vicar or Incumbent of the same vicarage, and as such Vicar or Incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, and of the said parish of Dewsbury, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mark, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Dewsbury,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Dewsbury, being :—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, and of the parish of Dewsbury, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point near the south-eastern corner of Taylor's Cottage, otherwise called Ivy Cottage, where the boundary dividing the said parish of Dewsbury from the new parish of Saint John, Dewsbury Moor, in the same county and diocese, meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, from the new parish of Saint John, Dewsbury Moor aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of thirty-six chains, or thereabouts, to its intersection by the footpath which leads from Upper Boothroyd into that part of the Wakefield and Halifax turnpike road which is called 'Maulkroyd Lane'; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said footpath to its junction with the said turnpike road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such turnpike road (passing to the east of the church of Saint Mark), as far as a point near Ashfield House, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Carlton Street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said street (passing Meadow Cottage), to the junction of such street with the Dewsbury and Gomersal turnpike road; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Dewsbury from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid), as far as the intersection of such road by the line of the London and North-Western Railway; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries Ashworth Road over such line of railway; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Vulcan Street; and extending thence first westward to and along the middle of the last-named street, and then south-westward along the middle of the same street to the boundary, at the junction of such street with Boothroyd Lane, which divides the said parish of Dewsbury from the new parish of Saint Matthew, West Town, Dewsbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of Boothroyd Lane aforesaid, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary which divides the parish of Dewsbury from the new parish of Saint John, Dewsbury Moor, as aforesaid; and continuing thence in the same direction along the boundary last referred to, still following the middle of Boothroyd Lane, to its junction with a certain occupation road leading past the south-eastern side of Taylor's Cottage, otherwise called Ivy Cottage, as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such occupation road to the first-described point near the south-eastern corner of such cottage where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Bath.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Bath, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the first day of May following, all lands, tenements, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Bath became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are subject to a beneficial lease for lives, and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Bath, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Stow in Lindsey in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Stow in Lindsey, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the sixteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, by the decease of the Reverend Peter Frazer, clerk, the then prebendary, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consists, as to part thereof, of a reversion expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, such lease producing only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, certain portions of the same are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof, to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Stow in Lindsey, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

No. 1984.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property situate at Stanhope in the County of Durham.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made or expressed to be made between James Heald, of Parr's Wood, near Didsbury, in the county of Lancaster, Esquire, of the one part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part; and of another indenture, of the same date, made or expressed to be made between the said James Heald, of the first part, Thomas Hilton, of the city of Manchester, esquire, and Thomas Markland, of Torquay, in the county of Devon, esquire, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the third part, certain lands and hereditaments situate at Stanhope, in the county of Durham, more particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us in fee simple, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that the manor or lordship, or reputed manor or lordship, of Stanhope, in the county of Durham, and also all such, and so many and such part and parts as at the date of the indentures referred to in this scheme were of freehold tenure, of and in all that the capital messuage or mansion-house called Stanhope Castle, with the stables, offices, outbuildings, gardens, and pleasure grounds to the same belonging, situate in the parish of Stanhope, in the said county of Durham, and also of and in all and singular the messuages, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments to the said manor and castle belonging, and situate, lying, and being within the said manor and parish of Stanhope; all of which said capital messuage or mansion-house, messuage, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, including the parts thereof which were formerly copyhold, and which, by the indenture first mentioned in this scheme, were covenanted to be surrendered, containing together by admeasurement one thousand three hundred and sixty-nine acres and one perch, are specified and set forth by their modern description in the first schedule to the last-mentioned indenture, and delineated and described in a map or plan drawn on the last skin thereof, and coloured round with red, except such portions of the lands comprised in the foregoing description as by specific exception, contained in the same indenture, were excepted from the conveyance thereby effected.

"And also all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments containing nine hundred and sixty-eight square yards, situate at Stanhope aforesaid, whereon formerly stood five messuages, dwelling-houses, or cottages, blacksmith's shop, and outbuildings, with gardens attached thereto, all which said houses and erections were, with the exception of one cottage or dwelling-house, now or lately in the occupation of Charles Kitchen, some time since pulled down, and which said piece or parcel of land, with the cottage standing thereon, hereditaments and premises, has been added to and now forms part of the Stanhope Castle pleasure grounds, and is delineated and described on the map or plan drawn on the second skin of the indenture secondly referred to in this scheme, and coloured with red."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

No. 1985.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Andrew, Derby, in the County of Derby and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty

King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Derby, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Derby, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Derby, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Derby.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Hope, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Derby, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of such offices in the said church as aforesaid shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said William Hope.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Derby, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Peter, Derby, in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Lichfield, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-east by the parish of Osmaston, in the said county and diocese, on the north-east by the new parish of Saint Paul, Derby, and the parish of Chaddesden, both in the said county and diocese, on the north-west by the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Derby, in the same county and diocese, and on the remaining side thereof, that is to say, on the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter, Derby, from the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Derby, at a point in the middle of Osmaston Road near to the south-western end of Litchurch Street, and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said road (crossing over the line of the Midland Railway), as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Peter, Derby, from the parish of Osmaston aforesaid, near the point where Cotton Lane joins the said road."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

No. 1986.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint John the Baptist, Irlam, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty

King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Irlam, in the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Irlam aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Eccles which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Irlam aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Irlam.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Irlam, being:

"All that part of the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon the north in part by the particular district of Saint Mark, Worsley, and in part by the chapelry district of Saint Stephen, Astley, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, upon the south-west in part by the parish or chapelry of Culcheth, in the said county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, and in part by the chapelry of Hollinfare, in the parish of Warrington, in the same county and diocese, upon the south-east in part by the chapelry of Carrington, in the parish of Bowden, in the county of Chester and in the said diocese of Chester, and in part by the parish of Flixton, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Eccles from the said parish of Flixton at the point in the middle of the River Irwell where Bent-lanes Brook joins the said river; and extending thence, first northward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said river, to the boundary which divides the hamlet of Foxhill, in the said parish of Eccles, from a detached portion of the hamlet of New Hall, in the same parish, at the point where the said river is joined by Salt Eye Brook; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the said hamlet boundary, following thereby the middle of the last-named brook, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said hamlet of Foxhill from the hamlet of Barton-upon-Irwell, in the said parish of Eccles; and extending thence, in a direction generally north-westward, along the last-described boundary, and along the boundary which divides the said hamlet of Foxhill from the hamlet of New Hall aforesaid, and then again along the boundary dividing the hamlet of Foxhill from the hamlet of Barton-upon-Irwell as aforesaid (passing thereby along the south-western side of Barton Moss, and crossing the line of the Liverpool and Manchester branch of the London and North-Western Railway), to the boundary on the southern side of Worsley Moss which divides the said parish of Eccles from the particular district of Saint Mark, Worsley, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate in Old Gravel Lane near the London Docks, in the parish of Saint George-in-the-East, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

" Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East, and of the parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population, which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East, and of the said parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate in Old Gravel Lane as aforesaid.

" And whereas by a certain agreement, bearing date on or about the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made or expressed to be made between the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East, of the first part, the Reverend John Lockhart Ross, the rector or incumbent of the same rectory, of the second part, and Thomas Charrington, of Ratcliffe, in the said county of Middlesex, esquire, John Burgess Knight, of York Place, near Old Gravel Lane aforesaid, esquire, David Thomas Morgan, of Saint Helen's Place, in the city of London, esquire, Charles King Anderson, of 65, Old Broad Street, in the same city, esquire, and Charles Binney Skinner, of Came House, Dorchester, in the county of Dorset, esquire, of the third part, it was agreed that the right of nominating a minister to serve the said church of Saint Peter, situate in Old Gravel Lane as aforesaid, should, upon and after the consecration of such church, be vested in and should be exercised jointly by the said persons, parties to the before-mentioned agreement of the third part, and in and by their executors, administrators, and assigns, as trustees, for the term of forty years, to be computed from the day of the consecration of the said church; that is to say, in and by the said Thomas Charrington, the said John Burgess Knight, the said David Thomas Morgan, the said Charles King Anderson, and the said Charles Binney Skinner, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and in such other trustees as should be appointed, in the manner in such agreement more particularly set forth and provided, in and during the said term of forty years; and it was further agreed, that upon and after the expiration of the said term of forty years, to be computed from the day of the consecration of the said church of Saint Peter, situate in Old Gravel Lane as aforesaid, the right of nominating a minister to serve such church should be vested in and should be exercised by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, and in and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such bishop, and as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East as aforesaid, and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East and of the said parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate in Old Gravel Lane aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, London Dock,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the persons mentioned and described in and contemplated by the herein-before mentioned agreement of the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, which said agreement is deposited in the registry of the said diocese of London, at Doctors' Commons.

We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, London Dock, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Saint George-in-the-East, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and of the parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, in the same county and diocese, which are situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East from the parish of Saint John, Wapping, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the Swing Bridge which carries the roadway of High Street, Wapping, over the lock which connects the Wapping Basin of the London Docks with the River Thames; and extending thence northward through the middle of the said lock and basin to a point in the middle of the southern end of Wapping Inner Lock; and continuing thence, still northward, through the middle of the last-named lock, to its junction with the Western Basin of the said London Docks; and extending thence due north, and in a direct line, across the said Western Basin, for a distance of one hundred and eighty yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the channel connecting such basin with the Tobacco Dock; and all which said portions of the same parishes of Saint George-in-the-East and of Saint Paul, Shadwell, are also situate to the south of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of the Western Basin of the London Docks aforesaid, opposite to the middle of the western end of the channel which connects such basin with the Tobacco Dock as aforesaid; and extending thence in a direct line eastward to and along the middle of the said channel, and through the middle of the said Tobacco Dock, and also through the middle of the channel which connects such dock with the Eastern Basin of the London Docks aforesaid; and continuing still eastward and in a direct line across the said Eastern Basin, and to and along the channel which connects the same basin with the Shadwell Basin of the said London Docks (crossing thereby the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East from the Parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, aforesaid, and also passing under New Gravel Lane Bridge); and continuing still in the same direction across the southern side of the said Shadwell Basin to and along the middle of the lock which connects the same basin with the River Thames, and which said lock is known as 'The Old Shadwell Entrance,' to the junction of such lock with the said river; and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line to the southern boundary of the said parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, in the middle of the same river; save and except from the above-described portion of the said parish of Saint George-in-the-East all that plot or parcel of ground situate in Charles Street upon which the buildings and premises known as 'Raine's Asylum' are placed, together with all that other plot or parcel of ground situate in Princes Street upon which the buildings and premises known as 'The Saint George's National Schools' are placed."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church situate at Dresden, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Redbank, otherwise called Dresden, in the parish of Blurton, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate at Redbank, otherwise called Dresden, as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Blurton which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate at Redbank, otherwise called Dresden aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of Dresden.'

" And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Dresden, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Blurton, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, wherein the present incumbent of such parish possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the east by the parish of Normacot in the same county and diocese, upon the north by the district parish of Longton, in the same county and diocese, and upon the west in part by the new parish of Edensor, in the same county and diocese, and upon all other sides thereof, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the west, upon the south-west, and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish of Blurton from the new parish of Edensor aforesaid at a point near the bridge at Spratslade which carries the turnpike road leading from Longton to Trentham over Spratslade Brook ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such turnpike road as far as its junction with the road called ' the Cocknage Road ' ; and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-six chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ' D. D. C. 1866, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of such road at the south-western end of the fence which forms the north-western boundary of the three closes, called ' Horse Pasture,' ' Near and Far Footway Field,' and ' Little and Great Banky Field,' respectively ; and extending thence north-eastward to the said boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence, for a distance of twenty-three chains, or thereabouts, to a second boundary stone, inscribed ' D. D. C. 1866, No. 2,' and placed at a point near Spratslade Mill, at the north-eastern end of the said fence, upon the southern bank of the Spratslade Brook aforesaid, and continuing thence in the same direction to the boundary in the middle of the same brook which divides the said parish of Blurton from the parish of Normacot aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church situate at Burton-in-Lonsdale, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 1st January 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Burton-in-Lonsdale, in the parish of Thornton-in-Lonsdale, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Burton-in-Lonsdale aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those parts of the said parish of Thornton-in-Lonsdale which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate at Burton-in-Lonsdale aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Burton-in-Lonsdale.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Burton-in-Lonsdale, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Thornton-in-Lonsdale, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township and chapelry of Burton-in-Lonsdale.

"And also all that detached portion of the township of Thornton-in-Lonsdale, in the aforesaid parish, which is situate near Lawna Brow, within the said township and chapelry of Burton-in-Lonsdale, and which said portion abuts on the north upon the Richmond and Lancaster trust road, and on the south upon the buildings called 'Westhouse Lowfields'".

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Lane End, in the parish of Great Marlow, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Great Marlow, of the parish of West Wycombe, in the county and diocese aforesaid, of the parish of Fingest, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Hambleden, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Marlow, of the said parish of West Wycombe, of the said parish of Fingest, and of the said parish of Hambleden, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Lane End aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, as such Bishop, and as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Marlow, and also as the alternate patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Fingest (to which is united for ecclesiastical purposes the rectory of the parish of Ibstone, in the county and diocese aforesaid), with the consent of Dame Elizabeth Dashwood, of West Wycombe Park, in the same county, widow, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of West Wycombe, and with the consent of the Reverend William Henry Ridley, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Hambleden, and the patron of the same rectory (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the warden and scholars of the House or College of Scholars of Merton in the University of Oxford, the other alternate patrons of the rectory of the parish of Fingest with the parish of Ibstone thereto united as aforesaid, (in testimony whereof they have affixed their corporate or collegiate seal to this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Marlow, of the said parish of West Wycombe, of the said parish of Fingest, and of the said parish of Hambleden, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Lane End aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Lane End,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said William Henry Ridley, as rector for the time being of the rectory of the parish of Hambleden as aforesaid, and by his successors in the same rectory for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Lane End, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Great Marlow, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, of the parish of West Wycombe, in the same county and diocese, of the parish of Fingest, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Hambleden, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Marlow from the parish of Hambleden aforesaid at a point near to Sears's brick-kilns, in the middle of the road leading from Freeth across Moor Common to Lane End, and extending thence first southward, then north-eastward, and then south-eastward along the last-described boundary, passing Moor Farm, and passing Bismer Pond, and following from thence the southern side of Moor Wood, to the southern end of the fence dividing Moor Wood aforesaid from the closes numbered respectively 1081, 1098, and 1099 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Great Marlow, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence, first northward and then north-eastward, along the middle of such fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1099 as aforesaid from the close numbered 1100 upon the said maps; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 18 upon the said maps from the cottage and orchard numbered 16 upon the same maps, to the northern extremity of the last-described fence on the southern side of the road leading from Lane End to Marlow, near to the milestone indicating three miles to Marlow; and extending thence north-eastward obliquely across the last-described road to a point in the middle of the southern end of a certain footpath leading through Brangwins Shaw and Widdington Park Wood towards West Wycombe; and extending thence in a direction generally northward, to and along the middle of the said footpath (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Marlow from the parish of West Wycombe aforesaid), as far as a point in the middle of the fence forming the southern boundary of the close in which Park Cottages are situate, and which is numbered 789 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of West Wycombe, and upon the said map hereunto annexed; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said boundary fence to its junction with the fence forming the eastern and northern boundary fence of the same close and cottages; and extending thence, first northward and then westward, along the middle of the last-described boundary fence, to a point in the middle of the southern end of the lane which leads from the said cottages towards West Wycombe; and extending thence northward along the middle of the same lane to its junction with Park Lane; and continuing thence still northward across the last-named lane to a point in the middle of the southern end of Great Wood Lane; and continuing thence in the same direction for a distance of twenty chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence forming the southern boundary of the farm-house and homestead called Ellis's Farm, in the occupation of Mr. James Smith Hobbs, and numbered 430 upon the last-mentioned maps; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-described boundary fence to its junction with the fence forming the eastern and northern boundary of the said farm-house and homestead; and extending thence, first northward and then north-westward, along the middle of the last-described fence, to a point in the middle of Great Wood Lane aforesaid opposite to the middle of the western end of the last-described fence; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned lane for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, to the gate at the entrance of Great Wood opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the footpath which leads along the southern side of the said wood, and across the road called 'Gravelly Nap,' and across the enclosed lands on the western side of such road, and through Denhams Wood to Wheeler End Common; and extending thence first north-westward to and along the last-described footpath, and then south-westward along the middle of the same footpath as far as a point on Wheeler End Common aforesaid at the south-eastern corner of the allotment grounds called 'Botany'; and continuing thence south-westward in a direct line for a distance of ten and a half chains, or thereabouts, across the said common, to the point in the middle of the road leading from Fingest to Ham and West Wycombe where such road is intersected by the boundary which divides the said parish of West Wycombe from the parish of Fingest aforesaid; and extending thence westward along the said boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Fingest from the consolidated chapelry of Cadmore End, situate partly in the said county of Buckingham and partly in the county of Oxford, and wholly in the diocese of Oxford aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the last-described boundary, following in the latter portion the road leading from Fingest to Ham and West Wycombe aforesaid, as far as the point near the foot of Hanover Hill where the said boundary diverges from such road; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, to a point near the Sign-Post Pond on the boundary dividing the said parish of Fingest from the parish of Hambleden aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the last-described boundary (following thereby the road leading from Fingest to Marlow) as far as the point where the said boundary diverges to the north-east from the last-mentioned road; and continuing thence south-eastward along the middle of the same road to its intersection by the road which leads from Freeth across Moor Common to Lane End, as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the road last referred to as far as the first-described point near to Sears's brick-kilns upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Marlow from the parish of Hambleden as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 1991.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Simon, Sheffield, in the County and Diocese of York.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Simon, situate within the limits of the parish of Sheffield, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Sheffield, and of the chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the churches of such parish and chapelry district respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Sheffield, and of the said chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Simon, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid.

"And whereas by a certain indenture bearing date on or about the fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made or expressed to be made between the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, of the first part, William Pole Thornhill, of Stanton Park, near Bakewell, in the county of Derby, Esquire, and Isabella his wife, and Andrew Sherlock Lawson, of Aldborough Manor, near Boroughbridge, in the said county of York, Esquire, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Sheffield, of the second part, the Reverend Thomas Sale, Doctor of Divinity, the Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the same parish, of the third part, and the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Thomson, Doctor of Divinity, in his individual capacity (previously named as party to the indenture in his corporate or official capacity of Archbishop of York), the said Thomas Sale in his individual capacity (previously named as party to the said indenture in his corporate or official capacity of Vicar of Sheffield), Thomas Dunn, of Sheffield aforesaid, Esquire (a lay member of the Church of England), and Henry Rodgers, of Sheffield aforesaid, Esquire (also a lay member of the Church of England), of the fourth part, it was agreed that the right of nominating a minister to serve the said church of Saint Simon, situate within the limits of the parish of Sheffield as aforesaid, should, upon and after the consecration of such church, be vested in and should be exercised jointly by the said persons, parties to the before-mentioned indenture, of the fourth part, and in and by their heirs and assigns, as trustees, that is to say, in and by the said William Thomson and Thomas Sale, in their individual and not in their corporate capacities, and in and by the said Thomas Dunn and Henry Rodgers, and their heirs and assigns, and in such other trustees as should be thereafter appointed in the manner in such indenture more particularly set forth and provided.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William, Archbishop of York, as bishop of the said diocese of York, and with the consents of the said William Pole Thornhill, and of the said Isabella his wife, and of the said Andrew Sherlock Lawson, the patrons of the vicarage of the parish of Sheffield as aforesaid, and with the consent of the said Thomas Sale, the vicar or incumbent of such vicarage, and as such the patron of the perpetual curacy of the chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Sheffield, and of the said chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Simon, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Simon, Sheffield,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and should be exercised jointly by the persons mentioned and described in and contemplated by the herein-before mentioned indenture of the fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which said indenture is deposited in the diocesan registry at York.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Simon, Sheffield, being:

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Sheffield, and of the chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, both in the county of York and in the diocese of York, which are bounded on the north-east by the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Sheffield, in the said county and diocese, on the north-west by the new parish of Carver Street, by the new parish of Eldon, and by the district of Gilcar, all in the same county and diocese, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south, by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said district of Gilcar from the said chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, at a point in the middle of the bridge which carries the road connecting South Street and the street called Little Sheffield over the River Porter, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said river (following as to the latter part of the same the boundary which divides the said parish of Sheffield from the chapelry district of Saint Mary, Sheffield, aforesaid,) as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Sheffield from the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Sheffield, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

No. 1992.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Lawley, in the County of Salop and Dioceses of Hereford and Lichfield.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Lawley, in the parish of Wellington, in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Wellington, of the parish of Little Wenlock, in the said county of Salop and in the diocese of Hereford, and of the new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, in the same county, and in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Wellington, of the said parish of Little Wenlock, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Lawley aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, of the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford, of the Right Honourable John George Weld, Baron Forester, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Little Wenlock, of Thomas Campbell Eyton, of Eyton near Wellington, aforesaid, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Wellington, and of the Reverend Benjamin Banning, the present vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, and as such the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Wellington, of the said parish of Little Wenlock, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Lawley aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Lawley,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Lawley, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Wellington, in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Lawley, and also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Little Wenlock, in the same county and in the diocese of Hereford, which is bounded on the east partly by the new parish of Little Dawley, in the same county and in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid, and partly by the said township of Lawley, on the north and partly on the west by the new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, in the same county and in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid, and on the other sides thereof, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the west and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at a boundary stone inscribed 'L. St. J. the E. C. C., 1866, No. 1,' and placed upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, from the parish of Little Wenlock aforesaid, near the point where New Works Lane meets the road leading to Steeraway and the road leading past the Heath to Little Wenlock; and extending thence southward along the western side of the last-described road for a distance of two and a half chains, or thereabouts, to a point in the middle of the northern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 624 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Little Wenlock, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes and buildings numbered respectively 625, 626, 627, and 628 upon the same maps; and extending thence first southward and then westward along the middle of the said fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 641 upon the said maps from the closes and buildings numbered respectively 628, as aforesaid, 629, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, and 672, upon the same maps, as far as a point upon the western side of the road leading past the Heath to Little Wenlock, as aforesaid, opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Jacomb's Lane; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of forty-five chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with Small Hill Lane; and extending thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its north-eastern extremity at the gateway which forms the entrance to the close numbered 408 on the said maps; and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of ten chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 407 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 408, to a boundary stone inscribed 'L. St. J. the E. C. C., 1866, No. 2,' and placed at the south-eastern extremity of the last-described fence on the boundary which divides the said parish of Little Wenlock from the new parish of Little Dawley aforesaid; and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Christ Church, Wellington aforesaid, which is bounded on the east and on the south by the last-described portion of the parish of Little Wenlock, and on the remaining sides, that is, upon the north and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Wellington, from the said parish of Little Wenlock, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Dawley Magna to Wellington, at a distance of two chains, or thereabouts, from its junction with New Works Lane aforesaid ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said turnpike road to the point where it joins the said lane ; and extending thence, first due west and in a straight line for a distance of fifty yards, and then south-westward in a course parallel to and at a distance of fifty yards from the middle of the same lane, to a point on the northern side of the road leading to Steeraway, opposite to the first-described boundary stone placed near the point where the said road meets New Works Lane and the road leading from Little Wenlock as aforesaid; and extending thence in a direct line southward across such road to the said boundary stone."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford respectively.

For constituting the District of Saint Deny's, Portswood, in the County of Southampton and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district cha-pelry of Christ Church, Portswood, sometime part of the parish of South Stoneham, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

" Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Portswood, which is herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner herein-after set forth.

" And whereas by an indenture bearing date the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Mark Cooper, the rector of the rectory and parish of Saint Mary, in the town and county of the town of Southampton and in the said diocese of Winchester, of the first part, the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster,) the said Mark Cooper (with the consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester,) did grant and confirm unto the minister for the time being of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and to his successors ministers thereof, the yearly rentcharges or sums following ; (that is to say,) one clear yearly rentcharge or sum of one hundred pounds, when and so soon as such proposed district shall have been constituted, and also one additional yearly rentcharge or sum of fifty pounds, when and so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for the same district, and shall have been consecrated, such several rentcharges or sums of one hundred pounds and fifty pounds respectively to be payable by equal half-yearly payments at the dates and in the manner mentioned in such indenture, and to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain glebe lands belonging to the said rectory of Saint Mary, Southampton, which are mentioned and described in the schedule annexed to the same indenture.

" And whereas the said yearly rentcharges or sums of one hundred pounds and fifty pounds respectively have been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Portswood, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Deny's, Portswood.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint Deny's, Portswood, being :—

"All that part of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Portswood, some time part of the parish of South Stoneham in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry from the new parish of Saint Luke, Newtown, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Portswood Road opposite to the middle of the western end of Duke's Road ; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of sixty yards to a point opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'P. St. D. D., 1866, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the same road ; and extending thence northward to the said boundary stone ; and continuing thence first northward and then north-eastward in a course distant sixty yards from and parallel to the middle of the Portswood Road aforesaid, crossing the roads or streets called Portswood Lawn, Spring Road, Belmont Place, Saint Deny's Road, and Belmont Road, to a boundary stone, inscribed 'P. St. D. D., 1866, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of Winchester Road ; and extending thence eastward, and in a direct line for a distance of ninety yards or thereabouts, to a point in the middle of the line of the London and South-western Railway ; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of three hundred yards, or thereabouts, to the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Portswood, from the parish of South Stoneham aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Portswood, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and the said patron and incumbent have respectively assented to the same scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Relating to the United Benefice of Saint Gregory with Saint Peter, Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Ely.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing a transfer of the patronage of or right of presentation to the perpetual curacy of the parish of Saint Gregory, situate at Sudbury, in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Ely, and to the perpetual curacy of the parish of Saint Peter, also situate at Sudbury aforesaid, which two said several cures are held together, and form one benefice, and are herein-after described as 'The said benefice of Saint Gregory with Saint Peter, Sudbury.'

"Whereas the patronage of or right of presentation to the said benefice of Saint Gregory with Saint Peter, Sudbury, is vested for an estate of inheritance in fee simple in possession in the Reverend Hippisley Maclean, vicar of Caistor, in the county of Lincoln, Clerk.

"And whereas the said Hippisley Maclean is desirous that the patronage of or right of presentation to the said benefice of Saint Gregory with Saint Peter, Sudbury, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Ely, to the intent that the same benefice, having by such transfer become a benefice in public patronage, may be eligible (so soon as it shall also in all other respects have become eligible) to receive from us an unconditional grant in augmentation of its income out of the Common Fund under our control, which is referred to in the herein-before mentioned Act.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and of the said Hippisley Maclean (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Gregory with Saint Peter, Sudbury, now vested in him, the said Hippisley Maclean, as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him the said Hippisley Maclean, and from his heirs and assigns, to the said Edward Harold, bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and his successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Harold, bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Anne, Dropmore, in the County of Buckingham and Diocese of Oxford.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation, as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate at Dropmore, in the parish of Burnham, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Burnham, of the parish of Dorney, of the parish of Hitcham, and of the parish of Taplow, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Burnham, of the said parish of Dorney, of the said parish of Hitcham, and of the said parish of Taplow, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Dropmore aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, with the consent of the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, as the patron, in right of the Crown, of the rectory of the said parish of Taplow, and with the consent of Charles James Palmer, of Dorney Court, in the said county of Buckingham, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Dorney (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Provost of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton near unto Windsor, in the said county of Buckingham, commonly called the King's College of our Blessed Lady, of Eton, nigh or by Windsor, and of the same college, the patrons both of the vicarage of the said parish of Burnham and of the rectory of the said parish of Hitcham (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Burnham, of the said parish of Dorney, of the said parish of Hitcham, and of the said parish of Taplow which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Dropmore aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Dropmore,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the Honourable George Matthew Fortescue of Boconnoc, in the county of Cornwall, and of Dropmore, in the said county of Buckingham, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Dropmore, being :—

"All those several and contiguous portions of the parish of Burnham, of the parish of Dorney, of the parish of Hitcham, and of the parish of Taplow, all in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, which are comprised within an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Green Common Lane where the boundary which divides the parish of Beaconsfield, in the county and diocese aforesaid, from the said parish of Taplow, meets the boundary dividing the same parish of Beacons field from the said parish of Burnham; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary, for a distance of fifty chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary post inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 1,' and placed in the close numbered 1526 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Burnham and upon the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence southward, and in a direct line, for a distance of twenty-eight chains, or thereabouts, across the closes and wood numbered respectively 1526 as aforesaid, 1525, 1465, and 1483, upon the said maps, to a boundary post inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of Hare Hatch Lane; and extending thence first southward to the middle of the said lane, and then south-westward along the middle of the same lane for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts (passing Jennings' Cottages), to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1482 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1473, 1474, 1476, and 1480 upon the same maps; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 1481 and 1439 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1480 as aforesaid, 1440, and 1376, upon the same maps, to the south-western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1439 from the close numbered 1376 as aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-westward, to a point in the middle of the road which leads from Hedgerley past the northern end of Park Lane to Wigmore Heath and Dropmore; and extending thence westward along the middle of such road for a distance of seven chains, or thereabouts, to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Park Lane aforesaid which divides the said parish of Burnham from the parish of Dorney aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along the last-described boundary (following thereby the middle of the said lane), as far as a point opposite to a boundary post inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 3,' and placed near the cross roads where the said lane meets the three roads leading from Dropmore, from Burnham, and from East Burnham respectively, at the eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 138 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Dorney and upon the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 134 and 136 upon the same maps; and extending thence westward to the said boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence, to its extremity on the eastern side of Dorney Wood Lane; and extending thence south-westward obliquely across the said lane to a point in the middle of the eastern end of a certain roadway leading into the Burnham Road; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said roadway (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Dorney from the said parish of Burnham) to the junction of such roadway with the Burnham Road aforesaid; and continuing thence, still westward, and in a direct line, for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts, across the closes and wood numbered respectively 1294, 1295A, and 1300, upon the tithe commutation map of the parish of Burnham aforesaid, and upon the map hereunto annexed, to a boundary post inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 4,' and placed on the boundary dividing the said parish of Burnham from the parish of Hitcham aforesaid, at or near to the south-eastern corner of Cavebrook Field; and continuing thence, still westward, and in a straight line, for a distance of twenty-two chains, or thereabouts, across Cavebrook Wood, Temple Field, and Gully Coppice, to a boundary post, inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 5,' and placed on the boundary which divides the said parish of Hitcham from the parish of Taplow aforesaid; and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the last-described boundary, as far as a boundary post inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 6,' and placed at the point where the said boundary diverges westward; and extending thence northward and in a direct line across the close numbered 134 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Hitcham, and upon the map hereunto annexed, to a boundary post inscribed 'St. A. D., 1866, No. 7,' and placed on the boundary which divides the said parish of Hitcham from the parish of Hedsor, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Hitcham from the parish of Wooburn, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the parish of Taplow aforesaid from the said parish of Wooburn; and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Beaconsfield from the parish of Taplow, as first described; and extending thence south eastward along such boundary to the point in Green Common Lane where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Anne, Chasetown, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate at Chasetown, in the new parish of Burntwood, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

" Whereas, at certain extremities of the said new parish of Burntwood, of the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and consolidated chapelry respectively.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Burntwood, of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Chasetown aforesaid.

" And whereas by an agreement bearing date the ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and expressed to be made between the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, of the first part, the Reverend Henry Moore, the then Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the parish of Saint Mary, in the city of Lichfield and in the said diocese of Lichfield, and as such Vicar or Incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Burntwood, of the second part, the Reverend George Poole, the Incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, of the third part, John Robinson McClean, of No. 23, Great George Street, Westminster, then President of the Institution of Civil Engineers of the fourth part, and the Most Honourable Henry, Marquess of Anglesey, of the fifth part, it was agreed that the right of nominating a Minister to serve the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Chasetown aforesaid, when consecrated, should be vested in and should be exercised by the person or persons therein and herein-after mentioned, that is to say, by the said John Robinson McClean and his heirs, for and during the continuance of a certain lease then existing of a colliery called 'The Cannock Chase Colliery,' and also during the continuance of any extension of such lease of the same colliery that might thereafter be granted, and that from and after the determination of such existing lease or extended lease as aforesaid the right of nominating a Minister to serve the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Chasetown aforesaid, should be exercised by and be vested in perpetuity in the said Henry, Marquess of Anglesey, and the person or persons for the time being entitled to the possession or the receipt of the rents and profits of so much of the settled estates of the Anglesey family as are comprised in the said lease.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, and with the consent of the Reverend John Gylby Lonsdale, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary, Lichfield, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Burntwood, and with the consents of John Jackson, of Hammerwich aforesaid, Gentleman, Thomas Pavier, of No. 9, Bedford Row, Red Lion Square, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, Richard Bird, of Beacon Street, Lichfield, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, Charles Forster the younger, of Haunch Hall, Lichfield aforesaid, Gentleman, William Adey Russell, of Wallington House, Bloxwich, in the said county of Stafford, Gentleman, Elias Ashmole Ashmall, of Hammerwich aforesaid, Farmer, Thomas William Flavell, of No. 21, Bedford Row aforesaid, Esquire, and Thomas Stubbs, of Teddesly, near Cannock, in the said county of Stafford, Farmer, the joint patrons (with John Bird, of Beacon Street aforesaid, a minor,) of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Burntwood, of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich, and of the said consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Chasetown aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Chasetown,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the person or persons particularly mentioned and described in and contemplated by the herein-before recited agreement of the ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, which said agreement is deposited in the diocesan registry at Lichfield.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Chasetown, being :—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish of Burntwood, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, of the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich, in the same county and diocese, and of the consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, in the same county and diocese, which are bounded on the north and in part on the west by the new parish of Gentleshawe, in the said county and diocese, and in other part of the west by the parishes of Cannock and Norton Canes, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides thereof, that is, on the south-west, south-east, and east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the centre of Norton Reservoir where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Burntwood from the said parish of Norton Canes meets the northern boundary of the consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the original boundary which before the assignment of the said consolidated chapelry divided the township or parish of Hammerwich from the parish of Norton Canes aforesaid, to a boundary stone, inscribed 'C. St. A. C. C., 1866, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the road leading from Brownhills to Burntwood; and extending thence first south-eastward to a point in the middle of such road, and then north-eastward along the middle of the same road for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, (crossing the Birmingham Canal Navigation, and the railway of the Cannock Chase Colliery Company, and crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich, from the consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay aforesaid,) to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed

'C. St. A. C. C. 1866, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of the said road; and extending thence, northward, to the last-described boundary stone; and continuing thence, still northward, and in a direct line, for a distance of thirty chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. A. C. C. 1866, No. 3,' and placed on the northern side of the road leading from Chasetown to Muckley Corner, at the southern end of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close numbered 1 upon the map attached to the award of the Commissioners for enclosing the townships of Burntwood and Hammerwich, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and continuing thence, still northward, along the middle of the said fence, to a point on the boundary which divides the said new parish of Burntwood from the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Hammerwich aforesaid, at the northern end of the same fence; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone now standing on the said boundary; and extending thence, northward, in a direct line, for a distance of fifteen chains, or thereabouts, crossing the close numbered 98 upon the said maps, to the junction of the road leading from Lichfield to Chasetown with the road leading from Chorley to Chasetown; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described road, as far as its intersection by the road leading from Burntwood to Cannock Wood; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of ten chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of a certain occupation road; and extending thence, first south-westward, to and along the middle of the last-mentioned road, and then north-westward, along the middle of the same road, to its termination in the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 86 upon the said maps from the close numbered 61 upon the same maps; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the said fence, and of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 85 and 74 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 62 and 73 upon the same maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. St. A. C. C. 1866, No. 4,' and placed at the north-western extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 74 from the close numbered 73 as aforesaid, on the southern side of the road leading to Gentleshawe; and continuing thence, still north-westward, and in a direct line, for a distance of eleven chains, or thereabouts, across the said road, and across the close numbered 72 upon the said maps, to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Burntwood from the new parish of Gentleshawe aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

No. 1997.

For constituting the District of Llanddewi, in the County of Denbigh and Diocese of Saint Asaph.

Gazetted 5th February 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2d day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Llangerniew, in the county of Denbigh and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Llangerniew which is herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Llangerniew have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas Henry Robertson Sandbach, of Hafodunos, in the said parish of Llangerniew, Esquire, has contributed and applied in and towards the erection of a church for the district herein-after recommended to be constituted certain sums of money, upon the understanding that we should provide for and pay to the minister of the said district a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, when and so soon as such district shall have been constituted, and when and so soon as such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas such grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Llangerniew which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Llanddewi.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Llanddewi, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Llangerniew, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Eglwsfach, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Eglwsfach to Llangerniew, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'L. D., 1867, No. 1,' and placed on the southern side of such road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road, for a distance of sixty-eight chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'L. D., 1867, No. 2,' and placed on the southern side of the same road, at the northern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 759 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Llangerniew, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 749 upon the same maps; and extending thence first southward to the last-described boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence, and then eastward along the middle of the same fence to its junction with the fence which divides the said close numbered 759 from the close numbered 750 upon the same maps; and continuing thence in a direction, still generally eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fences which divide the buildings and premises of the farm called 'Caerllo,' numbered 756 upon the said maps, and the closes numbered respectively 776, 775, 774, 737, 735, 725, 700, 701, 702, 692, 691, and 690 upon the same maps, from the closes and plantations numbered respectively 750 as aforesaid, 751, 753, 754, 649, 650, 682, 681, 680, and 683 upon the said maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'L. D., 1867, No. 3,' and placed at the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 690 from the close numbered 683 as aforesaid, on the northern side of the road which leads from Llanrwst past Rhos, Tyddyn Ucha, and Clogddu to Llangerniew; and continuing thence first eastward to the middle of the last-described road, and then north-eastward along the middle of the same road to its junction with the road which leads from Llangerniew up the valley by the side of the River Gallen, towards Tynddol, and Tynyffordd, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a certain cross road which leads across the said river, and past Hendreddu, Cefn Isa, and Gors, to the bridge over the River Elwy called 'Pont-y-syllte;' and extending thence first eastward to and along the middle of such cross road, and then south-eastward, and finally north-eastward along the middle of the same road as far as a point in the middle of the said bridge; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said River Elwy, for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Llangerniew from the parish of Llanfair Talhaiarn, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.

No. 1998.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Saviour, Brockley Hill, in the County of Kent and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty four, of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth Years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate at Brockley Hill in the District Parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate at Brockley Hill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and with the consent of the Reverend John Michell Clarke, the Incumbent of the Perpetual Curacy of the said district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill, (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate at Brockley Hill, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Brockley Hill.'

"And with the like consents of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said John Michell Clarke, (testified as aforesaid,) we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Brockley Hill, being:—

"All that the north-eastern part of the district parish of Christ Church, Forest Hill, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish from the parish of Lewisham, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway, under the bridge (known as No. 9 bridge), which carries the footpath leading from Brockley Lane to Peckham Rye over the line of the said railway, such point being distant twenty-nine feet to the north-west of a boundary stone inscribed 'B. H. St. S. D. C. 1866, No. 1,' and placed near the south-eastern abutment of the said bridge; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty-five chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to and distant ninety feet to the west of a boundary stone inscribed 'B. H. St. S. D. C. 1866, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the corner where Stanstead Lane bends southward; and all which said part of the same district parish is also situate to the north of another imaginary line, commencing at the last-described point in the middle of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway aforesaid, opposite to the said boundary stone; and extending thence eastward, and in a direct line, to such boundary stone ; and continuing thence still eastward to and along the middle of Stanstead Lane aforesaid, to the boundary which divides the said district parish from the parish of Lewisham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

For altering the Boundaries of the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, and the District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Chester.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following ; that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteeth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation, for altering the boundaries of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, and also for altering the boundaries of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"Whereas under the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and published in the London Gazette on the eighth day of the same month, certain contiguous portions of the parishes of Liverpool and Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Aidan, situate in the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and such consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool'; and under the authority of the same Order the patronage of the said consolidated chapelry is vested in, and is exercised jointly by, the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chester, by the rector for the time being of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and by the rector for the time being of the said parish of Liverpool.

"And whereas, under the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the lastly mentioned month, a certain portion of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Kirkdale, in the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale.'

"And whereas the patronage of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, is now vested in William Henry Anthony, of Liverpool aforesaid, Gentleman, his heirs and assigns, in trust, nevertheless, for Thomas Dover, of the same place, Esquire, his heirs and assigns, and subject to two several terms of thirty-five years and fifty years respectively, commencing upon the day when the said church was consecrated, during which terms such patronage is vested in Samuel Holme, of Birkdale Park, Southport, Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, Thomas Berry Horsfall, of Belamour Hall, Rugeley, in the county of Stafford, Esquire, and the said Thomas Dover, their heirs and assigns.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, and also that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, should be altered in the manner herein-after described.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, as such bishop, and also in right of his see, as one of the joint patrons of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool as aforesaid, and with the consents of the Reverend Thomas Gerard Leigh, the rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and of the Reverend Augustus Campbell, the rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Liverpool, as such other joint patrons as aforesaid of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, and with the consent of the Reverend Richard Dandy, the Incumbent of the same consolidated chapelry, and with the consent of John Shaw Leigh, of Luton Hoo, in the county of Bedford, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and with the consent of John Stewart, of Mount Pleasant, Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Liverpool, and with the consent of the said William Henry Anthony, Thomas Dover, Samuel Holme, and Thomas Berry Horsfall, the patrons of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, as aforesaid, and with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Major Lester, the Incumbent of the same district chapelry (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, and the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, should be respectively altered so as to include within the limits of such consolidated chapelry all that portion of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, the said portion of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale aforesaid, so to be included within the limits of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, should become and be and form part of such consolidated chapelry.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The portion of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, proposed to be added to the consolidated chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, in the same county and diocese, being :—

"All that portion of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale (sometime part of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill), which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry from the district chapelry aforesaid at a point in the centre of Sandhill's Bridge, which carries Sandhill's Lane over the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Commercial Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the western end of Rake Lane, and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane as far as the point where it is intersected by Stanley Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of such road to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Boundary Street, which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Kirkdale, from the district of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, Liverpool, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Peter, Bilton, in the County and Diocese of York.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the tenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Bilton, in the parish of Swine, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Bilton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Swine which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Bilton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter Bilton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the tenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate at Acock's Green, in the parish of Yardley, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate at Acock's Green aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Yardley which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate at Acock's Green, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin, Acock's Green.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin, Acock's Green, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Yardley, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, which is bounded on the south-east by the county and parish boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Bickenhill, in the county of Warwick and in the said diocese of Worcester, on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing on the said county and parish boundary at the point where it crosses the middle of the Birmingham and Warwick Canal ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of nine and a half furlongs, or thereabouts, to the centre of the bridge which carries over the said canal the road leading from Yardley towards Greet, and on the remaining sides thereof, that is to say, on the north-west and south-west, by another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the centre of the bridge which carries the road leading from Yardley towards Greet over the canal as aforesaid ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road to a point at the southern end of the bridge which carries such road over the line of the Birmingham and Oxford Junction Railway, opposite to the middle of the northern end of the lane which leads from such bridge to Tyseley Farm ; and extending thence southward to and along the said lane (crossing the turnpike road leading from Warwick to Birmingham, and passing the house and farm buildings of the said Tyseley Farm,) to the southern termination of the same lane ; and continuing thence still southward along the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 1151 upon the map annexed to the award entitled 'The award of William Fowler and William Woodward, the Commissioners for enclosing lands in the parish of Yardley,' and which is deposited with the vicar or incumbent of the same parish, and which said close is similarly numbered upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 1164 and 1152 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'A. G. D. C., 1867, No. 1,' and placed at the southern extremity of such fence on the northern side of Spring Lane ; and continuing thence first southward to the middle of the last-named lane, and then south-eastward along the middle of the same lane to its junction with Broad Lane ; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of one furlong or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a certain lane which leads past the Homestead Farm to Acock's Green ; and extending thence first eastward to and along the middle of the last-described lane, and then north-westward along the middle of the same lane as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'A. G. D. C., 1867, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of the same lane, at the western end of the fence which divides the house and farm buildings of the said Homestead Farm from the close numbered 1273 on the said maps ; and extending thence eastward to the last-described boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1277, 1442, and 1444, upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 1266 and 1443 upon the same maps, to the junction of the fence which divides the close numbered 1444 from the close numbered 1443 as aforesaid, with the western side of the road leading from the Six Ways to Acock's Green ; and extending thence eastward and in a straight line across the last-described road to a boundary stone inscribed 'A. For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls within the Parish of Widford in the County of Gloucester and Diocese of Oxford, and within the Parish of Lower Lemington, in the County of Gloucester and Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Widford, which is part of the county of Gloucester, but locally situated within the county of Oxford and in the diocese of Oxford, and within the parish or parochial chapelry of Lower Lemington, in the said county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the Right Honourable John Thomas, Baron Redesdale, is the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Widford (with the perpetual curacy of the parish of Swinbrook annexed), and also of the perpetual curacy of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Lower Lemington.

"And whereas the said John Thomas, Baron Redesdale, the patron as aforesaid of each of the said two benefices of Widford with Swinbrook and Lower Lemington, has proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the income of the same two benefices should be apportioned between the two several incumbents thereof respectively, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the said John Thomas, Baron Redesdale, and of the Reverend Boscawen Thomas George Henry Somerset, the incumbent of the said benefice of Widford with Swinbrook, and of the Reverend James William Clarke, the present incumbent of the said benefice of Lower Lemington (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that the lands and hereditaments situate within the parish of Eatington, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester, and now forming part of the endowments of the said benefice of Widford with Swinbrook, which are set forth and described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, be disannexed and transferred from the said benefice of Widford with Swinbrook, and from the incumbent thereof and his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said James William Clarke, the incumbent as aforesaid of the said benefice of Lower Lemington, and in his successors, the incumbents of the same benefice, for ever, and shall become and be and form part of the endowments of such last-named benefice; and with the like consents of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, of the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, of the said John Thomas, Baron Redesdale, of the said Boscawen Thomas George Henry Somerset, and of the said James William Clarke (testified as aforesaid), we further recommend and propose, that the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds sterling, being an endowment held by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, in trust for the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Lower Lemington, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, be held by the said Governors in trust for and for the benefit of the said Boscawen Thomas George Henry Somerset, or other the then incumbent of the said benefice of Widford with Swinbrook, and his successors, incumbents of the same benefice for ever, and shall become and be and form part of the endowments of such last-named benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

" The lands and hereditaments to be disannexed and transferred from the benefice of Widford with Swinbrook, and to be annexed to the benefice of Lower Lemington, being :—

" All those pieces or parcels of land, situate in the parish of Eatington, in the county of Warwick, and now or late in the occupation of the Reverend George Hesketh Biggs, Vicar of Eatington, comprising the two several closes known respectively as Gathering Hitch and part of Meadow Leys West, containing altogether, by admeasurement seven acres one rood and thirty-seven poles, or thereabouts, and bounded on the northern side thereof by land belonging to the vicarage of the said parish of Eatington, on the eastern side thereof by land belonging to the perpetual curacy of the parish or parochial chapelry of Lower Lemington, in the county of Gloucester, on the southern side thereof by the turnpike road leading from Eatington to Warwick, and on the western side thereof, in part by land belonging to Jeffry Lowe, Esquire, and in the remaining part by other land belonging to the vicarage of the said parish of Eatington."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the several Registrars of the said dioceses of Oxford and Gloucester and Bristol respectively.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls within the Parish of Terling, in the County of Essex and Diocese of Rochester.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Terling, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Rochester.

" Whereas the Right Honourable John James, Baron Rayleigh, is the patron of the rectory of the parish of Snoreham, in the said county and diocese, and also of the vicarage of the said parish of Terling.

" And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the church of the said parish of Terling is at present ill endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said parish.

" And whereas the said John James, Baron Rayleigh, the patron as aforesaid of the rectory of the said parish of Snoreham, has proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the income of the said rectory should be apportioned between the rector or incumbent thereof and the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Terling in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

" And whereas the rectory of the said parish of Snoreham is now vacant and without an incumbent.

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and of the said John James, Baron Rayleigh (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with the buildings thereon (if any), situate within the parish of Snoreham aforesaid, which now belong to and form the glebe of the rectory of the said parish of Snoreham, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly Gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, be disannexed and transferred from the rectory of the said parish of Snoreham, and from the rector or incumbent thereof, and his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the Reverend Francis Thomas Hill, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Terling, and in his successors, vicars or incumbents of the vicarage of the same parish for ever, and shall become and be and form part of the endowments of such vicarage.

"And with the like consents of the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and of the said John James, Baron Rayleigh (testified as aforesaid), we further recommend and propose, that all the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes now belonging to the rectory of the said parish of Snoreham (which said tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes have been, under the Acts passed for the commutation of tithes in England and Wales, commuted for the annual sum of one hundred and eleven pounds), shall, upon, and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, become and for ever thereafter be charged and chargeable with one clear annual sum or yearly charge of forty-four pounds, which shall be due and payable to the said Francis Thomas Hill and his successors, vicars or incumbents of the vicarage of the said parish of Terling, such clear annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing vicar or incumbent or his representatives and his successor in such vicarage, and to be receivable by the said Francis Thomas Hill and his successors by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and to be recoverable as against the person who shall be incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Snoreham, or of any benefice representing or including such rectory, and his representatives, in the same manner as rent is recoverable at common law.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing therein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary, Scholing, in the County of Southampton and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Scholing, in the parish of Hound, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Hound, and of the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Hound and of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Scholing as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and with the consent of Matilda Amelia Davies, of Itchen Parsonage, in the said county of Southampton, widow, patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the warden and scholars, clerks of Saint Mary's College, of Winchester, near Winchester, in the said county of Southampton, patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Hound, (in testimony whereof they have set their common or corporate seal to this representation,) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Hound, and of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Scholing as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Scholing,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Scholing, being:—

"All those two portions of the parish of Hound, together with that portion of the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, situate between them, all which said portions are situate in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester, and are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point near Miller's Pond, in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Portsmouth to Southampton, where the boundaries of one portion of the said parish of Hound and of the portion of the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton meet the boundaries of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Weston, in the same county and diocese, and extending thence north-westward along the boundary dividing the said portion of the parish of Hound from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Woolston, aforesaid, following thereby the middle of the said turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain road leading between Hawthorn Villas and Roseland

Villa, and across the line of the Southampton and Netley Branch of the London and South-western Railway to the close numbered 7 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Hound, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-described road to the said close numbered 7 as aforesaid, and continuing thence still northward, and in a direct line, across the same close, to a point on the boundary at the northern corner of the same close which divides the same portion of the parish of Hound aforesaid from the said parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton; and continuing thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction near Merry Oak with the boundary which divides the same portion of the said parish of Hound from the new parish of the Holy Saviour, Bitterne, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the same portion of the said parish of Hound from the new parish of Saint James, West End, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said portion of the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton from the new parish of Saint James, West End, aforesaid; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Hound from the new parish of Saint James, West End, aforesaid; and extending thence, first eastward and then southward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction in the middle of the road leading from West End to Bursledon with the boundary dividing the said parish of Hound from the parish of Bursledon, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence still southward along the last-described boundary as far as the point where the said road leading from West End to Bursledon is intersected by the road leading from Botley to the cottages and premises called or known as Netley Common; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of three quarters of a mile or thereabouts to the point where such road is crossed by a certain stream which flows from Netley Common through Tickleford Pond Wood and West Wood to Southampton Water; and extending thence, first southward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said stream, for a distance of rather more than a mile (crossing the turnpike road leading from Portsmouth to Southampton as aforesaid), to a point in the middle of the road leading from Hound through Newtown to Miller's Pond aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of two hundred yards or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hound from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Weston, aforesaid; and extending thence northward along the last-described boundary to its junction in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Portsmouth to Southampton as aforesaid, near the cottages and premises called Netley Common as aforesaid, with the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Weston, from the portion of the parish of Saint Mary-extra-Southampton, aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the same road, to the point near Miller's Pond where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

ARTHUR HELPS.

No. 2007.

For effecting an Exchange of certain Lands and Hereditaments belonging to the Bishop of Durham for certain other Lands and Hereditaments belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.[1]

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament now last past, intituled 'An Act to further amend the Acts relating to us.' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of certain lands and hereditaments belonging to the Bishop of Durham for certain other lands and hereditaments belonging to us.

"Whereas by the said Act it is enacted, that if after we have effected the endowment of any archbishoprick or bishoprick, or of any chapter, with lands or hereditaments, it shall appear to us that it would be beneficial to such archbishoprick or bishoprick, or to such chapter, that any part or parts of such lands or hereditaments should be exchanged for any lands or hereditaments belonging to any other archbishop or bishop, or chapter, or to us, it shall be lawful to effect such exchange, with the consent, in writing, of every archbishop, or bishop, or chapter, thereby affected, and by the authority of a scheme passed by us, and an Order of Your Majesty ratifying the same: Provided always, that no such exchange shall be made unless we shall be satisfied of the reasonable equality in value of the lands and hereditaments so to be exchanged, and shall in such last-mentioned scheme make a statement to that effect.

"And whereas the endowment of the bishoprick of Durham with lands and hereditaments was effected by means of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, ratifying a scheme prepared by us, which Order bore date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and was duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-sixth day of the same month.

"And whereas it appears to us that it would be beneficial to the said bishoprick of Durham that the lands and hereditaments particularly described and set forth in the Schedule annexed to this scheme, and marked A, being part of the lands and hereditaments wherewith the said bishoprick was endowed as aforesaid, should be exchanged for certain lands and hereditaments now belonging to us, which are particularly described and set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and marked B.

"And whereas we are satisfied of the reasonable equality in value of the lands and hereditaments proposed to be exchanged as herein-after recommended.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Lord Bishop of Durham, testified by his having signed this scheme, that from and after the day of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule, hereunto annexed and marked A, with their appurtenances, and all the right, title, estate, and interest therein of the said Bishop of Durham and his successors, and all his and their right, title, and interest in any tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, arising thereout or charged thereupon, and in the benefit of the perpetual land tax (if any) charged upon the same premises, shall be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we shall thereupon become and be absolutely seised and possessed of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the thirteenth day of May next, and that in exchange for the lands and hereditaments so to be transferred and conveyed to us as aforesaid the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and marked B, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, (save and except and always reserved unto us and our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, all and singular the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions therein or thereunder, with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the county of Durham, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy from time to time, and for such time and in such manner as we, our successors, lessees, tenants, and assigns, shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we shall deem necessary, proper, or convenient for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned, and save and except, and always reserved, full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our authority, and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us, or any other property, to make, grant, and use any way or ways upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments for the purposes aforesaid,) together with all tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising thereout or charged thereupon, and the benefit of the perpetual land tax (if any) charged upon the same premises, shall, from and after the date of such gazetting as aforesaid, become and be absolutely vested in the said bishop and his successors, in as full and ample a manner (saving the minerals and mineral rights aforesaid) as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see, and that the said bishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the said thirteenth day of May next.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 2008.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Catherine, Barton-upon-Irwell, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Catherine, situate at Barton-upon-Irwell, in the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Catherine, situate at Barton-upon-Irwell aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Eccles which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Catherine, situate at Barton-upon-Irwell aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Catherine, Barton-upon-Irwell.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Pelham Pitcairn, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eccles, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices at such church shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said James Pelham Pitcairn.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Catherine, Barton-upon-Irwell, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded on the west by the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Irlam, in the same county and diocese, on the south by the parish of Flixton, in the same county and diocese, upon the east by the two new parishes of Saint Matthew, Stretford, and Christ Church, Salford, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, in part by the district chapelry of Saint Luke, Weaste, in the same county and diocese, and in part by an imaginary line, commencing at a point on the boundary in the middle of the River Irwell which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Luke, Weaste, from the said parish of Eccles, opposite to the mouth of the stream which flows from Little Bolton into the said River Irwell; and extending thence in a direction generally westward along the middle of the same river as far as the centre of Barton Bridge, which carries the road leading from Barton-upon-Irwell to Patricroft over the said river; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such road as far as the point near Patricroft Bridge where it crosses the turnpike road leading from Eccles to Warrington; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said turnpike road as far as the point near Harrison's Bridge where such road crosses the 'Salt Eye Brook,' otherwise called 'Harrison's Brook'; and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the said brook to the boundary which divides the said parish of Eccles from the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Irlam aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

No. 2009.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church called Christ Church, New Malden and Coombe, in the County of Surrey and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at New Malden, in the new parish of Saint Peter, Norbiton, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at New Malden aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Norbiton, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate at New Malden aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of New Malden and Coombe.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of New Malden and Coombe, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Peter, Norbiton, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the north by the particular district of Saint John, Robin Hood, in the same county and diocese, on the east and south by the three several parishes of Wimbledon, Merton, and Malden, all in the same county and diocese, and upon the west partly by the parish of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the same county and diocese, partly by the particular district of Saint Mark, Surbiton, in the same county and diocese, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Norbiton, from the particular district of Saint John, Robin Hood aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Lattice Gate, across Coombe Warren, to Coombe House; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said road, to its junction with Coombe Lane; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said lane, for a distance of twenty-five chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'N. M. and C. D. C., 1867, No. 1,' and placed on the southern side of such lane at the northern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 315 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Kingston-upon-Thames, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 243 and 314 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, southward, to the said boundary stone, and along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 316 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 314 as aforesaid, to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 316 as aforesaid from the close numbered 442 upon the said maps ; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 317 and 318 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 441 upon the same maps, to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence which divides the close numbered 319 upon the said maps from the close numbered 441 as aforesaid ; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-described fence, to its southern end at the northern extremity of Dickerage Lane ; and continuing thence, still southward, along the middle of such lane, to its junction with the road leading from Malden to Kingston-upon Thames ; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a direct line, across the last-described road to a boundary stone inscribed 'N. M. and C. D. C., 1867, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the same road ; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a direct line, across the closes numbered 334 and 422 upon the said maps, to the boundary near the southernmost corner of the last-mentioned close, in the middle of the Hog's Mill River, which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Norbiton, from the parish of Kingston-upon-Thames aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

No. 2010.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, in the County of Berks and Diocese of Oxford.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Maidenhead, in the parish of Cookham, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Maidenhead aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Cookham, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Maidenhead aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Maidenhead.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Maidenhead, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Cookham, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford, which is bounded on the east by the parish of Taplow, in the county of Buckingham and in the said diocese of Oxford, on the south partly by the parish of Bray, in the said county of Berks and diocese of Oxford, and partly by the new parish of All Saints, Boyne Hill, in the said last-named county and diocese, and on all other sides thereof, that is to say, on the west and north, by an imaginary line commencing at or near to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. S. L. D. C. 1867, No. 1,' and placed upon or near to the boundary which divides the said parish of Cookham from the new parish of All Saints, Boyne Hill aforesaid, at the junction of the turnpike road leading from Maidenhead to Henley with the road leading over Punt Hill to Cookham; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one mile and a half or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road (crossing the Old Henley Road, and passing to the west of the Cookham Union Workhouse, and also to the west of Furze Plat) to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. S. L. D. C. 1867, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the point where the road last referred to joins the road leading from Pinkney's Green to Spencer's Farm; and continuing thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the last-described road (crossing the Wycombe and Aylesbury Branch Line of the Great Western Railway) to the junction of such road with the road leading from Cookham to Maidenhead; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading past the northern side of North Town Court to North Town Moor; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to its north-eastern termination, and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line across the northern end of North Town Moor for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the south-western end of Stanwell Lane; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the said lane to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. S. L. D. C. 1867, No. 3,' and placed at the eastern end of the same lane; and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line across the northern end of a certain close called 'Summer Leaze' to another boundary stone inscribed 'M. S. L. D. C. 1867, No. 4,' and placed at or near to the north-western corner of the close numbered 553 upon the plan of the parish of Cookham, made for the purposes of the Poors Rate Assessment in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and similarly numbered on the map hereunto annexed; and continuing thence still north-eastward to and along the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 553 upon the said maps from the close numbered 616 upon the same maps, to the junction of such fence with the fence dividing the close numbered 553 as aforesaid from the close numbered 555 upon the said maps; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence which divides the closes numbered respectively 554 and 556 upon the said maps from the close numbered 555 as aforesaid; and extending thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-eastern extremity; and continuing thence eastward across a certain footpath leading from Maidenhead Bridge past Chisel Pits to Cookham to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. S. L. D. C. 1867, No. 5,' and placed at the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 593 upon the said maps from the close numbered 615 upon the same maps; and continuing thence first eastward along the middle of the last-described fence, then southward and then north-eastward along the middle of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 593 as aforesaid and 594 upon the said maps from the close numbered 602 upon the same maps, to the north-eastern end of the last-described fence; and continuing thence still north-eastward to a point in the middle of the road leading from Maidenhead Bridge through Widbrook to Cookham; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence dividing the cottage and garden occupied by John Fuller, Esquire, and numbered 603 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 604 upon the same maps; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to its eastern extremity; and continuing thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the stream called 'Boulter's Pound Cut' to its junction with the River Thames; and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the said river as far as a point opposite to the northern end of the island adjoining 'Boulter's Lock'; and extending thence in a direct line eastward to the county boundary on the eastern bank of the same river, which divides the said parish of Cookham from the parish of Taplow as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

No. 2011.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of All Saints, Hamer, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-six, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Hamer, in the new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, sometime part of the parish of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and of the new parish of Saint James, Wardleworth, also sometime part of the said parish of Rochdale, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and of the said new parish of Saint James, Wardleworth, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Hamer aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, as such bishop, and also as prospectively, that is to say, after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Rochdale, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and with the consent of the Reverend John Edward Nassau Molesworth, Doctor in Divinity, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Rochdale aforesaid, and as such the present patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge aforesaid, and also the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Wardleworth (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, and of the said new parish of Saint James, Wardleworth, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, situate at Hamer as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Hamer,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and by his successors bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Hamer, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, sometime part of the parish of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the new parish of Saint James, Wardleworth, also sometime part of the parish of Rochdale aforesaid, at a point near the north-eastern end of Buckley Mill, in the centre of the bridge which carries over Buckley Brook the lane leading from Buckley Mill to Low Mill; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Rydings Road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the high road leading from Rochdale to Smallbridge; and continuing thence still south-eastward across the said high road to and along the middle of the lane called Mill Gate, to its south-eastern extremity on the northern bank of the River Roche, near to the western side of Howarth Cross Old Mill; and extending thence in a direct line due south to the boundary in the middle of the said river which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, from the new parish of Saint James, Milnrow, in the county and diocese aforesaid. And also all that portion of the said new parish of Saint James, Wardleworth, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, as aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the Shawforth branch of the line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway over Hey Brook; and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the said branch line of railway, as far as the northern boundary of the borough of Rochdale; and extending thence north-westward along the said borough boundary, as far as its intersection by the boundary in the middle of the Whitworth Road which divides the said new parish from the new parish of Saint Mary, Wardleworth, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

No. 2012.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Wells.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and now vested in us.

" Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and another Act of the fifth year of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July last past, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-seventh of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Wells (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage,) became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said Dean and Chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

" And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

" And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Wells (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require,) as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said Dean and Chapter, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said Dean and Chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand four hundred and twenty-five pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of July last), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Wells, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

No. 2013.

For substituting a Money Payment to the Precentor or Chief Chaunter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London, for certain Property belonging to his Precentorship.

Gazetted 1st March 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the precentor or chief chaunter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, for certain property belonging to his precentorship.

"Whereas by and under the provisions of the said Acts the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said precentorship (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage) will upon the first avoidance of the said precentorship become absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required.

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing, under the hand of any dignitary or officer of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such dignitary or officer, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Charles Almeric Belli, Clerk, the present precentor of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts herein-before particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to Your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Almeric Belli (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments comprised in the Schedule to this scheme shall, together with all the estate, right, title, and interest therein of the said Charles Almeric Belli, be and be held to be, for the consideration herein-after mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Charles Almeric Belli to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof, and that we shall, upon such gazetting as aforesaid, be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments as from the first day of April now last past, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Almeric Belli the sum of one thousand and two hundred pounds: Provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or hereditaments, or of any part or parts thereof, shall since the said first day of April now last past have been or shall be granted or made by the said Charles Almeric Belli.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that the parsonage and rectory of Stortford, otherwise called Bishop Stortford, in the county of Hertford, and the lands, tithes, and hereditaments comprised in or belonging to the said parsonage or rectory, with their appurtenances, and all other the hereditaments comprised in a lease for lives dated the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and granted by the Reverend Charles Almeric Belli, precentor or chief chaunter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, to Thomas Bosvile Bosvile, except such portions of the said lands and hereditaments as have been sold and conveyed to the Great Eastern Railway Company, and also except such portions thereof as have been agreed to be sold and conveyed to the Bishop Stortford, Dunmow, and Braintree Railway Company, and the stock or funds arising or to arise from such sale or sales.

"And also all that the manor of the rectory of Stortford or Bishop Stortford, in the said county of Hertford, and the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments belonging thereto.

"And all other the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments, if any, belonging to the said Charles Almeric Belli, as precentor of the said church, and situate or arising in the parish of Stortford, in the said county of Hertford."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of March 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Clay Hill, in the parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

" Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, and of the new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Enfield, and of the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Clay Hill aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the Reverend John Moore Heath, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, and as such the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and university of Cambridge, the patrons of the said vicarage of the parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have set their common or corporate seal to this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, and of the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Clay Hill aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Clay Hill,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the said John Moore Heath, as vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, as aforesaid, and by his successors, vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Clay Hill, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is bounded on the west by the district of Saint John, Potter's Bar, in the same county and diocese, on the north by the parish of Northaw, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Rochester, on the north-east by the new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London aforesaid, and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the south and south-west, by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, from the parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the road leading from Forty Hill to Clay Hill over the New River; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road (passing the northern end of Baker Street) to a point distant one hundred and forty yards to the west of the middle of the northern end of Baker Street aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward in a course parallel to and one hundred and forty yards to the west of the middle of Baker Street as aforesaid to a point in the middle of New Lane; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with the road called Lavender Hill; and continuing in the same direction along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road leading from Enfield, past Botany Bay and North Lodge, to Potter's Bar; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, from the district of Saint John, Potter's Bar, aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, which is bounded on the south-west by the above-described portion of the parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, aforesaid, on the north partly by the said parish of Northaw, and partly by the parish of Cheshunt, in the said county of Hertford and in the diocese of Rochester aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, from the said parish of Cheshunt, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Goff's Oak to Clay Hill; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road as far as the boundary (near the eastern end of the road leading from Cattle Gate) which divides the said new parish of Jesus Chapel, Enfield, from the above-described portion of the parish of Saint Andrew, Enfield, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 2015.

For augmenting the Income of the Archdeaconry of Barnstaple.

Gazetted 22d March 1867.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of March 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Barnstaple, in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the Common Fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds; provided that no archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument, as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless he shall be resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy in the same Act mentioned; and it is by the said first-recited Act further enacted, that upon the endowment of an archdeaconry being made under the provisions thereof all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage) belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment may, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, and by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of the same Act.

"And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is declared and enacted, that, in the case of any archdeaconry which shall no longer be held by the archdeacon who was at the time of the passing of the said first-recited Act in possession thereof, the provisions of the same Act which relate to the transfer to us of the estates of any archdeaconry, upon its endowment in either of the modes therein provided, shall be construed and held to authorize such transfer, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese and of the archdeacon in possession of the archdeaconry at the time.

"And whereas the said archdeaconry of Barnstaple is endowed by the annexation thereto of the rectories or parsonages of Lynton and Countisbury, in the county of Devon, with the lands, tenements, and hereditaments to such rectories and parsonages belonging (the same being now demised on a lease for lives), and is further endowed with an annual payment from the dean and chapter of Exeter, variable every ten years, according to the price of corn, such annual payment being the consideration for the transfer to the said dean and chapter of a house situate in the city of Exeter, and formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry, and the amount of the same annual payment for the period of ten years, commencing from the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, is forty pounds four shillings and ninepence.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the amount of the net annual income of the said archdeaconry derived from fees and other payments, over and above the sources of income herein-before specified, is such that, after allowing for the cessation, in accordance with the recommendation herein-after contained, of an annual payment amounting to eight shillings and fourpence, now made by the said archdeacon to us as holders of the estates of the said dean and chapter of Exeter, such net annual income will not exceed the sum of forty-two pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and of the Venerable Henry Woollcombe, the present archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Barnstaple, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the said Common Fund, to the said Henry Woollcombe and his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, or be legally exempt from residence, the annual sum of one hundred and eighteen pounds on the first day of January in every year, and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being that the said Henry Woollcombe, or his successor for the time being in the said archdeaconry, has duly resided as aforesaid during the preceding year, or on the production to us of a licence of non-residence, and that immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme there shall be paid by us to the said Henry Woollcombe the sum of one hundred and eighteen pounds in respect of the period which elapsed between the first day of January in the year last past and the first day of January now last past, and that all lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever now belonging to or forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Barnstaple, except the annual payment made thereto by the dean and chapter of Exeter, as herein-before mentioned, and except also any right of ecclesiastical patronage, shall forthwith be disannexed from the said archdeaconry, and become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us, subject to any existing lease or leases, grant or grants thereof, for the purposes of the said Acts, and that we shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments as from the said first day of January in the year last past.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the annual payment of eight shillings and fourpence now made by the said archdeacon to us as holders of the estates of the said dean and chapter of Exeter for Chapter Pentecostals shall, as from the said first day of January in the year last past, absolutely cease and determine.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Paul, Penzance, in the County of Cornwall and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 22d March 1867.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of March 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate within the limits of the chapelry of Saint Mary, Penzance, in the parish of Madron, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Exeter.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate within the limits of the chapelry of Saint Mary, Penzance, as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation,) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said chapelry of Saint Mary, Penzance, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate within the limits of such chapelry as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Penzance.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, (testified as aforesaid,) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Penzance, being:—

"All that part of the chapelry of Saint Mary, Penzance, in the parish of Madron, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Exeter, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said chapelry from the parish of Madron aforesaid at a point in the middle of the road leading from Penzance to Madron, opposite to Treneere entrance gates; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then south-eastward, along the said boundary to its intersection by the footpath leading from Trencere to Penzance Cattle Market; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said footpath, passing in front of Prospect Place, to the junction of such footpath with Tarrover Road; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-seven yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 843 upon the tithe commutation map of the said chapelry of Saint Mary, Penzance, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 842 upon the same maps; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of such fences, and along the middle of the fences which stretch along the rear of and form the eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of the road called Causeway Head (for a distance of one hundred and sixty yards or thereabouts), to the eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the southern boundary of the building and premises known as the Quakers' Meeting House ; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the said wall or fence to its extremity on the eastern side of the said road called Causeway Head ; and continuing thence, still westward, to a point in the middle of the same road ; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said road, for a distance of twenty-seven yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the eastern end of the wall or fence which divides the close numbered 888 upon the said maps from the house numbered 2017 upon the said map hereunto annexed, and situate on the western side of the road called Causeway Head as aforesaid ; and extending thence, westward, in a direct line, for a distance of fifty-five yards or thereabouts, crossing the said close numbered 888 as aforesaid, to a point in the middle of the Back Lane which leads from the Cattle Market aforesaid, past the eastern end of Saint Paul's Church, into Clarence Street, and which is numbered 955 upon the maps aforesaid ; and extending thence, first southward, and then westward, along the middle of the said Back Lane, to its junction with the said Clarence Street ; and extending thence, first northward, and then north-eastward, along the middle of the same street, to its junction, near the southern corner of the Cattle Market before mentioned, with Saint Clare Street ; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named street, for a distance of fifty-two yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain other Back Lane which leads to Windsor Terrace, and is numbered 1004 upon the said maps ; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-mentioned Back Lane, to its junction with the road which faces Windsor Terrace aforesaid, and is numbered 1038 upon the said maps ; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, to its junction with a certain occupation road leading to the close numbered 35 upon the said maps ; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-described road, to a point in the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 35 as aforesaid from the closes numbered respectively 33 and 34 upon the same maps ; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 36 upon the said maps from the close numbered 31 upon the same maps, to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence which divides the said close numbered 36 and the close numbered 38 upon the said maps from the plantation situate on the eastern side of York House, and numbered 26*b* on the same maps ; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence, to its extremity on the southern side of the road leading from Penzance to Madron as aforesaid ; and extending thence, northward, and in a straight line, to the first-described point in the middle of the said road opposite to Treneere entrance gates, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of March 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James the Greater, situate at Eastbury, in the parish of Lambourn, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation,) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Lambourn which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James the Greater, situate at Eastbury as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James the Greater, Eastbury.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, (testified as aforesaid,) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Saint James the Greater, Eastbury, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Lambourn, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish from the particular district of Saint Mary, Lambourn Woodlands, sometime part of the said parish of Lambourn, at a point in the centre of the four cross roads at Great Cleeve Hill; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the road leading past Thornhill Copse to Bockhampton to the junction of such road with the road leading from Eastbury to Lambourn ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the road called Long Hedge, which leads past Sheepdrove; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then north-westward, along the middle of the last-described road to its junction at Hyde Barn with the road leading over Hyde Down and Stancombe Down to Letcomb; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Lambourn from the parish of Letcomb Basset, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

No. 2018.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Precentorship of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London.

Gazetted 22d March 1867.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of March 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the precentorship in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

" Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February now last past, and duly published in the London Gazette on the first day of March now last past, certain lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said prebend became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid are now subject to a lease for lives, and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

" And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

" And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said precentorship, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.'

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Holborn, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and duly published in the London

Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month, all lands, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but are now in possession; but, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint John, Horninglow, in the Counties of Stafford and Derby and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Horninglow, in the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, partly in the county of Stafford and partly in the county of Derby, and wholly in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Horninglow aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and with the consent of the Reverend Peter French, the present Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John, situate at Horninglow, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Horninglow.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and of the said Peter French (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the said Peter French shall continue to be such incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, as aforesaid, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in such church as aforesaid shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Peter French.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John, Horninglow, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, situate partly in the county of Stafford and partly in the county of Derby, and wholly in the diocese of Lichfield, which is herein-after mentioned; that is to say:—all that part of such district parish situate in the said county of Stafford which is bounded on the south partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid, on the west by the consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Anslow, in the same county and diocese, on the north by the parish of Rolleston, in the same county and diocese, and on the remaining sides thereof, that is to say, on the east and on the remaining part of the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point on the eastern side of Rolleston Lane where the boundary which divides the said parish of Rolleston from the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent aforesaid, meets the boundary dividing the township of Stretton, in such district parish, from the township of Horninglow, in the same district parish; and extending thence south-eastward along the said township boundary (crossing the Grand Trunk or Trent and Mersey Canal, and crossing also the line of the North Staffordshire Railway and the turnpike road leading from Derby to Lichfield,) as far as a point in the middle of the line of the Birmingham and Derby Branch of the Midland Railway; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of about seventy-seven yards less than a mile to a point in a line with the middle of Victoria Road and opposite to its junction with Derby Street; and extending thence north-westward to and across the said street, and along the middle of Victoria Road aforesaid, and continuing in the same direction along the middle of Dallow Road as far as the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the Grand Trunk or Trent and Mersey Canal before mentioned; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, to the boundary which divides the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, from the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

No. 2022.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint John, Horrabridge, in the county of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the thirty-first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Horrabridge, in the parish of Buckland Monachorum, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Buckland Monachorum, of the parish of Peter Tavy, in the said county and diocese, of the parish of Walkhampton, in the same county and diocese, of the parish of Whitchurch, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Sampford Spiney, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Buckland Monachorum, of the said parish of Peter Tavy, of the said parish of Walkhampton, of the said parish of Whitchurch, and of the said parish of Sampford Spiney, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Horrabridge aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such bishop and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Peter Tavy, with the consent of the Reverend Richard Hayne, the Rector of Mistley, in the county of Essex, Doctor in Divinity, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Buckland Monachorum, with the consent of Sir Lopes Massey Lopes, of Maristow House near Plymouth, Baronet, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Walkhampton, and with the consent of the Reverend Richard Sleeman, the vicar and also the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Whitchurch (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the Dean and Canons of Your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within Your Castle of Windsor, the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Sampford Spiney (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Buckland Monachorum, of the said parish of Peter Tavy, of the said parish of Walkhampton, of the said parish of Whitchurch, and of the said parish of Sampford Spiney, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John, situate at Horrabridge aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Horrabridge,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Horrabridge, being :—

"All those portions of the parish of Buckland Monachorum, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, of the parish of Peter Tavy, in the same county and diocese, of the parish of Walkhampton, in the same county and diocese, of the parish of Whitchurch, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Sampford Spiney, also in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 1,' and placed on the northern bank of the River Walkham, at or near to the point where the boundary dividing the said parish of Whitchurch from the said parish of Peter Tavy meets the northern boundary of the said parish of Buckland Monachorum; and extending thence south-eastward, and in a straight line for a distance of sixty chains, or thereabouts, across the said River Walkham and across the common known as Roborough Down, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the south-western corner of the close numbered 156 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Buckland Monachorum, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and continuing thence in a direction rather more eastward, and in a straight line for a distance of forty-three chains, or thereabouts, across the said common to another boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 3,' and placed at or near to the south-western corner of the close numbered 486 upon the said maps; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the fence which divides the last-mentioned close from Roborough Down aforesaid to the eastern extremity of such fence on the western side of the turnpike road leading from Tavistock to Plymouth, near the junction of such road with the road leading from Roborough Down aforesaid to Gnatham Barton; and continuing thence, first eastward across the said turnpike road, and to and along the middle of the said road leading from Roborough Down to Gnatham Barton as aforesaid, and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road, crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Buckland Monachorum from the parish of Walkhampton aforesaid, as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 4,' and placed on the northern side of the same road at the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 69 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Walkhampton, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 1333 and 75 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to the said boundary stone and along the middle of the last-described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 76 upon the said last-mentioned maps from the closes numbered respectively 75 as aforesaid, 1334, 1341, and 1340, upon the same maps; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence, and then north-eastward along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 67, 66, 65, and 59, upon the last-mentioned maps, from the closes numbered respectively 1340 as aforesaid, 1338, 1337, 1336, 1335, and 16, upon the same maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 5,' and placed at or near to the northern corner of the close numbered 59 as aforesaid, and on the southern side of the road leading from Horrabridge to Walkhampton; and extending thence northward and in a straight line for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to a point on the boundary in the River Walkham, before mentioned, which divides the said parish of Walkhampton from the parish of Sampford Spiney aforesaid, opposite to the point where the watercourse which divides the close numbered 50 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Sampford Spiney, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 52 upon the same maps, joins the said river; and extending thence north-eastward along the same boundary, following thereby the course of the said river for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 6,' and placed on the northern bank of the same river at or near to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 63 upon the maps last mentioned from the closes numbered respectively 62 and 61 upon the same maps; and extending thence first north-westward to the said boundary stone and along the middle of the last-described fence, and then north-eastward along the middle of the same fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 69 upon the said last-mentioned maps from the closes numbered respectively 61 as aforesaid, and 60, upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-western extremity; and extending thence south-westward obliquely across the road leading from Horrabridge to Sampford Spiney to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 71 upon the maps last referred to from the close numbered 70 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence, and then in a direction generally westward along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 555, 556, 559, 526, and 525, upon the said maps last referred to, from the closes numbered respectively 70 as aforesaid, 573, 572, 571, 569, 560, and 561, upon the same maps, to the south-western extremity of the fence which divides the close numbered 525 from the close numbered 561 as aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-westward, to the boundary in the middle of the road leading from Okehampton to Horrabridge which divides the said parish of Sampford Spiney from the parish of Whitchurch aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the said boundary, following thereby the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of fourteen chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 7,' and placed on the western side of the same road, at or near to the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1539 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Whitchurch, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the closes numbered respectively 1529 and 1530 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to the last-mentioned boundary stone, and along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1545 and 1546 upon the maps last referred to, from the closes numbered respectively 1538, 1537, and 1536 upon the same maps, to the north-western extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 1546 from the close numbered 1536 as aforesaid on the eastern side of the road leading from Horrabridge to Higher Grimston; and extending thence, first westward, to a point in the middle of such road, and then northward, along the middle of the same road, for a distance of two and a half chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'H. C. C., 1867, No. 8,' and placed on the western side of the said road, at or near to the middle of the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 1479 upon the maps last referred to from the closes numbered respectively 1480 and 1481 upon the same maps; and extending thence north-westward to the last-mentioned boundary stone, and along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1477 and 1476 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 1481 as aforesaid, and 1483, upon the same maps, to a point at the north-western extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 1476 from the close numbered 1483 as aforesaid, on the boundary which divides the said parish of Whitchurch from the parish of Peter Tavy aforesaid; and extending thence, first northward, and then generally south-westward, along the last-mentioned boundary, to the first-described boundary stone on the northern bank of the River Walkham aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate in Pimhole Lane, in the particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

" Whereas at certain extremities of the said particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, and of the parish of Bury, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such particular district and parish respectively.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, and of the said parish of Bury, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate in Pimhole Lane aforesaid.

the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Bury, and with the consents of the Reverend Edward James Geoffrey Hornby, the rector or incumbent of the same rectory, and as such one of the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, of Thomas Openshaw, of Primrose Hill, Bury, Esquire, of James Openshaw, of Chesham Bank, Bury, Esquire, of John Lomax, of Walmersley Road, Bury, Esquire, and of John Mellin Wike, of Manchester Road, Bury, Esquire, the remaining patrons of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Saint Paul, Bury aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, and of the said parish of Bury, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas, situate in Pimhole Lane aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Bury,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Edward James Geoffrey Hornby, as rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Bury as aforesaid, and by his successors, rectors or incumbents of the same rectory, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Bury, being :—

"All those contiguous portions of the particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and of the parish of Bury, in the same county and diocese, which are bounded upon the east by the boundary dividing the said particular district from the particular district of Saint James, Heywood, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said boundary follows, for the most part, the course of the River Roch ; upon the south, partly by that portion of the boundary dividing the said parish of Bury from the said particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, which extends along the middle of the Lancashire and Yorkshire line of railway, and partly by an imaginary line continuing along the same line of railway ; upon the west, partly by that portion of the boundary dividing the said parish of Bury from the new parish of the Most Holy Trinity, Bury, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which extends along the middle of Heywood Street, and partly by an imaginary line continuing along the middle of the same street, and along the middle of Bond Street ; and upon the remaining side, that is to say, on the north, by another imaginary line commencing at the junction of Bond Street aforesaid with Wash Lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said lane to the boundary at Little Bridge which divides the said particular district of Saint Paul, Bury, from the particular district of Saint James, Heywood, as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Peter, Greenwich, in the County of Kent and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Greenwich.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Greenwich, being :—

" All that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the wall or fence which bounds the western side of the burial ground belonging to the parish church of Saint Alphage, at the north-eastern end of Bell Street; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such street to its junction with Union Street ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Roan Street ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said street to the wall or fence at the south-western extremity of the same street which forms the north-eastern boundary of the premises occupied by the new works of the Phœnix Gas Company; and extending thence, generally north-westward, along the middle of the said wall or fence, as far as the point where it strikes the eastern side of Ravensbourne-street; and extending thence, first westward to and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named street, for a distance of one hundred and seven yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the wharf and premises in the occupation of Messrs. Hobbs, Wharfingers and Masons, from the land and premises in the occupation of Messrs. Rennie, Engineers; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-western extremity, on the eastern bank of the River Ravensbourne, otherwise called Deptford Creek; and continuing thence, still north-westward and in a straight line, to the boundary in the middle of the same river or creek which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, from the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 2025.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of certain Livings belonging to the Crown for the Patronage of certain other Livings belonging to the See of Peterborough.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain livings belonging to the Crown, the patronage whereof respectively is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of England for the time being in virtue of his office, for the patronage of certain other livings belonging to the see of Peterborough.

"Whereas the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of England, is, in virtue of his office as aforesaid, patron of the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to each of the livings of which the particulars are set forth in the First Schedule hereunto annexed; (that is to say,) the vicarage of All Saints, Leicester, the vicarage of Saint Leonard, Leicester, the vicarage of Saint Martin, Leicester, the vicarage of Saint Mary, Leicester, and the vicarage of Saint Nicholas, Leicester, all in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Francis, now Bishop of Peterborough, is, in right of his see, patron of the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to each of the livings of which the particulars are set forth in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed; (that is to say,) the vicarage of Great Dunmow and the rectory of Wennington, both in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid, has signified to us his desire, and the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, as such bishop, has also signified to us his desire, that the patronage of the said several benefices mentioned in the said First and Second Schedules respectively may be exchanged, as herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the said First and Second Schedules hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and seal), and with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, as such bishop (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to each and every of the livings herein-before and in the said First Schedule hereunto mentioned (that is to say), the vicarage of All Saints, Leicester, the vicarage of Saint Leonard, Leicester, the vicarage of Saint Martin, Leicester, the vicarage of Saint Mary, Leicester, and the vicarage of Saint Nicholas, Leicester, shall be transferred from the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and from his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, and by his successors, Bishops of Peterborough, for ever ; and that in exchange for the same, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to each of the livings herein-before and in the said Second Schedule hereunto mentioned (that is to say), the vicarage of Great Dunmow, and the rectory of Wennington, shall, from the said lastly-mentioned day, be transferred from the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, and from his successors, and shall in like manner become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The First Schedule referred to in the foregoing Scheme.

"Benefices of which the Patronage is to be surrendered by the Lord Chancellor to the Bishop of Peterborough.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, and of the new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, both in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and published in the London Gazette on the fifteenth day of November, in the same year, a part of the parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington, in the said county and diocese, was assigned as a district chapelry to the church of Saint Barnabas, situate in the same parish, and such district chapelry was named 'The Chapelry District of Saint Barnabas, Kensington.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish, of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas, by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the second day of August, in the same year, certain contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, and of the said parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, situate at Earl's Court, in the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, and such consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, has, under the provisions of the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish of the character contemplated by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, and of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, should be respectively altered as herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, with the consent of the Venerable John Sinclair, Archdeacon of Middlesex and Vicar of the said parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington, and as such vicar patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, with the consent of the Reverend Francis Hessey, Doctor of Civil Law, the incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, and with the consent of the Reverend Joseph Dickson Claxton, the patron and also the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, and of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, should be respectively altered, so as to dissever from the last-named new parish, and to restore to the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, all that part of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in law, all that the said part of the new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington aforesaid, should be dissevered from such new parish, and should be restored to, and should again become and be part of, the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to be restored to the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is bounded on the north by the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the west by the new parish of Saint Mary, North End, in the same county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is, upon the east and south, by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, from the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, at the junction of Pembroke Road with Warwick Crescent opposite to the north-eastern angle of the premises known as Erard's Pianoforte Factory; and extending thence, first south-eastward to and along the wall which forms the north-eastern boundary of the said premises, and then south-westward along the wall forming the south-eastern boundary of the same premises, to the south-western angle thereof; and continuing thence in the same direction, that is to say, south-westward and in a straight line, for a distance of thirty yards, or thereabouts, to the middle of Warwick Road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Alma Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the same road to its termination on the eastern side of the line of the West London Extension Railway; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a direct line, across the said line of railway, for a distance of eighty yards, or thereabouts, to the boundary on the western side of the same line of railway which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Earl's Court, Kensington, from the new parish of Saint Mary, North End aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 2027.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Peter, Congleton, in the County and Diocese of Chester.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Congleton, in the parish of Astbury, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Astbury which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Congleton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Congleton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Congleton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Astbury, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with that portion of the township of Congleton wherein the present incumbent of the said parish of Astbury now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, all which said portion of such township is bounded upon the west by the new parish of Saint James, Congleton, some time part of the said parish of Astbury, upon the north by the township of Hulme Walfield, in the same parish of Astbury, upon the east partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Eaton, partly by the particular district of Saint John, Buglawton, and partly by the new parish of Saint Stephen, Congleton, all some time part of the said parish of Astbury, and upon the south partly by the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Mosley, some time part of the said parish of Astbury, and partly by the township of Newbold Astbury, in the parish of Astbury aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of the Perpetual Curacy of Saint Swithin, Kennington, in the County of Berks and Diocese of Oxford, for the Patronage of the Perpetual Curacy of Cadmore End, in the Counties of Bucks and Oxford and Diocese of Oxford.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the perpetual curacy of the benefice of Saint Swithin, Kennington, situate in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford, for such portion as is herein-after mentioned of the patronage of the perpetual curacy of the benefice of Cadmore End, situate partly in the county of Bucks and partly in the county of Oxford, and wholly in the said diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, is seised in fee in right of his see of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Saint Swithin, Kennington, and the church thereof.

"And whereas the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, in right of his see, and the Warden and College of the Souls of All Faithful People, deceased, of Oxford, are together seised in fee of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Cadmore End, and the church thereof, the said bishop being entitled to exercise such patronage for two consecutive turns, and the said Warden and College being entitled to exercise such patronage for every third turn.

"And whereas the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and the said Warden and College, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices, and of the churches thereof respectively, may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and with the consent of the said Warden and College (in testimony whereof to this scheme the said Bishop hath affixed his signature and seal, and the said Warden and College have affixed their common or corporate seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Saint Swithin, Kennington, and the church thereof, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and from his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Warden and College for ever; and that in exchange for the same the patronage or right of nomination for every third turn of and to the said benefice of Cadmore End, and the church thereof, shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said Warden and College, in whom as aforesaid it is now vested, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and his successors bishops of the same diocese for ever, so that the whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and to the said lastly-mentioned benefice, and the church thereof, may and shall become and be vested in such Bishop and his successors.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

Name and Quality of Benefice.	County.	Diocese.	Population.	Income.	Residence.
Saint Swithin, Kennington, a Perpetual Curacy.	Berks - -	Oxford -	138	53	No.
Cadmore End, a Perpetual Curacy.	Partly Bucks and partly Oxon.	Oxford -	332	180	Yes."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

For altering the Boundaries of the District of Burnmoor, in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for altering the boundaries of the district of Burnmoor, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas the district of Burnmoor was constituted out of the parish of Penshaw (sometime part of the parish of Houghton-le-Spring), in the county and diocese aforesaid, under the provisions of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by virtue of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said district of Burnmoor should be altered so that they shall include a certain part of the new parish of Christ Church, Lumley, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all that part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lumley, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereupon coloured pink, shall henceforth be dissevered from such new parish, and shall be annexed to and form part of and be included within the said district of Burnmoor.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the district of Burnmoor, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Christ Church, Lumley, in the county of Durham and diocese of Durham aforesaid, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Lambton."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the said district of Burnmoor, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lumley, and the said patrons and incumbents have respectively assented to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Paul, Penge, in the County of Surrey and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in Hamlet Road, in the particular district of Saint John, Penge, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate in Hamlet Road as aforesaid.

(testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said particular district of Saint John, Penge, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul, situate in Hamlet Road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Penge.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Penge, being:—

"All that part of the particular district of Saint John, Penge, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district from the district chapelry of Saint Mark, South Norwood, in the same county, and in the diocese of Canterbury, at a point near the bridge which carries the line of the Beckenham and Crystal Palace Junction Railway over the line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named line of railway for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to and to the west of the middle of the south-western end of a portion of the Old Croydon Canal; and extending thence first eastward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the said canal as far as the centre of the bridge which carries the Anerley Road over such canal; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road, crossing the bridge at the Anerley Station of the line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway aforesaid, to the junction of the same road with the road leading to the said railway station and to the Anerley Hotel and Gardens; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to a point opposite to the southern end of another portion of the Old Croydon Canal aforesaid; and extending thence, first generally northward, and then north-eastward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. P. D. C., 1867, No. 1,' and placed upon the northern bank of the said canal, at the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the estate known as South Lawrie Park from the estate known as Anerley Park; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said fence to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. St. P. D. C., 1867, No. 2,' and placed near the junction of Anerley Park Road with South Laurie Park Road; and extending thence, first northward to the middle of the last-named road, and then north-westward along the middle of the same road to its junction with Thicket Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road (skirting the Crystal Palace Gardens) to its junction with Penge New Road; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road as far as the boundary which divides the said particular district of Saint John, Penge, from the parish of Beckenham, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

For assigning the Right of Patronage of the new Parish of Saint Peter, Plymouth, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Saint Peter, situate at Plymouth, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

" Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of March in the same year, the district of Saint Peter, Plymouth, was constituted partly out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and partly out of the parish of East Stonehouse, in the same county and diocese, and such district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Act.

" And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage of and nomination of the minister of the said district, or, so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid, of the right of patronage of and nomination of the perpetual curate of such new parish, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

" And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton, of No. 4, Wyndham Place, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, spinster, and Eliza Mary Middleton, of the same place, spinster, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish, and for the benefit of the perpetual curate thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto), the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

" And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds was so contributed and paid by the said Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton and Eliza Mary Middleton as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, should be assigned to them the said Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton and Eliza Mary Middleton, their heirs and assigns, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Plymouth, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by, the said Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton and Eliza Mary Middleton, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or either of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

No. 2032.

For assigning the Right of Patronage of the Vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fourth day of March, in the same year, the district of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, was constituted out of the parish of Wolverhampton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and such district has since become a new parish, under the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Act.

"And whereas, under the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of that month, the said new parish of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, has been constituted a vicarage and the incumbent a vicar, as contemplated by the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-five.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage of the said new parish or vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, or of the nomination of the incumbent or vicar thereof, has been made by any Order of Your Majesty in Council, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the herein-before firstly mentioned Act.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by Mary Stokes, of Saint John's Square, in Wolverhampton aforesaid, spinster, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said vicarage and for the benefit of the vicar or incumbent thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said Mary Stokes and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such vicar or incumbent, being duly licensed, the yearly sum of sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence.

"And whereas the said sum of two thousand pounds sterling was so contributed and paid by the said Mary Stokes as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereof, should be assigned to the persons and in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereof, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in the Right Honourable Frederick John William Earl of Cavan, the Reverend William Dalton, Clerk, Prebendary of Lichfield Cathedral and Incumbent of the new parish of Saint Philip, Upper Penn, near Wolverhampton aforesaid, the Reverend George Lea, Clerk, Incumbent of the particular district of Saint George, Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, the Reverend William Robert Fremantle, Clerk, Rector of the rectory of Middle Claydon, in the county of Buckingham, and Vicar of the vicarage of Steeple Claydon, in the same county of Buckingham, and the Reverend Edward Hoare, Clerk, Incumbent of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, and their successors, to be appointed as herein-after is mentioned, upon trust, nevertheless, that they, the said Frederick John William Earl of Cavan, William Dalton, George Lea, William Robert Fremantle, and Edward Hoare, and their successors, shall, upon every legal vacancy in or avoidance of the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, exercise such right of patronage and nomination by nominating to such vicarage some one fit and proper person, being in Holy Orders of the United Church of England and Ireland, to be approved of for the purpose by them the trustees for the time being of the said right of patronage and nomination, or by a majority of them: Provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that when and so often as any of them, the said Frederick John William Earl of Cavan, William Dalton, George Lea, William Robert Fremantle, and Edward Hoare, or any future trustees or trustee, shall die, resign, or become incapable of acting in the execution of the trust hereby recommended and proposed to be created, or shall desire to retire from the said trust, then and in every such case a new trustee or new trustees of the said right of patronage and nomination shall be appointed in the manner and subject to the several provisions set forth in and provided by the tenth section of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, with respect to new trustees to be appointed under the provisions of such last-mentioned statute: Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared, that it shall not be lawful for the said Frederick John William Earl of Cavan, William Dalton, George Lea, William Robert Fremantle, and Edward Hoare, nor for any of them, nor for any future trustees or trustee (whether appointed as herein-before is provided or howsoever otherwise), acting in execution of the trust hereby recommended to be created, or having the right of patronage or nomination as aforesaid, at any time to sell or otherwise depart with or dispose of for any valuable consideration the said right of patronage or nomination, or any part thereof, but that the same right shall at all times hereafter be wholly held and exercised according to the tenor of this scheme, and not otherwise.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

No. 2033.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of the Vicarage of Upton-cum-Chalvey, in the County of Buckingham and Diocese of Oxford, for the Patronage of the Vicarage of Donnington, in the County of Sussex and Diocese of Chichester.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Upton-cum-Chalvey, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, the patronage of which benefice belongs to the Crown, and is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of England for the time being in virtue of his office, for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Donnington, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, the patronage of which last-named benefice belongs to the see of Oxford.

" Whereas the Right Honourable Frederic Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of England, acting as such Lord High Chancellor, has signified to us his desire, and the Right Reverend Samuel, now Bishop of Oxford, as such Bishop, has also signified to us his desire, that the patronage of the said two several benefices of Upton-cum-Chalvey and Donnington, the particulars of which said benefices are respectively set forth in the First and Second Schedules hereunto annexed, may be exchanged as herein-after recommended and proposed.

" And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that the values of the said benefices respectively are set forth in the said First and Second Schedules hereunto annexed.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and seal), and with the consent of the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the benefice herein-before and in the said First Schedule mentioned (that is to say), the vicarage of Upton-cum-Chalvey, shall be transferred from the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford, and from his successors Lords High Chancellors of England, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors Bishops of Oxford, for ever; and that, in exchange for the same, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the benefice herein-before and in the said Second Schedule mentioned (that is to say), the vicarage of Donnington, shall, upon and from the said lastly-mentioned day, be transferred from the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, and from his successors Bishops of Oxford, and shall in like manner become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford, and his successors Lords High Chancellors of England, acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The First SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Scheme.

" BENEFICE of which the Patronage is to be surrendered by the Lord Chancellor to the Bishop of Oxford.

Name and Quality of Benefice.	Population according to Census of 1861.	Net Income.	House of Residence.
Upton-cum-Chalvey, a Vicarage -	4,683	300	None.

" The Second SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Scheme.

" BENEFICE of which the Patronage is to be surrendered by the Bishop of Oxford to the Lord Chancellor.

Name and Quality of Benefice.	Population according to Census of 1861.	Net Income.	House of Residence.

For constituting the District of Saint Mark, Winshill, in the Counties of Stafford and Derby and the Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, which is herein-after mentioned and described, (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship,) should be constituted a separate district in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas John Gretton, of Bladon House, in the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, Esquire, has contributed and paid to our account at the Bank of England a sum of three thousand pounds sterling in aid of the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, upon the understanding that we should in respect thereof provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds, and upon the understanding that we should also make and pay, out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or pl hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mark, Winshill.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Gretton, and by his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mark, Winshill, being :—

"All that part of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, situate partly in the county of Stafford and partly in the county of Derby, and wholly in the diocese of Lichfield, which is herein-after mentioned ; that is to say :—all that part of the said district parish which is situate in the said county of Derby, and which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Winshill."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-before mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such patron and incumbent have respectively consented to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

As to the Assignment of District Chapelries to the Church called Christ Church, Ainsworth, and to the Church of Saint James, Ashworth, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 21st May 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Ainsworth, in the parish of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Ashworth, in the same parish.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches, situate at Ainsworth and at Ashworth respectively, as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said parish of Middleton which is described in the First Schedule

hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Ainsworth as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Ainsworth;' and, secondly, that all that other part of the same parish of Middleton which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, all which lastly mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the other map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate at Ashworth as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Ashworth.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at each of the churches aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the ministers of the same churches for the time being respectively: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Ainsworth, being:—

"All that detached part of the parish of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township and chapelry of Ainsworth, otherwise called Cockey.

"The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Ashworth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township and chapelry of Ashworth."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

For substituting a Money Payment for certain Property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Llandaff.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the "Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties "and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts "relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An "Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled "An "Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth "Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and "Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts "relating to the Ecclesiastical Commisssoners for England," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An "Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Llandaff.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in any other security or securities, in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate; and also that, for any like purpose, any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments; and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of or in trust for any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter now consists, and will for the future consist, under the provisions of the said lastly recited Act, of a dean and four canons.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter are seised in fee of certain lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, forming the endowment of the said chapter, the greater part of which have been heretofore demised or granted, and are now held on lease or grants for years or lives, at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the great antiquity of the said cathedral church, and of the want of due reparation in times past, it has become necessary for the sustentation thereof to expend thereon forthwith such a sum of money as cannot be wholly charged on the parties now entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and chapter.

" And whereas we have ascertained that the sum required to be provided for the purpose of executing such repairs, and for effecting improvements conducive to the permanent security of the fabric of the said cathedral church, amounts to not less than five thousand pounds.

" And whereas we are seised in fee simple in possession of certain lands, houses, and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule marked B. annexed to this scheme.

" And whereas, by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette of the eighth day of September then following, and made under the authority of the Acts herein-before mentioned, provision is made, by means of payments to be made by us from time to time out of our Common Fund, for making up the incomes of every dean and canon of the said cathedral church appointed after the date of such Order to the respective annual amounts of seven hundred pounds for such dean and three hundred and fifty pounds for every such canon, and payments are now accordingly made by us from time to time to the present dean and canons of the said cathedral church (all of whom were appointed after the date of the said Order).

" And whereas the said dean and chapter have agreed to accept, on behalf of themselves and their successors, the lands and hereditaments comprised in the said Schedule marked B., and the annual payment herein-after intended to be secured to them, in lieu of the payments now made by us as aforesaid, and as a discharge of all and any liability resting upon us under the provisions of the said Order, and also as a full consideration for the lands and hereditaments intended to be hereby transferred to us, and we are of opinion that the arrangement herein-after set forth will be the most convenient mode of effecting for the future the purposes contemplated in the said Order, and will ultimately conduce to the improvement of our Common Fund.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Llandaff, and of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of Llandaff, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose, that all the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage the said cathedral church and the precincts thereof, and the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked A.), together with the benefit of any perpetual land tax charged thereupon which may have been redeemed, subject, nevertheless, to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of or to which the said dean and chapter are now liable, and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter, shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seised of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance the lands, houses, and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule marked B. annexed to this scheme, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in the said dean and chapter for ever, in as full and ample a manner as if such lands, houses, and hereditaments had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter, subject to any liabilities to which the said lands, houses, and hereditaments are now subject or legally liable ; and that they, the said dean and chapter, shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the said first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven; and that, in further consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, and also in discharge of the obligation with respect to the provision of the incomes of the dean and canons of the said cathedral church imposed upon us by the herein-before recited Order of Your Majesty in Council, we shall pay to the said dean and chapter, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, the annual sum of three thousand and five hundred pounds (four tenth parts of which said annual payments, or of the net income arising from the estates to be hereafter substituted for the same, as herein-after mentioned, shall, together with the income which shall accrue to the said dean and chapter from burial and marriage fees, and from the properties comprised in the said Schedules marked A. and B. respectively, be appropriated to the maintenance of the services of the said cathedral church, and the sustentation of the fabric thereof, and to meeting all the expenses and liabilities of the said dean and chapter, including the remuneration of their chapter clerk, the remaining six tenth parts being appropriated to the income of the said dean and four canons, viz., two of such parts to the dean, and one of such parts to each canon) ; and that the first of such half-yearly payments shall be made on the first day of November next, and that the payment of such last-mentioned annual sum shall continue until the said dean and chapter shall have been put in possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and costs of management) of three thousand and five hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the receipt or receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme, when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that no payments shall be hereafter made by us under the authority of the hereinbefore recited Order of Your Majesty in Council, in respect of any period subsequent to the said first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, as a further consideration for the said transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid and expended by us towards defraying the cost of effecting such repairs of the said cathedral church and improvements as aforesaid, under the superintendence of and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by the architect of the said dean and chapter, and to be approved by us, the said sum of five thousand pounds, together with interest thereon, at the rate of three pounds per centum, from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint John, Holbeach Fen, in the County and Diocese of Lincoln.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Holbeach Fen, in the parish of Holbeach, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas, at certain extremities of the said parish of Holbeach, of the parish of Fleet, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Gedney, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Holbeach, of the said parish of Fleet, and of the said parish of Gedney, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Holbeach Fen aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Holbeach, with the consent of the Reverend James Jerram, the patron and also the rector of the rectory of the said parish of Fleet, as such patron, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Edward Geoffrey, Earl of Derby, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, as the patron in right of the Crown of the vicarage of the said parish of Gedney (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Holbeach, Fleet, and Gedney, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John, situate at Holbeach Fen as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Holbeach Fen,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Holbeach Fen, being :—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Holbeach, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, of the parish of Fleet, in the said county and diocese, and of the parish of Gedney, in the same county and diocese, which are situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Gedney from the parish or chapelry of Saint James, Sutton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the bridge (called Clifton's Bridge) which carries Ravens Bank Road over the new or Great South Holland Drain, and extending thence, first north-westward and then westward, along the middle of the said road for a distance of rather more than two and a half miles (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Gedney from the parish of Fleet aforesaid, and crossing also the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the said parish of Holbeach) to the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Whaplode, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint James, Thornton, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Thornton, in the township and parochial chapelry of Thornton, within the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Thornton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate at Thornton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Thornton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Burnet, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, one half of the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, and performance respectively as aforesaid, shall be paid by such minister to the said John Burnet: And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Thornton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with that portion of the township of Thornton which is not included within the new parish of Denholme Gate, sometime part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, all which said portion of such township is bounded on the west by the new parish of Denholme Gate aforesaid, on the north-east by the district parish of Wilsden-cum-Allerton, and on the south partly by the district chapelry of Saint John, Clayton, partly by the new parish of Queen's Head, and partly by the chapelry district of Saint John, Ovenden, all in the county of York and diocese of Ripon aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Treasurer of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the treasurer of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

" Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and made or expressed to be made between the Venerable Hugh Chambres Jones, treasurer of the said cathedral church and Archdeacon of Essex, of the one part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, all that the parsonage or rectory of Albury, in the county of Herts, together with all and singular the manor, tithes, rentscharge, lands, tenements, and hereditaments thereto belonging, to which the said Hugh Chambres Jones was entitled as such treasurer as aforesaid (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became, with their appurtenances, vested in us in fee simple, subject to a certain beneficial lease for lives, and to the liabilities in such indenture particularly specified, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the lands and hereditaments which so became vested in us as aforesaid are not now subject to any beneficial lease, the interest of the holder of the lease herein-before mentioned having been purchased by us, but some portions thereof, partly on account of their character and situation, and partly because they are of copyhold tenure, consisting of tenements held for estates of inheritance by copy of court-roll, at small annual quitrents, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

" And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said treasurer, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Redcar in the parish of Marske, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

" Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Marske and of the parish of Upleatham, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Marske, and of the said parish of Upleatham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter situate at Redcar aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, and patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Upleatham, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Thomas, Earl of Zetland, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Marske (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Marske, and of the said parish of Upleatham, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Redcar aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Redcar,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Thomas, Earl of Zetland, and by his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Redcar, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Marske, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, and also all that detached portion of the parish of Upleatham (forming part of the village of Redcar), in the same county and diocese, which are bounded on the north-east by the German Ocean, on the west partly by the particular district of Christ Church, East Cotham, and partly by the parish of Kirkleatham, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the south and south-east by an imaginary line commencing at a boundary stone inscribed 'R. St. P. C. C., 1867, No. 1,' and placed at the point where the boundary dividing the said parish of Kirkleatham from the parish of Marske aforesaid crosses the course of the Upleatham Ironstone Railway (now disused) ; and extending thence, eastward, in a direct line, for a distance of half a mile or thereabouts, (in a course nearly identical with that of the disused railway aforesaid, and crossing Redcar Lane,) to another boundary stone inscribed 'R. St. P. C. C., 1867, No. 2,' and placed at the point where the course of the said disused railway is intersected by the boundary which divides the township of Marske in the said parish of Marske from the township of Redcar in the same parish ; and extending thence alternately northward and eastward along the said township boundary (passing to the south of Redcar Ings Farm) to a point near Mill Howl, upon the shore of the German Ocean aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, situate in Lant Street, in the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael, situate in Lant Street as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, that all that part of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Michael, situate in Lant Street as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Southwark.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Southwark, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary dividing the said parish from the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, in the county and diocese aforesaid, crosses the Southwark Bridge Road; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of fifty-five yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road, to its junction with Lombard Street; and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the same street to its junction with Mint Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with King Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said lastly mentioned street to its intersection by Queen Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Redcross Street; and extending thence north-eastward diagonally across the last-named street to its junction with Disney Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Little Harrow Street; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street, crossing Mint Street aforesaid, and along the middle of Harrow Street, to the junction of the last-named street with Lant Street; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with John's Place; and extending thence generally south-westward along the middle of John's Place aforesaid to its junction with Rodney Street; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the same street to its intersection by John Street; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Great Suffolk Street; and extending thence northwestward for a distance of three hundred and thirty yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street (crossing Southwark Bridge Road aforesaid), to the boundary near Thomas Place which divides the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, from the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, as aforesaid ; and extending thence generally north-eastward along the said boundary to the first-described point in the middle of the Southwark Bridge Road, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

For compensating the Vicar of Paignton, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter, for the Loss of certain Fees, Dues, or other Emoluments which has been occasioned by reason of Proceedings under the "New Parishes Acts."

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867 :

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating the Reverend Frederick William Poland, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Paignton, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, for the loss of certain fees, dues, or other emoluments which has been occasioned by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Frederick William Poland, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution, under the provisions of the said Act, of the district of Saint Mary the Virgin, Collaton, which has since become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said Frederick William Poland of the annual sum herein-after mentioned would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the said Frederick William Poland, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Paignton aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such vicar or incumbent, and no longer, the annual sum of four pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments sustained by him by reason of the formation of the said district of Saint Mary the Virgin, Collaton, which has since become a new parish, as before mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose, that payment of the said annual sum of four pounds shall be held to commence as from the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, being the day upon which the church erected within and for the district of Saint Mary the Virgin, Collaton, which has become a new parish as aforesaid, was consecrated.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Broadwater, in the parish of Frant, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Frant, and of the new parish of Eridge Green, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Frant and of the said new parish of Eridge Green should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, situate at Broadwater aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, and of the Right Honourable and Reverend William, Earl of Abergavenny, the patron both of the vicarage of the said parish of Frant and of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Eridge Green (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Frant, and of the said new parish of Eridge Green, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mark, situate at Broadwater aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Broadwater,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said William, Earl of Abergavenny, and by his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Broadwater, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Frant, in the counties of Kent and Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Eridge Green, in the said county of Sussex and diocese aforesaid, which are situate within the boundary defined by the Acts of Parliament of the fifth and sixth William the Fourth, chapter seventy-two, intituled 'An Act for lighting, watching, cleansing, regulating, and otherwise improving the town of Tunbridge Wells, in the counties of Kent and Sussex, and for regulating the supply of water and establishing a market within the said town,' of the ninth and tenth Victoria, chapter three hundred and forty-nine, intituled 'An Act for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, regulating, and otherwise improving the town of Tunbridge Wells, in the counties of Kent and Sussex,' of 'The Local Government Supplemental Act, 1860 (No. 2.),' and of 'The Local Government Supplemental Act, 1864 (No. 2.)'"

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Thomas, Castle Town, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Castle Town, in the new parish of Forebridge, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Castle Town as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Forebridge which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Castle Town as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Castle Town.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Neville George Murray Lawrence, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Forebridge, shall remain such incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication, solemnization, or performance in such church as aforesaid shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Neville George Murray Lawrence: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Castle Town, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Forebridge, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Castle Church, in the same county and diocese, at a point near the Stafford Station of the line of the London and North Western Railway, in the centre of the bridge which carries the turnpike road leading from Castle Church to Stafford over the said line; and extending thence eastward for a distance of six chains and eighty-three links, or thereabouts, to the junction of the said turnpike road with a certain footpath leading to Stafford; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such footpath, for a distance of four chains and thirty links, or thereabouts, to the boundary in the middle of the River Sow, which divides the said new parish of Forebridge from the parish of Saint Mary, Stafford, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff, as aforesaid.

thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Cardiff.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Cardiff, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, which is bounded on the east by the parish of Roath, in the said county and diocese, on the north-west by the parish of Saint John, Cardiff, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the west and on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff, from the parish of Saint John, Cardiff, aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the roadway which connects Adam Street with Whitmore Lane, near the bridge which carries the said roadway over the canal which serves as a feeder to the Bute Docks; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the same roadway to the centre of the said bridge; and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the middle of the said canal or feeder to the centre of the bridge which carries Herbert Street over the same canal or feeder; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Herbert Street aforesaid (passing under the line of the East Branch of the Taff Vale Railway), and along the middle of Tyndall Street, to the north-eastern extremity of the last-named street; and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line (crossing under the line of the Rhymney Railway and over the line of the South Wales Branch Railway) to the boundary on the eastern side of Windsor Road which divides the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Cardiff, from the parish of Roath aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Matthew, Red Hill, in the County of Surrey and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate at Red Hill, within the limits of the particular district of Saint John, Reigate, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said particular district of Saint John, Reigate, of the particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Reigate, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such cures respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said particular district of Saint John, Reigate, of the said particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, and of the said parish of Reigate, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Red Hill aforesaid.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, is the patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Saint John, Reigate, and is also the patron in the same right of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, as such bishop, and also as the patron of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Saint John, Reigate, aforesaid, and as the patron of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said particular district of Saint John, Reigate, of the said particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, and of the said parish of Reigate, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united, and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthew, situate at Red Hill aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Red Hill,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Red Hill, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the particular district of Saint John, Reigate, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, of the particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Reigate, also in the same county and diocese, which are situate generally to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said particular district of Saint John, Reigate, from the parish of Nutfield, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Lower Road leading from Nutfield to Little Garlands, called the Philanthropic Road; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road as far as a point under the centre of the line of the South Eastern Railway; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said line of railway to its junction at the Red Hill Station with the Reading and Reigate branch line of the same railway; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said branch line of railway as far as a point over the middle of the Brighton turnpike road; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Gatton Road; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Ridgeway Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road which leads past the northern side of the house of residence called 'The Garlands,' to Linkfield Street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road to its junction, near the southern end of Linkfield Street aforesaid, with the road which leads from Little Garlands aforesaid, across Red Hill Common, past the southern side of the house of residence called 'The Elms,' to Shaw's Corner; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road (crossing the boundary which divides the particular district of Saint John, Reigate, from the parish of Reigate aforesaid,) to the junction of such road at Shaw's Corner aforesaid with the road leading from Warwick town to Reigate; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of one hundred and forty yards, or thereabouts, to a point near to the place called The Hatch, opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain footpath which leads across the Reading and Reigate branch line of railway aforesaid to Wray Common; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the said footpath (crossing in the middle of the said branch line of railway the boundary which divides the said parish of Reigate from the particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, aforesaid,) to the fence which forms the southern boundary of Wray Common aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said boundary fence to the south-eastern corner of the said common, on the western side of Wray Lane, and continuing thence, still eastward, to a point on the boundary in the middle of the said lane which divides the said particular district of Saint Mark, Reigate, from the parish of Reigate as aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the said boundary (following thereby the middle of the same lane) to its junction with the turnpike road at or near to the Wray Common turnpike gate; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said turnpike road for a distance of four hundred and eighty-five yards, or thereabouts, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Reigate from the parish of Gatton, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

No. 2047.

For substituting a Money Payment for certain Property belonging to the Dean and Canons of Her Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within Her Majesty's Castle of Windsor.

Gazetted 28th June 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence," duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and canons of Your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within Your Majesty's Castle of Windsor.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds or in any other security or securities, in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate; and also, that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments; and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of or in trust for any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas by the firstly herein-before mentioned Act the chapter of Your Majesty's said chapel is included among the bodies corporate which are as chapters of collegiate churches made subject to the provisions of that Act, and of the Acts secondly and thirdly herein-before mentioned, and the chapter of the said chapel now consists of a dean and four canons, eight canonries having been suspended under the provisions of the said first-recited Act.

"And whereas by the said Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty it was enacted, subject to the provisions of the said first herein-before recited Act, with respect to the interests of existing incumbents, that in the said chapel, so soon as a vacancy should occur in the deanery, the share of the divisible corporate revenues from time to time payable to each canon appointed after the passing of such last-mentioned Act, and to us in respect of each suspended canonry, should be one fourteenth part of the whole of such revenues, and the remainder of such divisible corporate revenues should be paid to the dean.

" And whereas the present dean was appointed on a vacancy which occurred subsequently to the passing of the lastly hereinbefore recited enactment, and two of the present canons were appointed subsequently to the passing of the first herein-before recited Act, and the other two canons are willing that the arrangement embodied in the recommendation herein-after contained should take effect forthwith.

" And whereas, by an Act passed in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Your Majesty, intituled ' An Act for the appropriation in favour of the Military Knights and the Churches of Windsor of two of the Canonries suspended in the chapel of Windsor, and for making certain provisions respecting the Naval Knights of Windsor,' after reciting, among other things, that eight canonries had been suspended as aforesaid, and that one fourteenth part of the whole monies of the said chapel were then paid to us in respect of each suspended canonry, it was enacted, that thenceforth the said dean and canons should retain all such two shares of divisible revenues as, if the Act now in recital had not been passed, would have been payable to us in respect of two of the said eight suspended canonries, and should apply one of such two shares for the benefit of the Military Knights on the upper or Royal foundation of the Castle at Windsor, in such manner as Your Majesty might, by warrant under Your Majesty's Sign Manual, direct, and should apply the other of the said two shares as follows; that is to say, should pay three fifths thereof to the vicar for the time being of the Royal borough of Windsor, and the remaining two fifths to the perpetual curate of the district church of the Holy Trinity in Windsor, in augmentation of their respective benefices.

" And whereas the said dean and canons are seised in fee of certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments the greater part of which have been heretofore demised or granted, and are now held on lease or grants for years or lives, at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines, and they are also beneficially interested or otherwise entitled to certain sums of stock and cash invested or held in trust as aforesaid, and particularly specified and set forth in the Schedule to this scheme.

" And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the great antiquity of the said chapel and of the collegiate and other buildings connected therewith belonging to the said dean and canons, and of the want of due reparation in times past, it has become necessary for the sustentation thereof to expend thereon forthwith in repairs such a sum of money as cannot be wholly charged on the parties now entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and canons.

" And whereas we have ascertained that the sum so required to be expended in such repairs amounts to not less than twenty-six thousand pounds.

" And whereas one of the purposes of the said Act is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls ; and the said dean and canons have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, stock, and cash (except as herein-after excepted) should be dealt with in manner herein-after mentioned, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and canons that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

" And whereas the said church of the Holy Trinity, Windsor, has now become a rectory, by virtue of an instrument made and executed under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the 'District Church Tithes Act, 1865,' and published in the London Gazette on the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said dean and canons, and of the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, as their visitor, such consents being severally testified by the said dean and canons having sealed, and by the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, having signed and sealed, this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong either in possession or reversion to the said dean and canons (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the premises within Your Majesty's said Castle, and certain other premises adjacent thereto, being the garden and stables of the said dean and canons, with the site of a house formerly in the occupation of Frederick Marriott, and all other the land and premises of the said dean and canons thereto adjoining, and excepting also any property held by them on trust for special charitable purposes), subject, nevertheless, to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of or to which the said dean and canons are now liable, and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and canons, and the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereon which has been redeemed, shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seised of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance we shall surrender all right and be excluded from all participation in respect of the six suspended canonries, the shares of corporate revenue attaching to which are now payable to us, and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and canons, or to be hereafter transferred to them as their permanent endowment, and in the rents and profits thereof, or in the money payments herein-after mentioned; and that there shall be paid by us to the said dean and canons, by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, until they shall have been put into possession of real estates, as herein-after mentioned, the sum of fourteen thousand and four hundred pounds, and that one such half-yearly payment shall be made in respect of the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the twenty-fifth day of March now last past, immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as a further consideration for the said transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said dean and canons, immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid, the sum of twenty-six thousand pounds, together with interest thereon at the rate of three pounds per centum per annum from the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, for which proposed payment due allowance has been made in fixing the amount of the annuity to be paid to the said dean and canons as aforesaid, and which capital sum shall be invested by the said dean and canons in Government securities, and shall be held by them in trust to be from time to time, as occasion may require, sold out and transferred, and the proceeds of the sales expended in such repairs as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that until such re-endowment as aforesaid there shall also be paid by us to the said dean and canons, by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, the annual sum of two hundred pounds, in order to enable them to remunerate their chapter clerk for the time being, and that one such last-mentioned half-yearly payment shall be made in respect of the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six and the twenty-fifth day of March now last past, immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose, that immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid there shall also be paid by us to the said dean and canons a sum of seven thousand pounds, in consideration of the said dean and canons having abstained and abstaining from renewing certain leases of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments hereby proposed to be transferred to us, which became renewable prior to or on the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which sum of seven thousand pounds shall be dealt with as income which would have accrued from the said lands and hereditaments for the period ending the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, if renewals of such leases had been made, and that the receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and canons shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us, under the authority of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

" And we further recommend and propose, that the net annual income to be derived by the said dean and canons, either from the half-yearly payments, amounting together to fourteen thousand and four hundred pounds per annum, proposed to be made by us until such re-endowment as aforesaid, or, after such re-endowment, from the estates then in the possession of the said dean and canons, shall be dealt with and appropriated as follows; that is to say: That four ninth parts of such net annual income, together with the income arising from the capital sum of twenty-six thousand pounds proposed to be paid by us as aforesaid, and from the unexpended balances thereof, and from the property within and adjacent to the said Castle to be retained by the said dean and canons, as herein-before proposed, and the income which the said dean and canons shall derive from fees for interments, the erection of monuments, and the performance of ecclesiastical offices, shall be appropriated to meeting the cost of maintaining the services of the said chapel, and of keeping in repair the fabric thereof, and of the collegiate buildings connected therewith, and to providing for the payment to the said Military Knights of the ancient stipends and allowances to which they were entitled previously to the passing of the herein-before recited Act of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Your Majesty, and to the payment of all the other expenses and liabilities chargeable upon the corporate revenues of the said dean and canons, including therein certain salaries, subscriptions, and other annual payments which have hitherto been paid by the said dean and canons out of their corporate funds, and that if the whole of such last-mentioned share and proportion of the total capitular revenues, being the share and proportion to be appropriated in perpetuity for the said purposes, prior to the division of the net capitular revenues, shall not in any year be so expended, the surplus thereof shall be accumulated and be employed in making good deficiencies (if any) in subsequent years, but that no portion thereof shall ever be appropriated to the personal use or enjoyment of the said dean and canons or either of them, and that the remaining five ninth parts shall be divided into eight parts, which eight parts shall be appropriated for the income of the dean and four canons, and of the parties entitled under the provisions of the said Act of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Your Majesty to the proceeds of the said herein-before mentioned two suspended canonries, in the manner following, that is to say: Two of such eight parts for the income of the dean, one of such eight parts for the income of each of the four canons, one of such eight parts for the benefit of the said Military Knights (which last-mentioned parts shall be paid and applied in such manner as Your Majesty may by warrant under Your Sign Manual direct, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Your Majesty), and one of such eight parts for the benefit of the incumbents for the time being of the two churches herein-before mentioned, in the proportions specified in the last-mentioned Act; that is to say, three fifths thereof to the vicar for the time being of the Royal borough of Windsor, and two fifths thereof to the rector for the time being of the said church of the Holy Trinity, Windsor.

"And we further recommend and propose, that no augmentation or endowment of any benefice by means of the appropriation or annexation of any part of the estates to be acquired by us under the provisions of this scheme, or by means of any payment granted out or in respect of the rents and profits thereof, shall be made by us until or unless, by and under the like authority, the said dean and canons shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates (of which not more than one half part shall consist of tithe rentcharges) sufficient to secure to the said dean and canons a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including costs of management,) of fourteen thousand and four hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and canons and of their visitor, that the said sums of stock and cash so described as aforesaid in the Schedule to this scheme, and also any other sums of cash or stock which may be now invested or held in trust for the said dean and canons (save and except a sum of five hundred and forty-nine pounds and nine shillings three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities produced by the investment of a sum of five hundred pounds cash, received in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four by the said dean and canons, as the consideration for the sale of certain buildings, consisting of a coach-house, stables, and chaise-house, and loose box, with yard thereto, then and for many years past used by the deans of Windsor, and known as the Dean's Stables) shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold out or transferred, and the same, or the proceeds thereof, be paid or carried to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us, or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 2048.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Silas, Toxteth Park, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Chester.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Silas, situate within the limits of the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, some time part of the district parish of Saint John the Baptist, Toxteth Park, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester.

" Whereas at certain extremities of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, and of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such district chapelry and parish respectively.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, and of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Silas, situate within the limits of such district chapelry as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, with the consent of John Shaw Leigh, of Luton Hoo, in the county of Bedford, Esquire, the patron of the cure of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and with the consents of Edward Cropper, of Swaylands, near Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, Esquire, of John Campbell, of Liverpool, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, of Mark Wilks Collet, of the city of London, Esquire, of Thomas Darnley Anderson, of Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, and of Robert Cochrane Crosbie, of Liverpool, Esquire, the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation,) we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, and of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Silas, situate within the limits of such district chapelry as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Silas, Toxteth Park,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the Reverend Hugh McNeile, Canon of Chester, Doctor in Divinity, the said Thomas Darnley Anderson, the said Mark Wilks Collet, Francis Hamilton, of Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, and the said Robert Cochrane Crosbie, in whom as trustees such right of presentation and appointment as last aforesaid is vested, under and according to the provisions of a certain deed or articles of agreement, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, made pursuant to the herein-before mentioned Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and to the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Chester, in which deed or articles of agreement are contained provisions for appointing, as occasion may from time to time require, trustees in the room of the said Hugh McNeile, Thomas Darnley Anderson, Mark Wilks Collet, Francis Hamilton, and Robert Cochrane Crosbie, or of any or either of them.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Silas, Toxteth Park, being :—

"All that portion of the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, sometime part of the district parish of Saint John the Baptist, Toxteth Park, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, which is situated to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such district chapelry from the said district parish at a point in the middle of High Park Road, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of South Street, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of such street to the boundary at the junction of such street with Tan Yard Lane, which divides the said district chapelry from the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill which is bounded on the south-west by the above described portion of the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, upon the south-east, upon the north-east, and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the last-described boundary at the junction of South Street with Tan Yard Lane as aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said street to its junction with Devonshire Road; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Prince's Road at the Prince's Park entrance; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of three hundred and sixty yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of North Hill Street; and extending thence south-westward and in a straight line (following the line of the proposed continuation of such street) for a distance of seventy yards or thereabouts, to the boundary at the junction of the said North Hill Street with Tan Yard Lane aforesaid which divides the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill from the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Prince's Park, as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of the Vicarage of Winterton, in the County and Diocese of Lincoln, for the Patronage of the Vicarage of Scopwick, in the same County and Diocese.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Winterton, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, the patronage of which benefice belongs to the Crown, and is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of England for the time being, in virtue of his office, for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Scopwick, in the said county of Lincoln and in the said diocese of Lincoln, the patronage of which lastly-named benefice belongs to the Bishop of Lincoln in right of his see.

" Whereas the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of England, acting as such Lord High Chancellor, has signified to us his desire, and the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Lincoln, as such Bishop, has also signified to us his desire that, the patronage of the said two several benefices of Winterton and Scopwick, the particulars of which said benefices are respectively set forth in the First and Second Schedules hereunto annexed, may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

" And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage; and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the said First and Second Schedules hereunto annexed.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the benefice herein-before and in the said First Schedule mentioned, (that is to say,) the vicarage of Winterton, shall be transferred from the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and from his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, and by his successors, bishops of Lincoln, for ever; and that in exchange for the same the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the benefice herein-before and in the said Second Schedule mentioned, (that is to say,) the vicarage of Scopwick, shall, upon and from the said lastly-mentioned day, be transferred from the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, and from his successors, bishops of Lincoln, and shall in like manner become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The First Schedule referred to in the foregoing scheme.

"Benefice of which the Patronage is to be surrendered by the Lord High Chancellor of England to the Bishop of Lincoln.

Name and Quality of Benefice.	Population according to Census of 1861.	Gross Income.	House of Residence.
Winterton, a Vicarage -	1,780	213	Yes, but needs restoration.

"The Second Schedule referred to in the foregoing scheme.

"Benefice of which the Patronage is to be surrendered by the Bishop of Lincoln to the Lord High Chancellor of England.

Name and Quality of Benefice.	Population according to Census of 1861.	Gross Income.	House of Residence.
Scopwick, a Vicarage -	383	163	Yes, but in bad repair.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

No. 2050.

For authorizing a Transfer of the Patronage of the Consolidated Chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath, in the County of Stafford and Diocese of Lichfield.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing a transfer of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the church of the consolidated chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath, situate in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of December following, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the church of Saint Luke, situate at or near Knutton Heath, by the name of 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath,' and by the same Order the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the church of the said cure was vested in, and the same now belongs to, Ralph Sneyd, of Keele Hall, in the said county of Stafford, Esquire, his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Ralph Sneyd is desirous that the said right of presentation and appointment, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Wolstanton, in the said county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, out of which parish the said consolidated chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath was partly taken, to the intent that the benefice of Silverdale and Knutton Heath, having by such transfer become a benefice in public patronage, may be eligible (so that it be in all other respects eligible) to receive from us an unconditional grant in augmentation of its income out of the Common Fund under our control, which is referred to in the herein-before mentioned Act.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and of the said Ralph Sneyd, and of the Reverend John Thomas Jeffcock, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Wolstanton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of the benefice of Silverdale and Knutton Heath aforesaid shall be transferred from him the said Ralph Sneyd, in whom it is now vested as aforesaid, and from his heirs and assigns, to the said John Thomas Jeffcock, now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Wolstanton, and his successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Thomas Jeffcock as such vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Wolstanton, and by his successors, vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage, for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Saviour, Eastbourne, in the County of Sussex and Diocese of Chichester.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate within the limits of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, sometime part of the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate within the limits of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate within the limits of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Eastbourne.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at the said church of Saint Saviour, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Pitman, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eastbourne, shall continue to be such vicar, all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization or performance of marriages in the said church shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Thomas Pitman; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Eastbourne, being :—

"All that portion of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne (sometime part of the parish of Eastbourne), in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, which is bounded on the south-east by the sea, and on all other sides, that is to say, upon the north-east, upon the north-west, and upon the south-west, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the seashore at a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'E. St. S. D. C. 1867, No. 1.', and placed against the sea wall opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Hardwick Road; and extending thence north-westward, and in a straight line, to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction across the public promenade, and also across the road called or known as 'The Grand Parade,' to the middle of the south-eastern end of Hardwick Road aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the same road, to its intersection by Compton Street opposite to the southern end of the road leading past Chiswick Place and Cornfield Terrace; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the lastly-mentioned road to its junction with Seaside Road; and extending thence north-westward diagonally across the last-named road to the middle of the southern end of Cornfield Road; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Terminus Road; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Water Lane; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said lane to the boundary which divides the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, from the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid, at the junction of the same lane with the road leading to Bedford Well; and extending thence, first south-westward along the said boundary, thereby crossing the north-western side of Middle Field, and then south-eastward along the same boundary, following thereby the middle of Compton Place Road to its junction with Mead's Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road, and along the middle of South Street, to the junction of the last-named street with a street or lane called or known as 'South'; and extending thence southward, and in a direct line, for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, following thereby the middle of the intended course of a proposed new road to a point where it joins a certain other new road leading to the Cliff Road; and continuing thence in the same direction, and in a straight line, for a distance of one hundred yards, or thereabouts, crossing the Cliff Road aforesaid, to a boundary stone inscribed 'E. St. S. D. C. 1867, No. 2.', and placed upon the south-eastern side of the last-named road; and continuing thence, still southward and in a straight line, to the sea, which forms the south-eastern boundary of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Stephen, Poplar, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate in the East India Road, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate in the East India Road as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, that all that part of the said parish of All Saints, Poplar, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate in the East India Road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Poplar.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at the said church of Saint Stephen, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Whitaker Nowell the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of All Saints, Poplar, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the church of Saint Stephen as aforesaid, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Thomas Whitaker Nowell; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Poplar, being:—

"All that part of the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of All Saints, Poplar, from the parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the point where West Street intersects the street called or known as 'Church Row;' and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Church Row aforesaid to its junction with the street called or known as 'Penny Fields;' and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with High Street; and continuing thence, still eastward, along the middle of the same street, to the boundary at the junction of High Street aforesaid with the street called or known as 'Wades Place,' which divides the said parish of All Saints, Poplar, from the particular district of Saint Matthias, Poplar (some time part of the same parish); and extending thence northward along the said boundary, following thereby the middle of Wades Place aforesaid, and crossing the East India Road, and following also the middle of Augustus Street and of Randall Street respectively, to the point where the same boundary diverges to the eastward at the intersection of the last-named street by Richard Street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Upper North Street; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Thomas Street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street, and along the middle of Gough Street, to the junction of the last-named street with Stainsby Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road to the boundary which divides the parish of All Saints, Poplar, from the parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, as aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the said boundary (crossing the East India Road before mentioned) to the first-described point where West Street intersects Church Row as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 2053.

Relating to the Improvement of the Precincts of the Cathedral Church of York.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence," duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the second session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the improvement of the precincts of the Cathedral Church of York.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful for the dean of any cathedral church, under the authority therein referred to, that is to say, a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, to purchase any house being contiguous or near to the cathedral church, and to apply the site of such house, or any part thereof, by and with the authority aforesaid, to the improvement of the cathedral or the precincts thereof.

"And whereas the house and premises described in the Schedule to this scheme are situate near to the cathedral church of York, and are contiguous to the deanery house of the said church.

"And whereas the same house and premises were lately held under us, on a beneficial lease for a term of forty years, which would not have expired until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, but the same lease having been acquired by the Honourable and Very Reverend Augustus Duncombe, Doctor in Divinity, the dean of the said cathedral church, by purchase, out of monies belonging to him in his private and personal capacity, was lately surrendered by him to us, with a view to the carrying into effect of the arrangement herein-after recommended and proposed, and the said house and premises are now vested in us in fee simple in possession.

"And whereas we estimate that the sum of three hundred and seventy pounds represented, as on the twenty-fifth day of March now last past, the value of the reversionary interest in the house and premises aforesaid which would have belonged to us if the leasehold interest in the same which was outstanding before the surrender thereof was effected by the said dean as aforesaid had not been so surrendered.

"And whereas the said Augustus Duncombe is desirous that the said house and premises should be taken down, and the site thereof be annexed in perpetuity to the house of residence of himself and his successors in the said deanery, with a view to the improvement of the precincts of the said cathedral church; and the said Augustus Duncombe has, on the understanding and agreement that we should submit this scheme for ratification by Your Majesty in Council, paid to us, out of monies belonging to him in his private or personal capacity, such sum of three hundred and seventy pounds, with interest on the same as from the said twenty-fifth day of March now last past.

"And whereas we are of opinion that such annexation would be an improvement of the precincts of the said cathedral church.

"Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said understanding and agreement, and with the concurrence of the dean and the chapter of the said cathedral church of York, testified by their having executed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the house and premises particularly described in the Schedule to this scheme, and all our right, title, and interest therein, shall be and become absolutely vested in the said Augustus Duncombe and his successors, as deans of the said cathedral church, for the purposes aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"All that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, with the coach-house, stable, outbuildings, yard, and garden adjoining the same, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, formerly part of the mansion or prebendal house of the prebend of Stillington, in the cathedral church of York, situate in the Minster Yard, and adjoining the deanery house of the said cathedral church, and being the premises comprised in an indenture of lease, bearing date the fifteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and made between the Right Worshipful William Cockburn, Doctor in Divinity, then dean of the said cathedral church, and the chapter of the same church, of the one part, and William Singleton, of the city of York, Gentleman, of the other part."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Emmanuel, Everton, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Chester.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Emmanuel, situate in the West Derby Road, in the new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, sometime part of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Emmanuel, situate in the West Derby Road as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Emmanuel, situate in the West Derby Road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Emmanuel Everton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at the said church of Emmanuel, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Cowan, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the church of Emmanuel as aforesaid shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Thomas Cowan; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Emmanuel, Everton, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, some time part of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, from the particular district of Saint Augustine, Everton, some time part of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, at a point in the middle of Everton Road opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Gleave Street; and extending thence, first north-eastward and then eastward, to and along the middle of the same street, to its junction with Rupert Street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Mill Road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Margaret Street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Sykes Street; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Leith Street; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Atwell Street; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Kilshaw Street; and extending thence south-eastward, diagonally across the last-named street, to the passage which forms the back entry to certain houses in Severs Grove ; and extending thence, first eastward, then northward, and then again eastward, along the middle of the said passage, to its junction with Reynolds Street ; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Severs Street ; and extending thence, first eastward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Boundary Lane ; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, across the said lane, to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, from the parish of West Derby, in the county and diocese aforesaid ; save and except from the above described part of the said new parish of Saint Chrysostom, Everton, all that plot of land comprising two acres three roods and thirteen perches, or thereabouts, upon which the buildings and premises called or known as the West Derby Union Workhouse are situate."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary, Dunsforth, in the County of York and Diocese of Ripon.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Lower Dunsforth, in the parish of Aldborough, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Lower Dunsforth aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Aldborough, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Lower Dunsforth, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Dunsforth.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Dunsforth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Aldborough, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the parochial chapelry of Dunsforth, which said parochial chapelry consists of the township of Lower Dunsforth, and of that portion of the township of Upper Dunsforth-with-Branton which is situate within the said parish of Aldborough."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Relating to the Patronage of the Perpetual Curacies of Cartmel, Flookburgh, Field Broughton, Lindale, Cartmel Fell, and Staveley, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Carlisle.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the rights of patronage of, and of presentation or nomination to, the churches of the perpetual curacies of Cartmel, Flookburgh, Field Broughton, Lindale, Cartmel Fell, and Staveley, all of which are situate within the ancient limits of the parish of Cartmel, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of the provisions of a certain lease of the rectory and parsonage of Cartmel aforesaid, bearing date on or about the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, which was granted by the Right Reverend Bowyer Edward, then Bishop of Chester, for a term of three lives and the longest liver of them, of which lives one now survives, the Most Noble William, Duke of Devonshire, is, on any vacancy in the incumbency of any or either of the said churches of Cartmel, Flookburgh, Field Broughton, Lindale, Cartmel Fell, and Staveley, which may occur during the subsistence of the said lease, entitled to present a spiritual person or persons thereto.

"And whereas the churches aforesaid are all of them ill endowed.

"And whereas the said William, Duke of Devonshire, with a view of making better provision for the spiritual duties of the same churches, is desirous to effect and hath agreed to the arrangements herein-after mentioned, and the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Chester, as such patron in reversion or remainder of the said churches, is also desirous to effect and hath likewise agreed to the same arrangements.

"And whereas the said William, Duke of Devonshire, hath, upon the understanding and condition that we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council the alterations in the exercise of the patronage herein-after set forth, paid to us the capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, to be applied in and towards the permanent augmentation or improvement of the income of the said church of Cartmel, and hath also paid to us the capital sum of one thousand pounds, to be applied in and towards the permanent augmentation or improvement of the income of the said church of Flookburgh.

"And whereas, if and when we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, should and shall be in possession of funds applicable, according to the provisions of the Acts of Parliament regulating our proceedings, towards augmenting the incomes of the said churches of Lindale, Cartmel Fell, and Staveley, it would remove an impediment to the unconditional augmentation of the incomes of the same churches if the patronage thereof were transferred from a private individual to a public patron.

"Now, therefore, with the agreement and consent of the said William, Duke of Devonshire, and of the said William, Bishop of Chester, and also with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the diocese of Carlisle, and of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (such consents being testified by the said parties having respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of each of the said three churches of Cartmel, Flookburgh, and Field Broughton, in reversion or remainder as aforesaid expectant on the determination of the herein-before mentioned lease, shall be transferred from the said Bishop of Chester, and his successors in the same see, and shall become and be vested in the said William, Duke of Devonshire, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette as aforesaid of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the perpetual patronage of each of the said churches of Lindale, Cartmel Fell, and Staveley shall be transferred from the said William, Duke of Devonshire, as so entitled under the hereinbefore mentioned lease as aforesaid, and from the said William, Bishop of Chester, and his successors in the same see, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may at all times thereafter be exercised by the said Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle, and his successors, bishops of Carlisle, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Aycliffe, in the county of Durham, now vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of two several indentures, the one bearing date the seventh day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, made between Samuel Swire, of Stainton Cotes, near Leeds, in the county of York, Gentleman, of the first part, Abraham Story, of the city of Durham, in the county of Durham, Gentleman, of the second part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, and the other bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, made between the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Durham, of the first part, the Right Honourable Henry Thomas, Earl of Chichester, and the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, M.P., two of the Church Estates Commissioners, of the second part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments described in the Schedule hereunto annexed became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relative to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that piece or parcel of land which, in the indenture dated the seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, referred to in this scheme, is described as a freehold close or field called New Close, otherwise New Field, containing by admeasurement five acres and two roods, situate and being in the township of Great Aycliffe, in the county of Durham, and in the possession or occupation of John Robinson.

"And also all those several lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, situate and arising in the parish of Aycliffe, in the said county of Durham, which in the Schedule to the indenture, dated the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, referred to in this scheme, are described as comprising three hundred and fourteen acres three roods and twenty perches of land, and three several annual rentcharges or sums amounting in all to thirty-two pounds five shillings and sixpence, awarded in lieu of portions of the hay tithe, within the same parish of Aycliffe."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

As to the Assignment of District Chapelries to the Church called Christ Church, Brondesbury, and to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty

King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in Brondesbury Park, in the parish of Willesden, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Kilburn, in the same parish.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches, situate in Brondesbury Park and at Kilburn respectively, as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said parish of Willesden which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate in Brondesbury Park as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Brondesbury,' and, secondly, that all that other part of the same parish of Willesden which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, all which lastly-mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the other map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Kilburn as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at each of the said churches aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, in each such church, should be paid and belong to the ministers thereof for the time being respectively: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Joseph Crane Wharton, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Willesden, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received at each such church as aforesaid shall be paid by the respective ministers of the same churches to the said Joseph Crane Wharton; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof, in either of the churches aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Brondesbury, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Willesden, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the new parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Edgware Road opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Mapes Lane; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the said lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the new wall which forms the eastern boundary of the Paddington Cemetery; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the said wall to its junction with the wall forming the southern boundary of the same cemetery; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described wall, to the southernmost corner of such cemetery; and extending thence southward, and in a straight line, for a distance of about one hundred yards, to the boundary stone marked F. which is placed on the boundary dividing the said parish of Willesden from the consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the north-eastern corner of the said consolidated chapelry; and extending thence westward along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of a certain footpath leading from Kensal Green to Chambers Lane, near the northern end of the bridge which carries such footpath over the line of the Hampstead Junction Railway; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath, and along the middle of Chambers Lane, to the junction of such lane with Willesden Lane; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction at Willesden Green with Walm Lane; and extending thence, first north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane, and then eastward along the middle of the same lane, to the boundary in the middle of the Edgware Road aforesaid which divides the said parish of Willesden from the parish of Hampstead, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the said road, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the parish of Willesden from the new parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn, as first mentioned; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the boundary last referred to, still following the middle of the Edgware Road, to the first-described point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Mapes Lane where the said imaginary line commenced.

"The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Willesden, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the new parish of Saint Mary, Kilburn, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Edgware Road, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Mapes Lane; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the said lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the wall which forms the eastern boundary of the Paddington Cemetery; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the said wall to its junction with the wall forming the southern boundary of the same cemetery; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described wall to the southernmost corner of such cemetery; and extending thence in a southerly direction, and in a straight line, to the boundary stone marked F. which is placed on the boundary dividing the said parish of Willesden from the consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Kensal Green, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the north-eastern corner of the said consolidated chapelry."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Treasurer of the Cathedral Church of Exeter.

Gazetted 6th August 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3d day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the treasurer of the cathedral church of Exeter, and now vested in us.

" Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of May following, certain lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, then belonging to the said treasurer, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the greater part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are subject to beneficial leases or grants for lives, and produce during the subsistence of such leases or grants only a small annual revenue, and on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

" And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said treasurer, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Peter, Devizes, in the County of Wilts and Diocese of Salisbury.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes, in the parish of Rowde, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Rowde, and of the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, in the parish of Cannings Episcopi, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of the said first-named parish, and of the said chapelry respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Rowde, and of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, with the consent of Gabriel Goldney, of Beechfield, near Chippenham, in the said county of Wilts, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Rowde, and with the consent of the Reverend William Ewart, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Cannings Episcopi, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Sarum, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Cannings Episcopi (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or corporate seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Rowde, and of the said chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Devizes aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Devizes,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Devizes, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Rowde, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is situate within the boundary of the borough of Devizes.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom, in the parish of Cannings Episcopi, situate within the boundary of the borough of Devizes aforesaid, which is bounded on the north by the said borough boundary, on the west by the above-described portion of the parish of Rowde aforesaid, on the south partly by the parish of Saint John the Baptist, Devizes, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the chapelry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Devizes, in the last-named parish, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said chapelry of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Devizes, from the chapelry of Saint James, Southbroom aforesaid, at the junction of Commercial Road with the road leading from Couch Lane to the Belvidere entrance to Roundway Park, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road, crossing the Kennet and Avon Canal to a point near the said Belvidere entrance to Roundway Park upon the boundary of the borough of Devizes aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, as aforesaid.

"And whereas we did lately, that is to say, on the fourteenth day of March of this present year, represent to Your Majesty in Council the expediency of such assignment, in terms identical (except as herein-after mentioned) with those of this present representation.

"And whereas between the said fourteenth day of March and the twenty-first day of May now last past, on which last-named day a copy of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying our said former reprcsentation was published in the London Gazette, the said see of Rochester became vacant, by the demise of the late bishop thereof, and in consequence of such vacancy, and thereupon, the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, was, by the operation of the Act of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-six, ipso facto transferred from the diocese of London (to which until then it belonged, and the bishop of which was consenting to our said former representation,) to the said diocese of Rochester, and now and henceforth belongs thereto.

"And whereas it has thus become necessary, or, for avoidance of doubts, desirable, that a new representation, having the consent of the present bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, should be made to Your Majesty in Council by us relative to the said assignment.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter, situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Greenwich.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Greenwich, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the wall or fence which bounds the western side of the burial-ground belonging to the parish church of Saint Alphage, at the north-eastern end of Bell Street; and extending thence south-westward, along the middle of such street, to its junction with Union Street; and extending thence south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Roam Street; and extending thence south-westward, along the middle of the said street, to the wall or fence at the south-western extremity of the same street which forms the north-eastern boundary of the premises occupied by the new works of the Phœnix Gas Company; and extending thence, generally north-westward, along the middle of the said wall or fence, as far as the point where it strikes the eastern side of Ravensbourne Street; and extending thence, first westward to, and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one hundred and seven yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the fence which divides the wharf and premises in the occupation of Messrs. Hobbs, Wharfingers and Masons, from the land and premises in the occupation of Messrs. Rennie, Engineers; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-described fence to its north-western extremity on the eastern bank of the River Ravensbourne, otherwise called Deptford Creek; and continuing thence, still north-westward and in a straight line, to the boundary in the middle of the same river or creek which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Greenwich, from the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

For constituting the District of Bolam, in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Gainford which is herein-after mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship,) should be constituted a separate district, in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas by an indenture bearing date on or about the ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and made or expressed to be made between the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and University of Cambridge, of King Henry the Eighth's foundation, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in Your Majesty's High Court of Chancery,) the said Master, Fellows, and Scholars have granted and executed to the minister or incumbent of the separate district herein-after proposed to be constituted, certain rectorial tithe rentcharges, amounting in all to one hundred and nineteen pounds six shillings eightpence and one farthing per annum, or thereabouts, arising partly within the township of Morton Tinmouth, in the said parish of Gainford, and partly within the township of Bolam, in the same parish.

" And whereas the said tithe rentcharges have been so granted and secured as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

" And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Gainford which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Bolam.'

" And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of the said College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and University of Cambridge, for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

" The District of Bolam, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Gainford, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the two contiguous townships of Bolam and Morton Tinmouth."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly and thirdly mentioned Acts, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of

Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate within the limits of the township of Over Wyresdale, in the parish of Lancaster, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, situate within the limits of the township of Over Wyresdale aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Lancaster which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate within the limits of the township of Over Wyresdale as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Over Wyresdale.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Over Wyresdale, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Lancaster, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Over Wyresdale, and which constitutes the ancient parochial chapelry of Wyresdale, otherwise called Wydersdale."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers, in the parish of Warton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Warton which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Yealand Conyers.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at the said church of Saint John, situate at Yealand Conyers as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Dean, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Warton, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the publication of banns and the performance of the said offices in such church as aforesaid shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Thomas Dean; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

For assigning certain Lands and Hereditaments as an Endowment for the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Winchester.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as an endowment for the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Winchester.

" Whereas, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of an Act of the fifth year of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of such provisions, bearing date the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly published on the same day in the London Gazette, in consideration of an annual money payment of three thousand and six hundred pounds, and for divers other good causes and considerations in the said Order particularly set forth, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (except certain portions thereof in the same Order particularly excepted), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter, became vested in us.

" And whereas it was by the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council provided, that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired under the provisions thereof (excepting such of the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments as are situate or arise within the counties of Denbigh, Flint, and Somerset,) should be applicable to the purposes of our Common Fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of such Order, until or unless, by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter should have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to them a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including cost of management,) of three thousand and six hundred pounds.

" And whereas the said dean and chapter have signified their willingness to accept, as their permanent endowment, the lands, rentcharges, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, which are now vested in us in fee simple in possession, and which in our opinion are convenient to be held as the permanent endowment of the said dean and chapter, and sufficient to produce, as nearly as may be, a clear net annual income of three thousand and six hundred pounds.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Winchester, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, rentcharges, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, and in the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the dean and chapter of Winchester, and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, rentcharges, tenements, and hereditaments are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter, and that the said dean and chapter shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the same lands, rentcharges, tenements, and hereditaments as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and that the annual money payment of three thousand and six hundred pounds heretofore payable by us under the provisions of the herein-before recited Order of Your Majesty in Council of the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, shall, as from the same twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, cease and determine.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 2069.

For constituting the District of Saint John the Evangelist, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, out of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the same county and diocese, and out of the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, also in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, and of the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, which are herein-after mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the minister of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and also a further grant of one hundred pounds per annum, so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our Common Seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, and of the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, which are respectively mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Holborn.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Holborn, being :—

"All those portions of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, also in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of High Holborn near to the northern end of the passage leading to Lincoln's Inn Fields called 'The Great Turnstile,' and extending thence eastward along the middle of High Holborn aforesaid as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Brownlow Street; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary at the junction of such street with Warwick Place which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's Inn Road, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the said boundary to its junction with the boundary in the middle of Red Lion Street which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gray's Inn Road, from the parish of Saint George the Martyr, aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary as far as the junction of Red Lion Street aforesaid with Theobald's Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the junction of such road with Kingsgate Street which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Kingsgate Street aforesaid (following thereby in part the last-described boundary) to the boundary at the junction of such street with High Holborn aforesaid which divides the said parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, from the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of High Holborn, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, from the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields aforesaid; and continuing thence, still eastward, along the last-described boundary, still following the middle of High Holborn, as far as the first-described point near 'The Great Turnstile' aforesaid where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the rectories of the three parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and the said patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

No. 2070.

For assigning certain Lands and Hereditaments as the Permanent Endowment of the See of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the permanent endowment of the see of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, succeeded to the said see on an avoidance which happened after the passing of the herein-before mentioned Act, and all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments belonging to the said see of Gloucester and Bristol (except all rights of presentation, and the residence of the Bishop,) are vested absolutely in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, which are now vested in us, are, in the judgment of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment for the said see, and are approved by the said Bishop as suitable for that purpose, and will secure to the holder of the said see, as nearly as may be, after deducting costs of management, a net annual income of five thousand pounds, and no more, being the amount named for the Bishop of the said see by the Order of Your Majesty in Council of the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order is now in force.

"Now, therefore, with the consent and approbation of the said Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, and interest therein, save only as is herein-after saved and excepted, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises, which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the said Bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol, and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said Bishop, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see ; save and except, and always reserved unto us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, all and singular the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions, therein or thereunder, with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the counties wherein the said lands and hereditaments are situate, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy from time to time, and for such time and in such manner as we, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we or they shall deem necessary, proper, or convenient for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned; and save and except, and always reserved, full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our or their authority, and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us, or any other property, to make, grant, and use any way or ways upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments, for the purposes aforesaid; provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that nothing in the foregoing exception and reservation shall operate in any manner to prevent the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, from taking and using from, off, or under the said lands and hereditaments, all such stone, clay, sand, and gravel as may be required hereafter for repairing and amending the buildings, fences, roads, or ways now being in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and also for erecting, making, and repairing any buildings, fences, roads, or ways which may require hereafter to be erected or made in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said Bishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands and hereditaments hereby proposed to be assigned as the endowment of the said see as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and that the money payment payable by us under the provisions of the Order of Your Majesty in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, shall, as from the said twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and prospose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said herein-before mentioned Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 2071.

As to the Assignment of District Chapelries to the Churches of Saint George and Saint John the Baptist, Kidderminster, in the County and Diocese of Worcester.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate in the parish of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, and to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate in the same parish.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches of Saint George and Saint John the Baptist, situate in the parish of Kidderminster as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said parish of Kidderminster which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint George, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint George, Kidderminster;' and, secondly, that all that other part of the same parish of Kidderminster, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, all which lastly mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the other map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Kidderminster.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at each of the churches aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices in each such church, should be paid and belong to the ministers thereof for the time being respectively: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof, in either of the churches aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint George, Kidderminster, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line

commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the parish of Hagley, in the same county and diocese, at a point near Blake-down, in the middle of the Birmingham turnpike road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of two miles and a half, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. G. D. C. 1867, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the said road, at the south-eastern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 170 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Kidderminster, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 245 upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward, to such boundary stone; and continuing thence, first north-westward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 170 as aforesaid from the close numbered 171 upon the said maps; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing Saint George's churchyard from the closes numbered respectively 164, 165, and 167 upon the said maps, to the north-western corner of the said churchyard; and continuing thence, in exactly the same direction, and in a straight line, for a distance of one hundred and thirty-five yards, or thereabouts, across the road called or known as Crabtree Closes, and partly across the close numbered 168 upon the said maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. G. D. C. 1867, No. 2;' and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of ninety-nine yards, or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the fence forming the south-western boundary of the close numbered 168 as aforesaid, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. G. D. C. 1867, No. 3,' and placed at the south-eastern extremity of the last-described fence on the northern side of Coventry Street; and extending thence, first south-eastward to, and then south-westward along, the middle of the last-named street, and along the middle of Swan Street, to the junction of the last-named street with the street called or known as 'Bull Ring;' and extending thence, first north-westward and then westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction near Town Bridge with Pitt's Lane; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said lane to its junction with the street or road called or known as 'The Sling;' and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction with the towing-path on the eastern bank of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said towing-path for a distance of nearly one mile, passing to the west of the buildings and premises known as 'The Falling Sands Rolling Mill,' to a point at or close to the southern extremity of the said mill, upon the western bank of the River Stour; and extending thence eastward and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the parish of Stone, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Kidderminster, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Kidderminster, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the new parish of Wribbenhall, sometime part of the said parish of Kidderminster, at a point near the southern extremity of Trimpley Green, where the road leading from Wribbenhall through Trimpley Green aforesaid to Bridgnorth is intersected by the road leading from Hall's Farm across the said Trimpley Green to Trimpley Lane ; and extending thence, generally eastward, along the middle of the last-described road, and along the middle of the said Trimpley Lane, and along the middle of Wolf's Lane, to the junction of the last-named lane at Honey Brook with the turnpike road leading from Bridgnorth aforesaid to Kidderminster ; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said turnpike road as far as its junction at Proud Cross with Mill Street ; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction near the Town Bridge with Pitt's Lane ; and continuing thence, still in the same direction, along the middle of the said lane to its junction with the street or road called or known as 'The Sling ;' and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to its junction with the towing-path on the eastern bank of the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal ; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said towing-path for a distance of nearly one mile, passing to the west of the buildings known as 'The Falling Sands Rolling Mill,' to a point at or close to the southern extremity of the said mill upon the western bank of the River Stour ; and extending thence, eastward, and in a direct line, to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said parish of Kidderminster from the parish of Stone, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

For effecting an Exchange of the Patronage of a certain Living belonging to the Crown for the Patronage of a certain Living belonging to the See of Gloucester and Bristol.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of a certain living belonging to the Crown, the patronage whereof is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of England for the time being, in virtue of his office, for the patronage of a certain living belonging to the See of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of England, is, in virtue of his office as aforesaid, patron of the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the living of which the particulars are set forth in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, (that is to say,) the vicarage of Coaley, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, now Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, is, in right of his See, patron of the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the living of which the particulars are set forth in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, (that is to say,) the vicarage of Cilcain, otherwise Kilken, in the county of Flint and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"And whereas the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid, has signified to us his desire, and the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, has also signified to us his desire, that the patronage of the said two several benefices mentioned in the said First and Second Schedules respectively may be exchanged, as herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the said First and Second Schedules hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, acting as such Lord High Chancellor as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and seal), and with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, as such bishop (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the living herein-before and in the said First Schedule hereunto mentioned, (that is to say,) the vicarage of Coaley aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and from his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, Bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, for ever; and that in exchange for the same the advowson or perpetual patronage of and right of nomination to the living herein-before and in the said Second Schedule hereunto mentioned (that is to say,) the vicarage of Cilcain, otherwise Kilken aforesaid, shall, upon and from the said lastly mentioned day, be transferred from the said Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and from his successors, and shall in like manner become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of England, acting on behalf of Your Majesty in right of the Crown.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The First SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Scheme.

No. 2073.

For providing the Bishop of Chester with a more convenient House of Residence.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following further scheme for providing the Bishop for the time being of the diocese of Chester with a more convenient house of residence.

"Whereas by a scheme prepared in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the secondly herein-before mentioned Act, and duly ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the twenty-seventh day of the same month, certain arrangements therein specified for providing the bishop of the said diocese with a more convenient house of residence as aforesaid were sanctioned, and the Right Reverend William, now bishop of the same diocese, was authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and the said Governors were empowered to lend, by way of mortgage, any sum not exceeding the sum of four thousand pounds towards defraying the cost of such arrangements or some of them.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the said William, Bishop of Chester, that in order fully to complete the arrangements sanctioned as aforesaid for providing a more convenient house of residence for the bishop of that diocese, and particularly in order to secure the due repair and the permanent stability of the messuage or dwelling-house described in the second schedule to our said former scheme, and to provide for certain additions thereto, it is requisite, and the said bishop has accordingly proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that a further sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds, being, together with the sum of four thousand pounds by our said former scheme authorized to be raised as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding two years' income of the see, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage as herein-after mentioned, upon the security of all or any part of the endowments of or belonging to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed this scheme, and affixed to it his episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose that he, the said William, or other the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chester, be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, any sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds upon the security of the revenues of the see, and that such sum shall be paid to us by the said Governors, and that the same, or such portion or portions thereof as may in our opinion be necessary, shall be applied by us, at such times and in such manner as may appear to us to be expedient, in defraying the costs of all repairs, alterations (constructive or destructive), additions, and improvements, which in our opinion are or may be necessary for effecting the provision of a fit and sufficient house of residence for the bishop of the said see of Chester for the time being, as was contemplated in our said former scheme and sanctioned as aforesaid. And accordingly we further recommend and propose, that the said bishop be authorized to mortgage all or any part of the endowments now belonging or which hereafter may belong to his said see to the said Governors, by deed for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds aforesaid, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say, from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage (in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable), the said William, Bishop of Chester, or his successors, shall yearly and every year pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid; and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as herein-before mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said William, Bishop of Chester, as every succeeding bishop of the said see, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges, shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose, that for the said sum, not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds, so to be paid to us as aforesaid, the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Rochester.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, sections two, three, and twenty-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Rochester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, on the vacancy of the said bishoprick, which occurred on or about the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, by the decease of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, the late Bishop of Rochester, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage, and the episcopal house of residence, situate at Danbury, in the county of Essex,) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments lately belonging to the see of Rochester (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require) as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of five thousand pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Rochester, and his successors, by the Order made by Your Majesty in Council on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Rochester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church called Christ Church, Long Load, in the County of Somerset and Diocese of Bath and Wells.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Long Load, in the parish of Martock, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Long Load aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Martock which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Long Load as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Long Load.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert John Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Long Load, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Martock, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which comprises the territory heretofore commonly known as 'The Ancient Chapelry of Long Load,' and which is bounded on the west by the parish of Muchelney, in the same county and diocese, on the north by the parish of Long Sutton, in the same county and diocese, on the east by the new parish of Ash, sometime part of the said parish of Martock, and on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Ash from the parish of Martock aforesaid at a point in the middle of Milton Lane; and extending thence westward along the middle of the same lane to its junction with Southay Lane at Load Toll Gate; and continuing thence, still westward, along the middle of the last-named lane, to its extremity at the entrance to the close numbered 897 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Martock, and upon the map hereunto annexed ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the fences dividing the said close numbered 897, and the closes numbered respectively 898, 899, 900, 980A, and 979, upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 994, 993, 992, 989, 988, and 981 upon the same maps, to a point at the north-western extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 979 from the close numbered 981, as aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Martock from the parish of Muchelney aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

No. 2076.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint John, Hensingham, in the County of Cumberland and Diocese of Carlisle.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the follow representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Hensingham, in the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Bees, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Hensingham as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Bees which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John, situate at Hensingham as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Hensingham.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Saint John, Hensingham, being:—

" All that part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Bees, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the ancient chapelry of Hensingham."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

No. 2077.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Dean and Canons of Her Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within Her Majesty's Castle of Windsor.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Canons of Your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within Your Majesty's Castle of Windsor, and now vested in us.

" Whereas, under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and another Act of the fifth year of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June last past, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said dean and canons of Windsor (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage,) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and canons, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

" And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

" And whereas, with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said dean and canons (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and canons, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and canons, and as will secure a net annual income of fourteen thousand and four hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June last), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said dean and canons of Windsor, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

No. 2078.

For assigning certain Lands and Hereditaments as the Permanent Endowment of the See of Canterbury.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the permanent endowment of the see of Canterbury.

"Whereas the Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, succeeded to the said see upon the first avoidance thereof which happened after the passing of the herein-before mentioned Act.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, which are now vested in us, are, in the judgment of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment for the said see, and are approved by the said Archbishop as suitable for that purpose, and will secure to the holder of the said see, as nearly as may be, after deducting costs of management, a net annual income of fifteen thousand pounds, and no more, being the annual amount named by Act of Parliament as the income of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, and interest therein, save only as is herein-after saved and excepted, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises, which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the archbishoprick of Canterbury, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said Archbishop in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see; save and except, and always reserved unto us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, all and singular the mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, minerals, and metalliferous substances of all descriptions in or under the said lands and hereditaments, with full and exclusive authority to sink, win, work, get up, and carry away the same, in, under, out of, and from the said lands and hereditaments, or any other lands and hereditaments, according to the course and practice at present or hereafter to be used or adopted in the counties wherein the said lands and hereditaments are situate, or according to the most approved mode which may from time to time be used or invented, and to enter upon, take, use, and occupy from time to time, and for such time and in such manner as we, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, shall think fit, so much of the said lands and hereditaments as we or they shall deem necessary, proper, or convenient for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, making full compensation for any injury thereby occasioned; and save and except, and always reserved, full and exclusive authority for us, our successors, and our and their lessees, tenants, and assigns, or persons acting under our or their authority, and whether in reference or respect to lands held by or under us, or any other property, to make, grant, and use any way or ways upon, across, under, or through the said lands and hereditaments for the purposes aforesaid; provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that nothing in the foregoing exception and reservation shall operate in any manner to prevent the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, from taking and using from off or under the said lands and hereditaments all such stone, clay, sand, and gravel as may be required hereafter for repairing and amending the buildings, fences, roads, or ways now being in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, and also for erecting, making, and repairing any buildings, fences, roads, or ways which it may hereafter be deemed necessary to erect or make in, upon, or about the said lands and hereditaments.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said Archbishop shall become entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands and hereditaments hereby proposed to be assigned as the endowment for the said see as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said herein-before mentioned Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Matthew, Leicester, in the County of Leicester and Diocese of Peterborough.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, sometime part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of such particular district as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leicester.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Francis, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at the said church of Saint Matthew, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that all the said fees which may be received in respect of such publication of banns and solemnization or performance of the offices aforesaid at the church of Saint Matthew shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, so long as the vicar of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, shall, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, be entitled to a reservation for his own benefit of the fees payable in respect of the performance of the same offices at the church of the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Leicester, being :—

"All that part of the particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, sometime part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Leicester, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district from the district parish of Saint George, Leicester, in the same county and diocese, at the junction of Wheat Street with Wharf Street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Russell Square; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the street forming the eastern side of the said square to a point in the middle of the south-western end of Bridge Street; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the middle of the same street, as far as the bridge over the Willow Brook; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said brook for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, to a point upon the boundary which divides the said particular district of Christ Church, Leicester, from the parish of Belgrave in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

As to the Assignment of District Chapelries to the Churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour, Croydon, in the County of Surrey and Diocese of Croydon.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate within the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common (sometime part of the parish of Croydon), in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury, and also to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate within the same district chapelry.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour, situate within the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Croydon;' and, secondly, that all that other part of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, all which lastly mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the other map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Croydon.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at each of the churches aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices in such churches as aforesaid, should be paid and belong to the ministers thereof for the time being respectively: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John George Hodgson, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Croydon, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the performance of the said offices in the said churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour as aforesaid, shall be paid by the respective ministers of the said churches to the said John George Hodgson; and also that if the Reverend Henry Campbell Watson, the present incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, should continue to be such incumbent at the date of the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Croydon, then and thereafter, so long as he shall remain incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Saint James, Croydon, all the said fees to be received in respect of the publication of banns, and of the performance of offices in the said churches of the Holy Trinity and Saint Saviour as aforesaid, shall be paid by the said ministers thereof to the said Henry Campbell Watson; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof in either of the churches aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Croydon, being :—

" All that part of the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common (sometime part of the parish of Croydon), in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded on the north-east by the district chapelry of Saint Mark, South Norwood, sometime part of the new parish of All Saints, Norwood, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said district chapelry of Saint Mark, South Norwood, from the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Whitehorse Road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road to a point at the junction of the same road with Saint James's Road West, in the centre of the bridge which carries the last-named road over the line of the Croydon and Epsom Railway, and upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, from the parish of Croydon aforesaid, and which is bounded on the south by another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point upon the boundary dividing the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, from the parish of Croydon, as aforesaid, in the centre of the bridge which carries Saint James's Road West over the line of the Croydon and Epsom Railway as aforesaid; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the same line of railway as far as the boundary which divides the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, from the district chapelry of Saint Mark, South Norwood, as aforesaid.

" The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The district chapelry of Saint Saviour, Croydon, being :—

" All that part of the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common (sometime part of the parish of Croydon), in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded on the east by the new parish of All Saints, Norwood, also sometime part of the same parish, on the north by the new parish of Emmanuel, Streatham, sometime part of the parish of Streatham, in the county of Surrey, aforesaid, and in the diocese of Winchester, on the west by the district chapelry of Christ Church, Broad Green, also sometime part of the parish of Croydon aforesaid, and on the south partly by the last-named parish, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the same parish from the district chapelry of Saint James, Croydon Common, aforesaid, at the junction of Saint James's Road West with Windmill Road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Whitehorse Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road, as far as the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of St. James, Croydon Common, from the new parish of All Saints, Norwood, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

No. 2081.

For constituting the District of Saint James, Barrow-in Furness, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Carlisle.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint George, Barrow, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the part of the said new parish of Saint George, Barrow, which is herein-after mentioned and described, (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship,) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence three pounds per centum consolidated Bank Annuities has been contributed and transferred into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by the Barrow Hæmatite Steel Company (Limited), in aid of the endowment of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said Barrow Hæmatite Steel Company (Limited), and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when he shall have been duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities has been so contributed and transferred as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district herein-after recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Saint George, Barrow, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Barrow-in-Furness.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by, the Most Noble William, Duke of Devonshire, the Most Noble Walter Francis, Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, the Right Honourable Frederick Charles Cavendish, commonly called Lord Frederick Charles Cavendish, Henry William Schneider, of Eaton Square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, and James Ramsden, of Abbot's Wood, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, and their successors, to be appointed as herein-after is mentioned, upon trust, nevertheless, that they, the said William, Duke of Devonshire, Walter Francis, Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, Lord Frederick Charles Cavendish, Henry William Schneider, and James Ramsden, and their successors, shall, upon every legal vacancy in or avoidance of the ministry of the said district so recommended to be constituted, exercise such right of patronage and nomination by nominating to such ministry some one fit and proper person, being in Holy Orders of the United Church of England and Ireland, to be approved of for the purpose by them the trustees for the time being of the said right of patronage and nomination, or by a majority of them: Provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that when and so often as any of them, the said William, Duke of Devonshire, Walter Francis, Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, Lord Frederick Charles Cavendish, Henry William Schneider, and James Ramsden, or any future trustees or trustee, shall die, resign, or become incapable of acting in the execution of the trust hereby recommended and proposed to be created, or shall desire to retire from the said trust, then and in every such case a new trustee or new trustees of the said right of patronage and nomination shall be appointed in the manner and subject to the several provisions set forth in and provided by the tenth section of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, with respect to new trustees to be appointed under the provisions of such last-mentioned statute: Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared, that it shall not be lawful for the said William, Duke of Devonshire, Walter Francis, Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, Lord Frederick Charles Cavendish, Henry William Schneider, and James Ramsden, nor for any of them, nor for any future trustees or trustee (whether appointed as hereinbefore is provided or howsoever otherwise), acting in execution of the trust hereby recommended to be created, or having the right of patronage or nomination as aforesaid, at any time to sell or otherwise depart with or dispose of, for any valuable consideration, the said right of patronage or nomination, but that the same right shall at all times hereafter be held and exercised according to the tenor of this scheme, and not otherwise.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint James, Barrow-in-Furness, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint George, Barrow, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Abbey Road ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Hindpool Road ; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with North Road ; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road to a point one hundred and thirty feet or thereabouts north of the centre of the passage from the entrance dock into Devonshire Dock ; and extending thence north-westward along the centre of the quay between the said entrance dock and a proposed graving dock, and continuing in the same direction and in a straight line to the boundary in the middle of Walney Channel which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Barrow, from the parish of Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the new parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and the said patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared; and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Chesham as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Chesham which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate in such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ' The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Chesham.'

" And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Chesham, being :—

" All that part of the parish of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, which is bounded on the south partly by the parish of Chesham Bois, in the same county and diocese, and partly by the parish of Amersham, in the same county and diocese, on the east by the hamlet and chapelry of Latimer, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the north and west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Chesham from the hamlet and chapelry of Latimer aforesaid at a point near the western extremity of Ley Hill Common, in the middle of the road leading from Boxmore, past Botley and Maple-tree Farm, to Chesham; and extending thence first north-westward and then westward for a distance of one mile and two hundred and eighty-eight yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same road, to its junction near Hollybush Farm with the footpath leading past Dungrove and the Beech Tree to Chesham; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of one mile and sixteen yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said footpath, to its junction with the road leading from Chesham to Amersham; and extending thence southward for a distance of two hundred and fifty-eight yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-mentioned road, to the boundary dividing the said parish of Chesham from the parish of Chesham Bois aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church situate at Wythburn, in the County of Cumberland and Diocese of Carlisle.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, situate at Wythburn, in the parish of Crosthwaite, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Wythburn as aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Crosthwaite which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate at Wythburn as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Wythburn.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Wythburn, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Crosthwaite, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the parochial chapelry of Wythburn, otherwise called Wyborne."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Precentorship of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in the Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the precentorship of the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas by the decease of the Reverend Richard Pretyman, precentor of the said cathedral church, which occurred on or about the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said precentorship, or to the prebend of Kilsby, in the said cathedral church, which prebend was annexed to the said precentorship (except any rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon leases for lives and years, and the same produce to us during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

" And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said precentorship, or to the said prebend of Kilsby, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

No. 2085.

For assigning the Patronage of the New Parish of Saint James, Plymouth, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 23d August 1867.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of August 1867.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Saint James, Plymouth, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of March, in the same year, the district of Saint James, Plymouth, was constituted out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and such district has since become and now as aforesaid is a new parish under the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister or (as the case might be) of the perpetual curate of the said district, now a new parish as aforesaid, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas a sum of one thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by James Blackmore Wilcocks, of Stoke, near Devonport, in the said county of Devon, solicitor, one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the borough of Plymouth, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish and for the benefit of the incumbent thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed with the said James Blackmore Wilcocks, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the incumbent of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto) the yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence.

"And whereas the said sum of one thousand pounds sterling was so contributed and paid by the said James Blackmore Wilcocks as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned to the said James Blackmore Wilcocks, his heirs and assigns, in the manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint James, Plymouth, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said James Blackmore Wilcocks, his heirs and assigns for ever.

SEVENTEENTH REPORT

CHURCH ESTATES COMMISSIONERS.

10, Whitehall Place,
SIR, 1st March 1868.

WE, the Church Estates Commissioners, have the honour to make our Annual Report of our proceedings under the Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, intituled "An "Act to facilitate the Management and Improvement of "Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and sixteen, intituled "An Act to continue and amend an Act to facilitate the "Management and Improvement of Episcopal and Capitu-"lar Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twenty-second and twenty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-six, intituled "An Act to continue and amend "the Act concerning the Management of Episcopal and "Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, intituled "An Act further to amend the Acts relating to the Eccle-"siastical Commissioners and the Act concerning the "Management of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in Eng-"land," and under the Expiring Laws Continuance Acts of 1866 and 1867.

We have, under the provisions of the 6th and 7th sections of the Act secondly above mentioned, transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England during the past year a sum of 30,000*l.*, in respect of the surplus proceeds of Enfranchisements completed. The aggregate amount which has been paid over or transferred to the account of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners is now 1,330,207*l.* 2*s.* 2*d.*, in addition to 160,000*l.* in respect of interest which has accrued on the surplus.

We last year reported that the transactions approved by us, between August 1851 and March 1867, were 2,851 in number, and that the value in fee of the Estates so agreed to be dealt with amounted to about 10,925,000*l.*

We have during this year approved the terms agreed upon in 92 cases; 91 being cases of sales of reversions, and 1 a case of a purchase of a leasehold interest, and the value in fee of the Estates so agreed to be dealt with is approximately 235,000*l.* The aggregate number of cases approved by us is therefore 2,943, and the value of the property dealt with amounts to about 11,160,000*l.* In 9 cases we declined to approve the terms proposed; but in 5 of these the terms have been modified so as to meet with our sanction, and they have been included in the number above stated to have been approved.

We set forth in Schedule A. all the cases in which during the past year we have approved sales of reversions or purchases of leasehold interests; and in Schedule B. the proposed sales of reversions which we have declined to sanction.

In Schedule A. are also set forth 13 cases of enfranchisement of copyholds of inheritance effected under the abovementioned Acts.

The transactions continue to be effected with facility, and the Commissioners have reason to believe that the terms are generally satisfactory to the Lessees as well as beneficial to the Church.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servants,

CHICHESTER.
J. R. MOWBRAY.
EDW. HOWES.

The Right Honourable
The Secretary of State for the Home Department.
